For the information of persons belonging to Newfoundland who propose to go to the United States of America, notice is hereby given that the Immigration Laws of the United States, which came into effect on the first May last, provide:

1.—That all aliens entering the United States shall pay a tax of $8, but children under sixteen years of age, accompanying their father or their mother, shall not be subject to such tax. In the case of persons not remaining sixty days in the United States, the said tax will be returned upon their leaving the country.

2.—All aliens over sixteen years of age, who cannot read the English language, or some other language, will not be permitted to enter.

3.—Amongst other classes of aliens not admitted into the United States are the following: Idiots, insane, epileptic, paupers, those physically defective and children under sixteen who are unaccompanied.

Cases have been brought to the notice of the Government where Newfoundlanders for one or other of the above reasons have been refused admission to the United States, and much disappointment and inconvenience, as well as expense, has been the result.

Until the opening of navigation, Parcel delivery on many of the present routes must be partially, and for some places entirely, suspended; weather conditions making it impossible for couriers to carry heavy weights over the almost impassable roads. "Imperial" Engine

The first cost of a motor engine is important. The life of the engine is also important. Some engines wear only a short time; others go on doing duty for years. The cooling or water circulation has a lot to do with it. This "Imperial" has. You can run the "Imperial" at the highest speed and yet keep it as cool as you wish.

War Ledger of the Kaiser

Analysis of the events of the year of war ending shows the balance running against Germany and its Allies. Here are the chief items:

TO GERMANY'S CREDIT

Ravages of the U-boats. From 400,000 to 600,000 tons of merchant ships—perhaps more—put out of service monthly in the last six months. Neutral shipping largely frightened off seas.

Disorganization of the Russian Army due to revolution. Rout of the Russians in Galicia and Bukovina. Conquest of Roumania, with possession of rich farming and oil fields.

TO CREDIT OF ENTENTE

United States, Brazil, seven other American nations and Siam enter the war against Germany, or have severed diplomatic relations with Germany, because of the U-boat campaign. Great wealth, man power, manufacturing power and inventive genius thrown in to the scale.

Roumania and Greece with fresh armies join the Allies.

Russian democracy uprooting German influences throughout Russia and spreading the campaign against auto cracy among the German and Austrian masses.

Death of Francis Joseph and rise of Emperor Charles, who has overthrown the pro-Prussian party in Austria-Hungary and has taken a powerful hand in committing the German Reichstag to a programme of peace without conquest.

German Socialists openly fighting autocracy and carrying their campaign to the army. Strikes and riots in many parts of the Empire.

The American embargo, which will shut off many military and food supplies Germany has been getting from neutrals.

Retreat on a front of eighty miles by the German Army in France. Capture by the British of Vimy and Messines and by the French of Creanne Plateau and Fort Vaux. Advance of the British past Bagdad and across the Sinai Peninsula. Capture of Gorizia by the Italians and Monastir by the Serbs.

In some parts of Canada women have abandoned style, and are wearing their old clothes, in order to help win the war.

A visitor to Ireland was bidding fare well, and said to an attendant:

"Good-bye, yer honor. May Heaven bless you, and may every hair in your head be a candle to light your soul to glory!"

"Well, Pat," he said, showing him a bald pate, "when that time comes there won't be much of a torchlight procession."

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCERBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, headache, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Words of Wisdom

Half done is often worse than not begun.

If we were to put more earnestness into our prayers God would put more power into our lives.

No man has ever accomplished any great end who did not make it his chief business in life.

Joy, the "fulness of joy," and life, the life "more abundantly," are never known outside the service of God. If you would expand into all the greatness and sweetness and blessedness possible to you, you can do so only by unreservedly serving the living God.

Zeal that is not real is like a painted flame, giving neither heat nor light.

The thing to produce brotherhood in man is to make men all around glad in life and in God.—John Kelman.

"Wherever you are, be all there," is a modern preacher's wise advice. That is a free rendering of "Be zealously sought in a good matter at all times." Half-way living and half-way working, like half way measures in every thing else, usually spell whole failure.

"Now let me burn out for God!" cried Henry Martyn, the great missionary. There sounds the echo of the Pauline passion, the Christ passion. Great souls are willing to be consumed in great service. They prize nothing so much as opportunity to cry, "The zeal of Thy House hath eaten me up."

Enthusiasm is the genius of sincerity, and truth accomplishes no victories without it.—Bulwer Lytton.

If you are a cold Christian you are in a wrong attitude toward Jesus Christ, away from duty, away from prayer, away from joy, away from belief, indulging in some besetting sin.—Cuyler.

At present there is not a single unoccupied cot at the General Hospital. Many people are awaiting admission, principally outport patients, who are in boarding houses, but cannot be accommodated.—Telegraph.

And still no attention is paid by the authorities to the urgent request from the outports that hospitals be provided in certain outport towns.

He Knew

A popular Scotch minister, who was blessed with an unusual sense of humour, was asked by one of his flock whether he thought that a man who practised the trombone on Sundays would go to heaven.

"I would not care to say that he will not," was the reverend one's reply, "but I do feel pretty sure that the man who lives next door won't."

Two lawyers before a country justice recently got into a wrangle. At last one of the disputants, losing control of his temper, exclaimed to his opponent: "Jim Rogers, you are the biggest jackass I ever set eyes upon!" The justice pounded the desk and called loudly: "Order! Order! You seem to forget that I am in the room."

A Cure for Conceit

"When lecturing in the North of England," says Sir Ernest Shackleton, the famous explorer, "before it was time for the proceeding to begin on one occasion, I took a peep through the curtain to see what kind of audience I was likely to have. Things looked promising, and I said so.

"Yes," said the chairman, "I think you are going to have as big an audience as the handbell ringers had last week."

"That is the sort of thing," added Sir Ernest, "that keeps me modest!"
