The Game.

St. George's and Carletons battled to a tight finish in the last night on the new square diamond, when the Y. M. C. A. failed to show up to play St. George's. It was one of the best games of the season. The batteries were: for St. George's, Daly and Hart; for the Carletons, Matthew and Mitchell.

Beavers Get Big Crowds.
Boston, Sept. 3.—The Boston Nation will double last year's attendance figures at Braves Field by the end of the season. The total will exceed 360,000 persons, club officials estimated today on the basis of records to date.

The largest attendance at any game this year was 39,000, the crowd that met out to see the Pirates and the Braves in one conflict. This was the first instance in which the attendance is more than 30,000, but the figures on her games were high enough to make an average for each playing date better than 40,000 persons.

Atlantic Races Today.

The last aquatic meet of the season drew the auspices of the West End Improvement League will take place this afternoon at the city slip, West St. John 2.15 sharp. There will be a single all race, three races for four oared crews, two races for ten oared barges.

Halifax Regatta Today.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 3.—Numbers of sporting visitors arrived in Halifax last night and more are expected today to attend the regatta on the North West Arm under the auspices of St. Mary's Club. The events will commence at a quarter to three. Hilton Belyea of St. John, champion Canadian single sculler, had another workout on the course yesterday with an interested crowd for a gallery.

On Her Long Swim.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 3.—Miss Mille Gade, a Danish woman who left here early yesterday with the announced intention of swimming down the Hudson River to New York, was reported to have reached New Baltimore, approximately twenty miles from here, at a late hour last night. It was said that she intended to resume her long distance swim early today. Miss Gade is accompanied by a pilot in a row boat and a trainer and nurse in a launch. Before taking to the water here she said that she would not go ashore during her journey, but would rest aboard the launch.

Double Header.

The Rockwoods and the Cardinals will clash on Monday in a double header. The morning game will be played on the Elm street diamond and will start at ten o'clock. The afternoon game, which will start at 2.30 o'clock, will be played on the Rockwood diamond. The following is the line-up of the Rockwoods: Segee, catcher; H. Torey, pitcher; Clark, first base; H. MacMurray, second base; J. Forey, third base; A. Akerly, shortstop; M. McIntyre, left field; Grant, centre field; F. MacMurray, right field.
