The Tortures of Dyspepsia
Corrected by "Fruit-a-tives"

St. Martins, N. B.
"For two years, I suffered tortures from Severe Dyspepsia. I had constant pains after eating; pains down the sides and back; and horrible bitter stuff often came up in my mouth."
"I tried doctors, but they did not help me. But as soon as I started taking Fruit-a-tives, I began to improve and this medicine, made of fruit juices, relieved me when everything else failed."

CHILD WELFARE CONFERENCE AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

A very important gathering took place at Washington, D. C. this week, lasting from May 5th to the 8th, at which foreign delegates, authorities on Child Welfare in all its aspects, were the guests of the United States Government. Delegates from England, France, Belgium, Italy and elsewhere were present, says The Toronto Mail and Empire. Canada was represented by Mr. F. J. Billard, Superintendent of Neglected Children for the Province of Manitoba. Mr. Billard is a world-renowned authority on delinquent children and their treatment and on the laws governing neglected, dependent and abnormal children. He has been the guiding power behind all the legislation which has been enacted in the province almost from the very inception of the First Juvenile Court in Manitoba, having worked in close harmony with the late Police Magistrate Day of Winnipeg and the Hon. J. Collins Campbell, who, until his death, Attorney-General for Manitoba. It is owing to Mr. Billard's untiring and repeated efforts that the laws governing children in Manitoba have reached their present status. He was also the prime mover in the request to the Dominion Government at Ottawa to establish a Child Welfare Bureau for the Dominion upon the same lines as the bureau in the United States which has done such heroic work in diffusing information on this exceedingly important matter. No one could have been better chosen to uphold the dignity of the Dominion and the Province of Manitoba to be congratulated on his choice as a delegate.

William Duncan, star and director of Vitaphone series, is selecting a cast of players for a new 15-reel serial to be filmed from a story by Cyrus Townsend Brady.

"The Spill of Seville," is the title of Priscilla Dean's new picture, which will be directed by George Siegman, recently returned from France.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single skin and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

It's Easy to Peel Off All Your Freckles

The contrast between the freckles and the clear skin usually is so great that no bleach can be more than partially successful in obliterating the blemishes. Ordinary mercurials, which are so often used at the nearest drug store and tonight spread on enough to completely cover the face, remove the freckles, but leave the skin raw, red, and inflamed.

Rough, blotchy, pimply skin, also common at this season, may be entirely gotten rid of by this same method, without discomfort or inconvenience. The effort is decidedly worth while, the complexion being so clear, smooth and youthful.

Nature's Healing Herbs for Headache

A BLOOD FOOD

PRACTICALLY all headaches come from two causes—Biliousness and Nervousness. Bilious headache means upset stomach, and constipation—with severe throbbing pains all over the head. Nervous headaches mean that the nerves are exhausted and need rest and food.

Dr. Wilson's HERBINE BITTERS

Turns quick and lasting relief from these headaches. The simple alkaloidal herbs tone up the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, purify the blood, and build up the whole system. A reliable spring tonic. Get it today and get rid of your headache.

BRINGING HOME THE BRIDE

How Canada Welcomes Her Returning Soldiers and Their Brides.

(By Elizabeth Becker in Canadian Home Journal.)

In the sunshine of peace, our soldiers return to their native land, the dark clouds of warfare lifted—the cloud under which they left our shores and embarked on the great adventure. But the boys do not come back. They are gone forever. In their place come men, men who have proven their manhood, whose spurs, spiritual and military, have been won in desperate combat. Many who left in a state of single unbelievedness, married the first year of the war, and are returning with wives and children; others are bringing their brides who make the adventure into matrimony and Canada on the same trip. This return in dual or triple form, calls for a reception differing from that accorded to mere man accustomed to the rigours of camp life, but the great-hearted men and women of St. John, New Brunswick, know just how to express the feeling of Canada for those who return and for those who are new members of our large family.

St. John, Not Saint Peter, at the Door.

By virtue of the geographical location of St. John, its citizens have become Canada's official welcome to our returned soldiers, and right royally does the old city down by the sea, open wide its doors and extend the warm hand of welcome, and to home-sick men, who have been yearning for a glimpse of their native land through the years of the horrors of war, this seems indeed the very Gate of Heaven.

