Rev. Mr. Jameson Missionary Among Submerged of East End

SPEAKS OF WAR CONDITIONS

Fine Spirit Prevades England—In Mile Square, Where His Work Lies, Are Half Million People—It Was There That "Jack the Ripper" Terrorized Community

An interesting visitor in the city at the present time is the Rev. John Jameson, of Tower Bridge church, London, England, also closely connected for years with the missionary work among the submerged classes in the East End of the great metropolis. Mr. Jameson is making a tour of Canada, chiefly of a holiday nature, and expects to spend eight or nine weeks in the Dominion. In conversation with a Times reporter this morning Mr. Jameson said that his work was very strenuous, and just before the outbreak in Europe he was planning his first trip across the Atlantic. His departure was delayed by the war, and he was unable to get away until his care that had to be provided for the breadwinners of the family rallied to the call of the empire. Speaking of the European situation, he said: "This awful war has dislocated vast industries, destroyed the civilizing agencies for which central European nations stood, checking for the time being all economic progress. Every nation stands to lose by the war, and lose not only material but also the hope of progress. England strove and strove with might and main to stop the threatened disaster. Sir Edward Grey exerted his great powers to make the cabinets of Europe realize that none could gain by war. England, against her will and with great repugnance, has been forced into this conflict. "In true British spirit, the men of England have responded to the call to arms and all classes and parties are as one. All differences are laid aside, and the militant suffragette has been pacified. England is fighting so as, by the blessing of God, she shall end the war and the ceaseless threat against peace that has disturbed Europe for the last twenty years. For this reason this campaign must be waged so as to place out of action for an indefinite period all willful disturbers of peace of nations and all incentives to war. "The mother country is thrilled with admiration at the expressed loyalty and love of the Dominion of Canada and she is proud of her sons. "With regard to his community work, Mr. Jameson said that his district was one of the poorest in that area. About 2,000 children were perpetually under his supervision, and just before leaving he was feeding 500 of them. "The mother country is left without a man to take the place of father or brother for the front, or by being thrown out of employment. He arranged before leaving that this work shall be carried on in his absence. "The section in which Mr. Jameson is stationed in that which was terrorized some years ago by what was known as the work of Jack the Ripper. So prevalent was crime at that time that even the sturdy policemen of London feared to enter some of the alleys and lanes in the East End. "On account of my work among the children," said Mr. Jameson, "I was known all over the section, and could go any place without being molested." "Rev. Mr. Jameson will occupy the pulpit of Centenary church on Sunday evening and will preach in Portland Methodist church on Sunday morning.

THREE EACH; NOW FOR THE DECIDING GAME

Fairville Royals Have Forged Their Way Along Doggedly—Settle Championship Tomorrow

While the war has interfered a good deal with sport in Fairville as well as elsewhere, yet a considerable number of fans have followed the ball games lately with interest, particularly when it became evident that the Royals had a fighting chance for the championship of St. John, in addition to the local honor of heading the Fairville League by a substantial margin. In contending with the Glenwoods of the East End League, Captain Hanlon and his braves realized they were up against a proposition of far different calibre than the Cubs and Athletics with whom they had been having an even going summer and so it was with some what shaken confidence in their own ability that they faced the city aggregation for the opening battle. The first three games were disastrous to the Fairville players having, for the time lost their grip of anything akin to baseball, but in the fourth encounter they worked into their stride and came off victorious, and with this encouragement proceeded to land two more games in their favor, thus tying the series. Tomorrow the deciding game will be played on the Shamrock grounds and the Lancaster rosters expect to do their duty. St. John frequently turns out a line of top notch material, but it has been quite a few years since Fairville has been able to take a place in the championship running. Hence the Royals are deserving of much praise from their admirers in forging to the front with good prospects of coming out leaders for the season of 1914. The team has stuck together through thick and thin, always in the game and forgetting other engagements as of no importance and their excellent team work and co-operative ability, as a result of this consistent devotion to the sport of sports, deserves appreciation of Fairvillers whether they come off champions or not.

