ALLEN season took place of The first yacht race of the season took place on Saturday last for the challenge cup presented by Captain Lound R issell. Treer would have been a iarge assemblage at the pretty little club house for the opening day had it not been for the weather which was wet and windy. The band from the Biake which was to have played by kind permission only a few enthnismitic people turned out to see the vachts come in. Fire boats started, the Youky Wyne, Lenore, Albattoes and Mentor, and the cup after a splendid race was won by the Wyne. Mr. H. Wylde's boat the Youls looked very like winning, when a heavy squall struck her and damaged her ringing, effectually disposing of her charces. Had he come in first the cup would have become the projecty of her owner who has anready won it twice. As it is it will remain in circulation probably for some time. On Monday Mrs. John Abbott gave a very large On Monday Mrs. John Abbott gave a very nage and pretty tea for her daughter Miss N. Abbott. The afternoon was delightful, and many fresh and pretty summer frocks were worn. Mrs. Abbott who received was in black, Miss Abbott in a very pretty fawn colored frock, while Miss N. Abbott was most becomingly dressed in pale pink. People left carry, as there was tennis going on at the Garrison ground, which always attracts a large contingent of ladles.

Colonel Hamilton and officers, King's Liverpool Regiment have issued invitations for two tennis parties—one for this week and one on Wednesday the 28th. Last year's tennis parties at Wellington Barracks were so pretty and well managed that it will be difficult for the new incumbents to improve on them. The officers of the Leicestershire regi-ment were invariably the best of hosts.

On Tuesday evening the afficers of the R. A. and R. E. gave a large dimente to Captain Hamilton and the officers of H. M. S. "Blake." This is the first ion given for the ship since its arrival. . . .

On Cuesday morning General Montgomery-Moore rrived by the Quebec express. A guard of honor-morn the Liverpool regiment and from the R. A. and R. E. lined the station as far as was practicable, and the in-coming General was received by very nearly and the others of the garrison in ful uniform. Gen-ral Montgomery-Moore is accompanied by Captain colborne as A. D. C., Captain Apsley Smith as Military Secretary. The whole party will spend the next week with Major and Mrr. Waldron at the Daks, until Bellevne House is ready for them. There were no ladies at the station on Tuesday, as there were a Sir John Ross' departure, nor was it such a pretty sight as the former occasion. General Montgomery-Moore's wile and family did not ac-tempany him, but will arrive early in July. One has been delighted to hear lately that two

The little stare was prettily decorated with palms and when the conductor was found to be no less a person than Miss Homer also dressed in white in a Greek dress dmirably suited to the fine lines of her figure, the scene was really idylic. The first part of the con-cert owed a very great deal to the untiring assist-ance of Miss Gladys Trensine, who did yeomat's service with her violin. Mr. Boak and Mr. Ward' gave the opening number, the Liberty Dutt, from "I Paritani" very successfully, and that with Mr. Ward's song later in the evening and the delightfully rendered accompaniment of Mr. C. H. Porter in the canatas, was the only masculine assistance the con-cert had.
