

LIBERALS WIN NORTH BRUCE

Tolmie Elected by About 350 Majority.

First Seat Captured by Liberals in Ontario Since the General Election

PORT ELGIN, Ont., Oct. 30.—After a keen contest the elections of North Bruce, by a majority of about 350, today returned John Tolmie, the Liberal candidate, as their representative. The town made a strong Liberal showing. Port Elgin leading with a majority of 219, Kincardine following close with 112 and Southampton 106. Warton gave McLeod 52. The farmers of Bruce township swelled up 275 of the majority for the Liberal candidate and Sturgeon 112.

The Conservative organization was under the direction of Hugh Clark, M. P., who marshalled the campaign especially in the southern municipalities. The result in the rural municipalities show adherence of the farmers to the policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in spite of the fact that the opposition candidate was a respectable and highly esteemed farmer. The riding is more than 100 miles long and four or five divisions will not be heard from tonight.

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 30.—John Tolmie, Liberal, was elected in North Bruce today by over three hundred majority over Abram McLeod, Conservative. Globe says: "The return of Mr. Tolmie for North Bruce is a decided and significant victory for the Laurier administration. His election by so large a majority stamps this as a Liberal constituency, and Tolmie as a strong candidate, but his victory was due in part to other causes. Chief among them was the tariff issue. As Patron and Liberal he has always stood for a moderate scale of customs duties, and when the tariff comes up for revision during the approaching session there he will again be found. He understands perfectly the effect of burdensome taxation on the agricultural industry, and he can see for himself the general and unprecedented prosperity enjoyed by manufacturers under the floating tariff. 'Let well enough alone' will be no doubt his motto as well as that of the government."

The Conservative leader courted defeat by remaining away from the contest to the last moment and allowing the member for East York to take charge of the Conservative candidate's campaign. McLeod did his utmost to make it turn on the question of a two cent railway fare, but this was beyond his power so long as Mr. Borden remained aloof.

OTTAWA, Oct. 30.—The victory in North Bruce of John Tolmie, Liberal, over Abram McLeod, Conservative, by a majority of about three hundred is regarded at Ottawa as one of the greatest political significance. The constituency was one of the most Bland, Conservative, carried the arranged riding by 107 majority. Tolmie's victory today is therefore a clear capture of a Conservative seat in what has been regarded as a Conservative stronghold in the Conservative province of Ontario.

This is the first Conservative seat the Liberals have captured in Ontario since the general election.

The actions are for $5,000 each and have been entered by W. Wallace Moresby, who was arrested last August and held on a nominal charge for selling a Mexican work called "Mexicology" under the representation that he was endorsed by the Mexican faculty of Toronto in the distribution of the book. He claims that the defendant papers on August 26th contained articles about him that were libelous. Moresby was discharged after his case was heard by the police magistrate.

The foreign secretary said: "This agreement is of a general character and there is no indication that it is likely to lead to war with any power."

KENT COUNTY IN GRIP OF SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC

75 Cases in Small Radius—Quarantine Ineffectual and Disease is Spreading—Moncton Endangered—N.S.
Lumber Camp Infected—Local Authorities Appeal to Provincial Board of Health.

MONCTON, Oct. 30.—Seventy-five cases of smallpox within a radius of a few miles and in one house thirteen members of a family seriously ill with the dread disease, shows the fearful spread of the epidemic in Kent county. The affected district is in the vicinity of St. Anthony and St. Norbert, and at a meeting of the City Board of Health last evening a detailed report of the prevalence of the disease was submitted by Dr. Botsford, who has visited the locality within the last few days. So bad was the situation deemed that the board immediately sent urgent telegrams to Premier Treadwell and to Dr. F. Fisher, chairman of the Provincial Board of Health.

A man named Ella Gallant went through Moncton from the infected district some few weeks ago and went to Shute, securing work in a lumber camp. Last Friday he developed smallpox and was turned out, going through Moncton to his home. At Shute no one would hire him a team nor help him in any way, so he was obliged to walk to his home, a distance of several miles, and was seen there by Dr. Botsford while the latter was taking his trip through the district.

Secretary Northrup of the local board communicated these facts to Dr. Ellis of Amherst and intimated that immediate action should be taken to establish a quarantine over the camp at which the man had been employed. Dr. Botsford, who was detailed to investigate conditions in the infected locality last night, presented the board with a detailed report.

In some families in the infected district there are five, in others ten and in one thirteen cases, all the members of the household being affected. The quarantine is a most imperfect one. One man has been appointed to patrol the whole district, and drives around each day telling the inmates to keep in their houses and leaving in the yards what food may be necessary for their subsistence. That the quarantine is far from being effective is shown by the fact that two men from the very heart of the infected district were able to travel by train to Moncton, and it is known that others have left both the villages which seem to be the centre of infection.

Chairman Fisher of the provincial board arrives here tonight and will confer with the local authorities tomorrow morning.

WAS HIS FORTUNE ONLY A DREAM

Carl Cremer, Montreal Man, Who Said
He Inherited $400,000 is Under Arrest

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 30.—Carl Cremer is under detention at the police headquarters, but so far no charge has been laid against him. Cremer, who is a German, came out to Montreal about twelve years ago and secured employment with the C. P. R. after working as a teamster and later as a shipping clerk for the Canadian Rubber Company. All his employers say that he was honest and a hard worker.

A few weeks ago he announced that his father was dead and that he was heir to a portion of his property, valued at $400,000. On the strength of this announcement he moved to a $10,000 residence on Pine avenue, ordered $5,000 worth of furniture, made to order, from a leading firm of furniture dealers, $2,000 worth of other furnishings from the leading department store, several thousand dollars' worth of jewelry and five horses, for which he agreed to pay $2,500. The total of his purchases was in the neighborhood of $35,000.

