Wider Spirit of Nationalism—Regrets N. B. Decision on College Federation (Canadian Press Despatch.)
Montreal, March 5—Dr. Gordon J.
Laing, dean of the Faculty of Arts at McGill University, addressing the Canadian Club here today, made a plea for interchange of professors between Canadian universities with a view to the creation of a wider spirit of Canadianism rather than local provincialism.
Dr. Laing said his subject had been suggested by a recent meeting of ministers and educationalists in Toronto, which had discussed and rejected the idea of the establishment of a central bureau of education at Ottawa to collect and distribute information regarding educational matters. He attribute the idea of the establishment of a central bureau of education at Ottawa to collect and distribute information regarding educational matters. He attribute the rejection of the idea to sectional
