Acquire a Good Habit.

It may not be your habit now to throw your shoulders back and hold your head erect, but when you wear our clothes it will be.

Our Suits are built on broad-shouldered, square-shouldered, manly lines, and you simply cannot fall into a careless, unattractive attitude when wearing them.

Acquire a good habit by wearing clothes that add to your personality. The prices are reasonable, the values exceptional.

BORDEN CLUB AND TARIFF

The amendment of the West India treaty to provide for the limitation of the tariff preference to goods shipped through Canadian ports, to the need for which attention was drawn through the columns of the Times, is likely to be the chief subject for discussion at a meeting of the Borden club which will be held this evening.

TAG DAY SATURDAY WEEK

Tag Day in aid of the Sisters of Charity Infirmary will be on Saturday, Oct. 12. The object is most worthy, to secure funds to help towards opening the hospital in Charing street as soon as possible. This hospital will be for all, irrespective of religion, affiliations, and the appeal is therefore made to all to assist. Keep some change for the taggers on Saturday week.

DIED LAST NIGHT.

Mrs. Katherine Robertson passed away last evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Macaulay, 179 Blyth street, from where the funeral will take place on Saturday at half-past two o'clock. She was the widow of George R. Robertson, and a native of Scotland. She had spent many years of her life in St. John, but removed to Boston some time ago. About a year ago Mrs. Robertson was taken ill and her health had since been poor. She returned to St. John two months ago.
