Slipping in and out,
As they flit about
Busily weaving spells.

Their houses are bowers Of posey flowers,
Their drink is mist and dew,
And the leaves of the rose
They wear for clothes
Are the finest you ever knew.

"The way they tease
The birdies and bees,
Is a mocking shocking thing,
They always say
It's the onliest way,
They know how to make 'em sing.

"They ride on frogs
And green pollywogs,
When they go out to call,
And lizards and eels
Are their automobiles,

"The very idea!" said Contrary Mary indignantly. "Of course not. I never allow a caterpillar in my garden. Besides, who ever heard of caterpillars wearing rose-leaves for clothes. The ugly things wear fur!"

"And as for spiders," put in Miss Muffet, "let me tell you they don't have company to tea. The cheeky things comes to other people's parties without being asked."

"I know what it is," spoke up Nancy. "It's fairies, isn't it?"

"Yes," smiled the Riddle Lady, "and the prize is a lovely pink rose. If you know where there are any fairies, you can make dresses for them all."

Florenceville, Jan. 22.—Sheriff Foster was here on Saturday and arrested James McDonald on a charge of having set fire to the house recently burned, which was owned by Charles Irons. The accused was lodged in the Woodstock jail. McDonald, who is an orphan, only 17 years of age, vehemently protests his innocence of any Connection with the fire. His friends declare that a complete alibi can easily be established.

Hydro first arrived here Sunday evening; all the houses have not been connected up yet, owing to a lack of proper wire, but already there is a marked improvement in the appearance of the village. During a heavy gale on Wednesday night a tree fell across the line disconnecting wires and made a very spectacular blaze, burning two poles, three panels of fence and several trees. It destroyed a large transformer in the Bristol power house, and a local transformer. Messrs. Brown and Shanks were able to get the line in working order again soon.

Quickly Throw Off Cold and Feel Your Best Again.

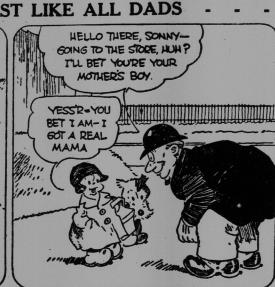

It is impossible to get rid of a disagreeable cold so long as your system is too run-down to throw off the cold as Nature intended. And you cannot be healthy or feel good so long as one vital organ in your body is not functioning as it should.

This organ is your liver! When working as Nature intended it purifies your blood, every drop of which filters through your liver every fifteen minutes. Your liver also aids digestion and nourishment, prevents constipation and nourishment prevents constipation.

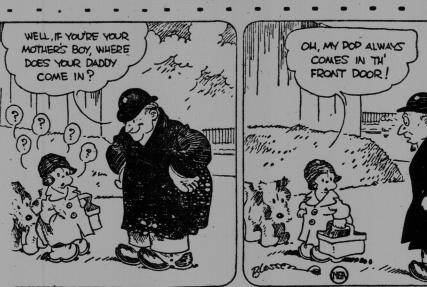

and nourishment, prevents constipation and does many important things to keep your system in condition. But, when it becomes clogged and sluggish your liver cannot do these three things. Consequently you often wake up mornings feeling dull and tired, frequently bothered with one or more symptoms such as lack of appetite, poor digestion,
