ELECTION DAY.

There are, I believe 1700 women in St. John who have the power to vote in the civic election, on Monday. Every woman who has an opinion of her own, and especially the women who pay taxes, surely has made up her mind as to those among the aspirants for civic honors, who will best administer the city's affairs. Surely women are most keenly interested in the welfare of our city, and the way to show that interest, is to exercise your franchise. Remember that Monday is the time to hand in your written opinion, not say later: "I wish so and so had not won the election."

Those privileged to be present at the series of teas and entertainments given by the King and Queen to wounded sailors and soldiers at Buckingham Palace last week are never likely to forget the experience. Notwithstanding the fact that the gatherings have been seen under a Royal roof before; nothing has brought the most democratic King and Queen a great Empire has known into such close and intimate contact with the heart of the country. For the wounded lie close to the hearts of every one of us, and what is done by the Sovereigns to give them pleasure and show them their good-fellowship is done for us.

Those who thought a tea-party with Queens and Princesses presiding at the tables was bound to be a formal and ceremonial affair should have been present in the Royal Mews any afternoon of the three, especially when the Canadian and Australian soldiers had been chosen through the crust of reserve that always sits lightly upon them, and were crying out for autographs of their hostesses. Queen Alexandra must have been tired with writing her name but she smilingly obliged the very last applicant, as did Princess Mary, the Princess Royal, Princess Arthur of Connaught, and indeed, any of the Royal ladies who were asked. They were as obviously delighted to please the men as the men were eager to be pleased.

In addition to the ladies named, those who helped their Majesties on one or all days included Queen Amelia of Portugal, who came in nurse's uniform on the Wednesday and kept an attentive eye on some of her patients from Wandsworth, the Grand Duchess George of Russia, Prince Albert, Prince Christian and her daughters, the Duchess of Albany, Princess Alexander of Teck, Princess Maud and the Duchess of Teck.

The Queen added another to her experiences of the hard working side

"TIZ" PUTS JOY IN
SORE, ACHING FEET

"My, how 'Tiz' Gladdens Tired, Swollen, Burning Feet—It's Glorious!"

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet, no more burning feet; no more aching, aching, aching feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions.
No matter what ails your feet or under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more heavy from corns, callouses or bunions.

Get a 25-cent box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try "Tiz." Get a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents. Think of it.

of men who came to have tea at Her be noticed, such cakes are not likely in the majority of cases to serve the purpose for which they were intended, but kept as relics in the families of the purchasers.

OBITUARY.

Daughter of William J. McCauley.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
William J. McCauley, 13 Camden street will regret the death of their daughter, Evelyn Elizabeth, who passed away at their home yesterday. The little one was a bright little girl, and was a general favorite.
The funeral will be held at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. W. B. Howard.

The death took place yesterday morning at her home in Hampton, of Mrs. Margaret Howard, wife of W. B.
Howard, C. P. R. District Passenger Agent, Toronto. For upwards of two years, Mrs. Howard has been in declining health. She was for a time a patient at the Jordan Sanatorium, and since last fall has been living at Hampton. Her illness prevented her returning to Toronto when Mr. Howard was transferred to his important duties, and her death yesterday morning, although sudden and unexpected, was not a surprise, as for some time it had been apparent that she was steadily failing. Mrs. Howard leaves, besides her husband, who will reach St. John today's C. P. R. train, one son. She was a daughter of H. J. Fowler, who resided with her.
A. L. Fowler is a brother. A woman of fine character, Mrs. Howard was a favorite with all who knew her, and her general respect is felt at the termination of a life so full of promise.

Henry McCarthy.

The death of Henry McCarthy, one of the best known and most highly respected residents of the North End occurred early yesterday morning at his home 55 Acadia street. Mr. Mc-Carthy, who was more than eighty years of age was a life long resident of the North End. From his early years he was employed with the Hollis and later with Holly & Sayre, continuing with them until he retired several years ago. He is survived by one son, William, is Sydney, N. S., and five daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth McDade, of Boston, and Misses Margaret, Nellie, Aggie and Julius at home. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Charlotte Murphy.

The death of Mrs. Charlotte Murphy widow of Henry W. Murphy, who was a well known printer, took place Wednesday afternoon at her residence 249 Brunswick street. Mrs. Murphy had been ill for a considerable period.
She was in her sixty-sixth year. She is survived by four sons and four small brother. Black and white checks have special favor for they are particularly crisp and smart along with little hats that supply the childish note of color. And always the black and white checked coat is made youthful and gay by the addition of white trimmings and buttons, or collar and facings of taffeta silk—Dutch blue or old rose with the black and white check seem to be best liked. Occasionally an exclusive little garment will show some other shade in its trimmings; for example, a black check-ed coat in black and white has collar and cuffs of corn-colored satin with buttons of ivory lined bone. A lining of the pale corn-colored satin adds a rich note. A dainty coat of brown and white check has collar and cuffs of olive green taffeta, a ripple cape to the waist showing a lining of the same olive green. Collar and cuffs are of spotless white pique—detachable, of course, for laundering. A wee girl, obviously dressed for an afternoon call, wears a captivating hat of pink faux with pleated trills of pink chiffon and a trimming of small pink roses and leaves. Her strap slippers are black and the short socks white with black and pink striping.

