

Article 3.—The Secretary, under the direction of the President, or (in the absence or inability of the President) the chairman of the Executive Committee shall attend to the correspondence and other business of the society; shall keep in suitable books, copies of all letters written, and shall file all letters received; give notice of all meetings of the Society and of the Executive Committee, and attend the same; shall keep a record of all the proceedings thereat, and shall give notice to those affected by them.

Article 4.—The Treasurer shall receive and keep the funds of the Society, and accurate accounts of the same; shall pay all bills certified by the President, or (in his absence or inability), the chairman of the Executive Committee; and shall present to the Executive Committee annually, at least ten days previous to the annual meeting of the society, a full account, duly vouched and audited, of all his doings.

Article 5.—The Counsel shall be the legal advisor of the Society and its officers, and shall have the general charge and conduct of all suits and proceedings instituted by or against the Society and its officers, or either of them, or in which the Society may be interested.

2.—With the advice or consent of the President, or (in the absence or inability of the President), the chairman of the Executive Committee, he may compromise or settle any such suit or proceeding; and may also from time to time associate with himself and retain such other counsel or attorney as, in the judgment of the President or Chairman, as aforesaid, and himself, may be advisable for the best interests of the Society.

3.—He shall receive for his personal services such pecuniary compensations and fees as shall be determined by the Executive Committee, but he shall have no vote in such committee on any question relating to, or affecting such compensation or fees.

4.—All disbursements made by him in the execution of his powers and duties as counsel or attorney, shall be repaid him out of the funds of the Society, where the same cannot by law, or in fact, be collected from other sources, upon his certificate in writing, specifying the amount and grounds thereof.

Article 6.—The President, or (in his absence or inability), the chairman of the Executive Committee, shall be authorized to offer and pay a reward not exceeding Ten Dollars, to any person (not a member of this Society) who shall furnish evidence to convict any party guilty of any infraction of the laws for the prevention of cruelty to animals.
