SUSSEX WAKES UP IN REGARD TO SPORT

(Sussex Record.)
The executive of the Sussex Amateur Athletic Association met last week and made additional plans for the coming winter season. A hockey committee has been appointed consisting of W. S. Hay, chairman; C. P. Clarke and George Maggs. This committee is at present in communication with St. John, Moncton, Amherst, Sackville, and Dorchester, and it is hoped to have a league of senior hockey this winter with a first class Sussex team. In addition to this league the association purpose having a local league for the benefit of those members of the association not able to make the senior team.
E. H. Vickers has also been appointed chairman of a track committee and during the winter this committee will perfect their plans so that at the beginning of next spring track sports can be immediately entered upon.
Application forms and membership cards of the association have been printed and it is expected that a large number of members will be elected and enrolled in the near future.
MacDonald in Draw.
Halifax, N. S., Dec. 4.—Roddie MacDonald, of Gloucester, and Tommy Robson, of Malden, Mass., fought fifteen rounds to a draw here tonight.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

Fine New Bill at Opera House Tonight

The new programme which is billed for the Opera House tonight gives promise of being one of the best presented for many weeks. It is diversified, brimful of wholesome fun, good singing, select musical offerings, stellar athletic feats, to say nothing of a bright little original comedy sketch entitled "The Hick and the Country Girl." In addition, the new serial, which should be one of the most popular ever shown on the local screen, will be shown, featuring James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion of the world, in "The Mid-Man." Don't miss this first episode.

J. J. Corbett Tonight At The Opera House

Tonight at the Opera House, in conjunction with the regular vaudeville programme will be seen the first episode of the new serial photo drama "The Mid-Man," with the famous boxer-actor-author, James J. Corbett, formerly heavy weight champion of the world, in the leading role.
The plot is laid in and around New York city, the story is fast and stirring. There are a number of astounding stunts in each episode; there is a good love story running through the serial. Photography and detail of production are said to be of a high order and the serial has been one of the big successes of the year, playing a prominent part on the programmes of all the leading motion picture theatres in the big city.
See the first chapter—you will not want to miss the rest.

THE STAR TONIGHT

For the week end the Star Theatre will show the third chapter of the western serial "The Terror of the Range." "Smiley" Polard and Little Sambo in "All at Sea," an O. Henry story, the Gaumont picture and a reel Vitaphone comedy "Whiskers." On Monday Virginia Pearson will be presented in "The Bishop's Emeralds."

Moncton Wants Aerodrome

Moncton Transcript.—Some time ago a communication was forwarded to the city council by Lieutenant-Colonel Barker, D. S. O., president of the Aero Club, asking the city council if an aerodrome were established in Moncton would it be received with favour, and what assistance would the city council lend the project in the way of inducement?
The communication was referred to the proper channels. It is felt that in event of the Aero Club establishing a link of the service in Moncton it would receive support. A similar communication was forwarded to the city council by the Aero Club, asking the city council if an aerodrome were established in Moncton would it be received with favour, and what assistance would the city council lend the project in the way of inducement?
The communication was referred to the proper channels. It is felt that in event of the Aero Club establishing a link of the service in Moncton it would receive support.