YOUR SICK CHILD
IS CONSTIPATED!
LOOK AT TONGUE

If cross, feverish or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a cough, cold, or fever, it is likely that the first treatment given, if your little one is out-of-order, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, or has stomach-ache, diarrhea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mother can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they thereby lose its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.
Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a 5-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Figs Syrup Company."

The sons are: Francis H., of the 55th Battalion, who is now in France; George, of the 115th Battalion; John, of the composite battery, Partridge Island, and Bertram in Boston. The daughters are Misses Gertrude, Lillie and Ruby at home, and Mrs. C. M. Wright, of London, England.
The funeral will be held from her late residence this Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

TODAY'S LITTLE JOKE.

"I want my hair cut," said young Robsworth, as he went into the barber's shop, "and I want it cut like father's, with a little round hole on top."

EXTRACTS FROM THE MAIL BAG

Dear Uncle Dick:—

I thought I would try this contest.
Hope I will be successful. I am glad spring is here. I go to school most every day. I am in the seventh grade.

From your niece,
Alma Price.

Sends Sympathy.
Jordan Mt.

Yes, I do like to have a chat with you once in a while. I got the Kalar button, and thank you very much.
It is pretty. I do just love the spring and the pretty birds and to hear them sing. My papa is getting a lot better.
I will have to close this time with best wishes.

From your niece,
Ora J. Tait.

Has Brother in England.
Centerton, Kings Co., N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—

I am sending you the word contest, and also a colored picture. This is a lovely morning. We will soon be finding spring beauties, they grow plentifully around here. My brother is in the 5th Battalion, at Westernhanger Camp. He is in the hospital with the German measles. Hoping some of my answers may be right.

I remain your niece,
Agnes E. Miller.

Trying to Get Prize.
St. George, N. B.

I have read your letter this week, and I am sending you a drawing of Jaguar. I hope this drawing will prove satisfactory, as I would like to receive a prize.

From your loving nephew,
C. M. Pottle.

A Nice Writer.
Hatfield Pt., N. B.

I did last week's contest, and I have done this week's contest. I hope I will get something out of one of them.
You told us kiddies to watch the Daily Standard, but we only take the weekly, and therefore I will miss a lot. Papa is talking of taking it tomorrow. I will be glad when he does take it, so that I can read the Corner more. With best wishes and heaps of love.

From your niece,
Elsie Urquhart.

Has Brother in 104th Battalion.
Folkins, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—

I have joined the Corner again, and colored a little girl, and hope to get something for it. We have had some nice weather, but it is snowing today, and is pretty cold too. Well it will be sunny, and I will be glad, so we can go picking May flowers. I have a brother in the 104th, and he is married.

From your niece,
C. Kathleen Folkins.

Likes the Certificate.
Oronoco, N. B.

Dear Uncle Dick:—

I thank you very much for the certificate you sent me. I would like to get a prize very much. I am trying to get it this time. I am ten years old, and I will be eleven the first of July. I will be glad when summer comes. Well I guess I will have to close for this time.

Your niece,
Evelyn McCre.

Reading Page For Some Time.
Cody's, N. B.

My Dear Uncle Dick:—

I have been reading your page for some time. And have been greatly interested in it. I am sending the names of the flowers.

Your niece,
H. Idora Jones.

Wonderful Bilious Remedy
Actually Prevents Attacks

There are two great causes of biliousness—they are constipation and defective liver action.
When Dr. Hamilton's Pills are taken, they do not only correct constipated bowels, but act upon the liver as well.
Quite unlike ordinary medicines which purge and give temporary relief, Dr. Hamilton's Pills remove the conditions which cause biliousness, and thus permanent cures are effected. No person who occasionally suffers from the headache, bad stomach or bilious complaint, get a 25c. box today.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture Game and on the Stage --- Film Favorites and What They Say and Do.

The Unique.

Yesterday presented Beattie Barriscale (so famous for her acting in the "Miracle of Life") in a play called "The Mating." In this picture Miss Barriscale takes the part of a young country girl called Doris Willard, who finds a mate in an unusual way. There are many good parts in the story, indeed it is all good, but the outstanding scenes are those portraying life at "Hamlin College," evidently a large school for "hoppers." It might be called a "snobs college" for it is a vivid picture of that class of school where girls learn everything but charity and get very false ideas of the true values of things in life. There is a beauty squad headed by a "Daisy," and these girls are downright and deliberately cruel to the old-fashioned little Doris who, with her courteous manner and quiet ways is a fine contrast to these up-to-date maidens with their rag-time walk. The kitten which Doris brings from her home plays quite a part in the scene. There is a great game of football with touchdowns, line-ups, scrimmages and a good goal kicked in the last minute of the last quarter. Dick Ames (the football player) is the hero of the picture and he proves himself a true sport when he comes to the rescue of Doris among a group of girls looking "like little white rabbits, hemmed in by hungry cats" as he says. There is a very funny pajama party with many incidents and a touch, which ladies will particularly appreciate, is Doris in her dowdy clothes studying a fashion page where are pictured some of Lucille's creations. Miss Barriscale's facial expression is wonderful and she shows her versatility in a story like this. The audience evidently were right there with her for they applauded her triumph very heartily. This is a very fine production of the New York Picture Corporation. It is an especially interesting picture for the holidays.