LOCAL NEWS

THE RATE REDUCED The discount on American money has been reduced from two per cent to one half of one per cent, which is the rate now charged by local banks on American currency as well as checks drawn on United States banks. $7,784 FOR CITY LABORERS The city laborers received their fortnightly pay envelopes today. The amounts charged to the various departments are as follows: Public works $3,943.55 Water and sewerage 2,485.08 Harbor 1,036.84 Ferry 869.55 Total $7,784.90 THE BEST COLLIE There was an error in the prize list in the Times last evening in the award for collies at the exhibition. The silver cup for the best collie in the whole show was won by Lassie, owned by R. B. Humphrey (not by Mr. Sterling) of Jubilee, N. B. Mr. Humphrey is an enthusiastic lover of collies and says that if all farmers kept them and no others there would be no complaint about sheep being destroyed by dogs. AN UNNECESSARY CALL The ringing of box 118 last evening about seven o'clock called out the west side fire department, but on their arrival at the place from which the alarm was sent in they found no sign of fire and the author of the alarm was also missing. Instead of breaking the glass to get the key, the miscreant removed it intact by sliding it down through the slot used for replacing glasses. McFARLAND-ADAMS. A pretty wedding took place last evening at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Wellington Camp, D., of Leinster street Baptist church, when William McFarland, formerly of Glasville, Carleton county, but now of St. John, was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle Ivy Adams, a native of Shropshire, England, now residing in this city. The bride wore a very pretty costume of white serge and white felt hat with ostrich mount. Mr. and Mrs. McFarland will reside in St. John. FOR THE RED CROSS FUND. The ladies of Nauwigewauk, Jubilee, and French Village, the latter comprising the upper section of Robtessy parish, held an entertainment for the benefit of the Red Cross Fund in the hall at Nauwigewauk last Friday evening. It was very enjoyable and netted $88 for the fund. A lady in her eightieth year who could not attend visited the home of the president and expressed her regret, and gave a personal contribution of a dollar to the fund.

TIMES AND TELEGRAPH BOOTH AT EXHIBITION

For the convenience of subscribers and advertisers, the Telegraph and Times will have a booth at the exhibition directly facing the main entrance in the gallery, where subscriptions will be taken, information given regarding advertising rates, etc.

POTATOES SPILLED

There was a slump in potatoes this morning in North End. It was not a regular market slump, but just an ordinary fall in stock. The stock was in a barrel which reposed snugly in the rear of an exhibit wagon. The wheels striking a particularly prominent "bumping place" in the roadway, the springs of the wagon were very suddenly sprung and the barrel of potatoes rolled over the place where the pavement should have been in Main street near Durham.

MORE TO BE HEARD

Arthur J. Cotter, reported several days ago for driving an automobile past the corner of King and Charlotte street without sounding his horn, and running into a pedestrian, was on the stand himself this morning and said he was doing only three miles an hour just before coming up to where Detective Lucas was standing and that he put on the brakes when about fifteen feet away. The case was further adjourned for more witnesses.

How They Sell Hellos in New York

The New York Telephone Company is a large and aggressive newspaper advertiser. It advertises its service; it preaches courtesy; it shows new ways of using the telephone. Now it has taken another step and linked the store windows of the retailers to its newspaper advertising. Attractive window forms have been gotten out which impress the advantage of ordering by telephone. The stores are showing the displays, the newspaper advertising is going on, and the business of the telephone is increasing. The co-operation in this campaign is a striking example of the way the retailer is impressed by advertising in his home newspaper and how he wants to assist in selling the goods.

Buying Clothing Should Be A Profitable Investment, Mr. Man. You want to get all that's coming to you when you spend your money, don't you? But do you get it? If you buy your clothing anywhere outside of Oak Hall we emphatically say you do not. Now a man spends considerable for clothing in the course of a year, and a saving of five dollars or ten dollars on a purchase is too important a thing to be side stepped in these days of the increasing cost of living. And you are side-stepping just such savings when you fail to buy your clothing at Oak Hall. Of course you know that when you buy of us you buy of the makers. You thus SAVE the middleman's profit, which profit you must pay at other stores. You see, therefore, the reason for the difference between our prices and other stores' prices. And besides saving money you will get clothing that has no superior in quality, style and durability.
