A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Miss Ella Louise McAvity and Frank R. Fairweather Married in Stone Church Today.

One of the most brilliant weddings that has ever taken place in St. John's (stone) church, occurred this afternoon at three o'clock, when Miss Ella Louise McAvity, daughter of Thomas McAvity, of the firm of T. McAvity & Sons, became the bride of Frank R. Fairweather, of Tilley & Fairweather.

The floral decorations of the church were exquisitely artistic. In the centre of the altar an arch was erected, the framework of which was entwined with leaves of poplar.

The bride looked charmingly handsome in a superb bridal gown of white satin, accented with chiffon and deep rose painted lace.

Her attendants were Miss Ethel McAvity, Miss Agnes Blizard, and Miss Rosamond McAvity. The dress of the first named was white Chinese crepe over silk, and large white hat with plumes and chignon strings.

The groom wore a dark suit, with a white shirt and a dark tie. He carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The reception at the home of the bride's parents, 192 King street (east) followed the ceremony. The decorations of the house followed closely on the general lines of those of the church—white and green being prominent.

The walls of the spacious reception room were banked with palms and ferns. Festoons of evergreen foliage mingled with white roses and smilax hung from the centre of the room.

Two tables were set, one for the bridal party and the other for the guests. In the centre of the bridal table rose a pyramid of bridal cakes decorated with white roses.

For the reception over one hundred invitations were issued to relatives and most intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairweather leave this afternoon on the six o'clock train for an extended tour of the upper Canadian provinces.