He also borrowed a little money, but not much. One of his creditors became suspicious and this led to his detention by the police. So far Cremer has failed to produce the slightest proof of the existence of the legacy. The police believe that the man is laboring under an hallucination. Cremer was to have been married this morning, the arrangements having been completed.

VANITY

From time immemorial moralists have railed at the vanity of woman. Here is a woman, and a beautiful one at that, who says that vanity is an imperishable instinct; that vanity, like love, is one of the great forces that makes the world go round; that to be vain is a duty to humanity and an essential of success.

It's an original view; what is your opinion? This defense of an old time sin is set forth in our new magazine—

ASSAULT CASE TO BE DROPPED

Arseneau Accepts $5 and Says He is Sorry

Mr. O'Rourke, the Accused Man, Calls Charges Blackmail, and Protests His Innocence

JOSEPH ARSENEAU, a Frenchman, who yesterday professed to be very anxious to swear out a warrant for the arrest of Arthur P. O'Rourke, assistant superintendent of the London Life Insurance Co., on the charge of criminally assaulting his wife in their home on Hilyard street, has abandoned his desire for revenge. To Mr. O'Rourke, who accompanied by his counsel, called at the Arseneau home last night, the man said he did not think the matter would go so far, and he was sorry. He protested that he was a poor man, and had paid a lawyer $5, and it is understood that Mr. O'Rourke reimbursed him to this extent, not in the nature of a compromise, as he disavowed any action unworthy of a reputable business man, and finally accused Arseneau and his wife of trying to blackmail him.

Mrs. Arseneau persisted, however, in her assertion that Mr. O'Rourke assaulted her, while the husband was less emphatic than in the morning. Manager Pearce of the London Life gives Mr. O'Rourke a very high character, and says he has always considered him a model young man, and could not believe he would be guilty of the conduct ascribed to him by his accusers.

MR. O'ROURKE'S STATEMENT.

Mr. O'Rourke, through his counsel, J. Milton Price, said that some weeks ago he effected insurance policies on Arseneau and his wife—$100 on the former and $75 on the latter. Mrs. Arseneau being in somewhat delicate health, there was some question about taking the risk on the latter. They were paid in small instalments weekly, and Arseneau and wife paid the first one in two instalments. About a week ago the insurance man called at Arseneau's home, accompanied by an assistant collector, whom he introduced, and himself immediately after making the introduction left to look after some other business. On Monday of this week he himself called to collect arrears due. As he entered, Mrs. Arseneau came out of an adjoining room, and closed the door tightly behind her. She placed a chair near the window and asked him to sit down, which he did. Mrs. Arseneau said that she could not make a payment then, as her husband was out of work, but said if he would call on Wednesday she would pay something. The insurance man said he would call at five o'clock on Wednesday. He inquired about her health, there having been some talk about it when she was insured, shook hands with her, as was his custom on such business, and departed. He said that his calls were purely business, and that he on no occasion acted otherwise than in a businesslike manner. Mr. Arseneau said last night to him that he did not think it would go so far as it had, and that he was sorry. Mrs. Arseneau upon being asked if she and her husband had not played a similar role while living at Rogersville, by trying to obtain money on like grounds, said no, that it was her sister. The insurance man considers the case nothing less than blackmail.

PATERSON'S The Cough Drop That Cures

Demand the three-colored kind in the red and yellow box

BUCKINGHAM, Que., Oct. 30.—The most interesting evidence given at today's session of the coroner's jury was that of Albert Kennedy, hardware dealer, who stated that on the morning of the day in which the riot took place he had made sales of 38 15 calibre rifle cartridges to Belanger, the leader of the strikers, who was killed. The bullet was of the kind known as the sporting bullet.

The importance of this evidence is that medical and expert witnesses have sworn that it was with this kind of a bullet that Detective Warren was killed.

Other witnesses testified to the fact that the strikers were armed, and there was significant discrepancy as to who fired the first shot.

ARRESTED FOR N. S. MURDER

Clarence Spears Charged With Shelburne Crime

Body Identified as Edward Way, a Section Man on the Halifax and South Western Ry.

LIVERPOOL, N. S., Oct. 30.—It has been made clearly apparent that the man whose body was found yesterday beside a bridge near Granite Village was murdered and robbed. The body has been identified as Edward Way of Kemp's Road, Halifax. The man at whom suspicion points has been arrested.

Way was a section man on the Halifax and S. W. Ry. district near Granite Village. He had the position for some time and was attentive to his duties. He left for his work Monday morning and that is all that is known until late in the afternoon driver Fred Jones of Engine 67 came speeding from Shelburne and saw his body lying by the roadside. He supposed it to be that of an intoxicated man, but in passing he noticed blood about the neck and immediately applied the brakes and brought the train to a standstill. The man was dead and the body was quite cold. It was taken aboard the train and brought at once to Liverpool.

An examination by Drs. Kennedy and Trites revealed the fact that the right temple had been pierced by a bullet which had come out in front of the angle of the lower jaw, shattering it badly and destroying several teeth. Behind the right ear, which was bruised, appeared a bad scalp wound about a half inch long. The back of the neck was much contused. On front of chin skin was off, the tongue badly cut, evidently from the teeth, while the throat was full of blood. There was an abrasion upon the left ear, while the neck was quite dark from hemorrhages. There were also two old bruises, one in front of the entrance of the bullet, the other near the temple.

The coroner's jury met at the undertaker's rooms of S. C. West at nine a. m., and it was not until 5 p. m. that they were able to come to a verdict. From the evidence before them they recommended the arrest of Clarence L. Spears of Sable River, a workman in Brownell's lumber mills at Granite Village. Chief of Police Power at once left for the latter place and has made the arrest. The father of the murdered man at one time worked in the Halifax dockyard.
