SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY. CONDUCTED BY J. G. HOLLAND. The Handsomest Illustrated Magazine in the World

The American edition of this periodical is MORE THAN 70,000 MONTHLY, And it has a larger circulation in England than any other American magazine. Every number contains about one hundred and fity pages, and from fifty to seventy-five original wood-cut illustrated articles descriptive of Canadian Sports and Scenery have recently appeared in its pages, and the magazine during the ceming year will devote much space to matters of special interest to the Canadian public.

Announcements for 1878-9. "FIAWORTH'S]," by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's." The scene of Mrs. Eurnett's new novel is laid in Lancashire; the hero is a young inventor of American birth. "Haworth's is the longest story Mrs. Bunnett has yet written. It will run through twelve numbers of the Mouthly, beginning with November 1878, and will be profusely illustrated. FALCONBERG, by H. H. Boyesene, author "Gunnar," "The Man who Lost his Name," of "Gunnar," The Man who Lost his Name," &c. In this Romanes, the author graphically describes the poculiarities of Norse immigrant life in a Western settlement. Some of the incidents will be found of very curious interest, this being a study of a phase of life in the New World with which few Americans, even, are familiar. "Falconberg" began in the August number of 1678.

A STORY OF NEW ORLEANS, by Seorge W. Cable. This stery will exhibit the state of society in Creole Louisians about the years 303-4-5, the time of the Cession, and a period cearing a remarkable likeness to the present Re-PORTRAITS OF AMERICAN POETS This series will be continued, that of Longrellow appearing in November. These portraits are drawn from file by Wyatt Eaton and engraved by T. Cole. They will be printed separately on tinted paper, and the printed separately on tinted paper, of the weekly Freeman is to be continued. If the property of the weekly Freeman is to be continued.

A NEW VIEW OF BRAZII. Mr. Herbert H. Smith, of Octaell University, a companion of the late Prof. Hart, is now in Brazil, with Mr. J. Wells Champney (the artist who accompanied Mr. Edward King in his tour through "The Great South,") preparing for Schimars a series of papers on the present condition,—the cities, rivers, and general resources of the great empire of South America. THE "JOHNNY REB" PAPERS, by the "ex-Confederate" soldier, will be among the raciest contributions to Scransas during the coming year. They are written and illustrated by Mr. Allan C. Redwood, of Baltimore. The first of the saries, "Johnny Reb at Play," appears in the November number.
