The annual Christmas tree celebration was held in the Municipal Home on Saturday afternoon. A large number of visitors attended and were given an opportunity to inspect the institution. The tree was then dismantled and gifts of clothing for the older folk and toys and candy for the children were distributed and an extensive programme was carried out by the children of the home. Among those present were Mayor Prink, the commissioners of the home, of whom G. A. Knodell is chairman, and who presided, the chaplains, Rev. A. J. O'Neill and Dr. W. O. Raymond; Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, Rev. W. Malcolm, Rev. J. Pinkerton, and Dr. James Christie.

Wait for the clean sweep, at 207 Union street, Opera Block.

In Dorchester avenue, a shop bears the sign "Light Groceries" and in passing we wonder whether the proprietor gives light weight or sells only matches, candles, and kerosene.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

The customer in the grocery store, having ruined his clothes, was hopping mad.

"Didn't you see that sign 'Fresh paint'?" asked the grocer.

"Of course, I did," snapped the customer; "but I've seen so many signs hung up here announcing something fresh which wasn't that I didn't believe it."