To some of the wives coming from Overseas, the prospect was not one of unalloyed bliss, for mischievous pens and tongues had set a mental wave in motion, that made the English, Scotch and Irish brides fear that some of the Canadian homes might have preferred Canadian brides for their soldier sons. However, their reception by the women and the men of St. John banished all such fears. As one of the brides confided to a member of the Reception Committee, "We were told in England that Canadian women would greet us with bad eggs, but instead we have been treated like royalty." Canada recognizes in these young women from the British Isles, those whose kind hearts in hours of loneliness have won the hearts of our boys, the kind of women who, with few exceptions, are the type of citizen of whom Canada will be justly proud.

In the Receiving Line.

The Soldiers' Reception Committee of men and women has done valiant service ever since the beginning of the war, in meeting boats and trains early and late, and distributing comforts. With the prospect of thousands of women and children coming in addition to the soldiers, when the Armistice was declared, it was felt that only by thorough organization could the situation be met. A citizens' welcome Committee was formed of nationally organized societies, such as the Young Women's Christian Association, the Red Cross, the I.O.D.E., the W.C.T.U., Protestants of all denominations.

Pimples Broke Out All Over Face, Arms and Neck.

Pimples are a sure sign that the blood is not in its proper shape.

While the skin is the seat of the irritating, unsightly pimples, the real disease is in the blood. The impurities of the blood, and thus relieve the system of all poisonous secretions.

B. B. B. cures permanently because it leaves none of the original poison to ferment in the blood and cause a fresh attack.

Miss E. M. Davidson, Daysland, Alta., writes:—"Last summer I was greatly troubled with pimples breaking out all over my face, arms and neck. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking two bottles, the pimples had almost all disappeared. I shall always recommend this remedy to anyone afflicted with skin troubles."

B. B. B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

This fine piece of National service, warmly welcoming our own men, and those whom they bring with them, does not begin or end here. Its source was in the sending to England as soon as hostilities ceased, of the Y.W.C.A. National Immigration Secretary Mrs. Burrington-Ham, who went to the authorities to secure space in which to open a Bureau for the information of soldiers' dependents coming over. After many difficulties and delays this was accomplished and Mrs. Burrington-Ham's assistance was of the greatest value to the women. "The Godmothers" as they appreciatively called her, succeeded in placing upon each boat bringing a number of women and children, a Ship Secretary, who looks after their needs in every possible way, aiding the sick, cheering the well, carrying babies, and time and mail de mer permit, giving talks on conditions in different parts of Canada, that newcomers may not be utterly at sea when they land. Motherless children coming with their fathers are her special charge, until placed with friends. The end of this work—but then we cannot speak of the end of the infinite, but rather the follow-up of the port service—consists in writing to the Y.W.C.A. secretaries in each town or city to which the newcomers go, and asking that they look after them as soon as they land, upon them, put them in touch with a Church of their denomination, and do all possible to make this new land a home land to these welcome members of the nation's family. Letters of appreciation from East and West, pay tribute to this great interest taken by the Canadian women.

Rest Rooms.

A spacious room in the Immigration Building was prepared by the Military authorities. The Y.W.C.A. Hostesses of Ontario shipped their no longer needed furniture, and with the splendid local assistance, the rooms were arranged. Bright, airy and warm, they are a perfect haven of rest to the weary women and children, who on one occasion numbered nine hundred—over three hundred being children. Though the accommodation was supposed to be adequate for four hundred, the larger party was satisfactorily handled.

On the side of the long room was a row of dainty white cots, which soon are filled with travel worn occupants. Opening off this large reception room is a smaller room, filled with beds for those who are ill, and off this, a nursery and lavatory, where unlimited supplies of hot and cold water, towels and soap, turn out "new women and babies for old." Adjoining this is the Red Cross dispensary, with a trained nurse in charge, where supplies and medicines and everything a baby sick or well could possibly want, are given out.

Back of this is the kitchen, and connecting with the Reception Room is a serving table where under the direction of one of the Y.W.C.A. workers, the local V.A.D.s serve hot drinks, sandwiches and cakes.

When the boat docks, the only ones allowed to go on board are Miss Perry, the Y.W.C.A. Secretary, and Mrs. Lawrence, the Red Cross Secretary.

"Welcome Home" says the great streamer at the head. Along through the Immigration offices all must pass, and many have a long wait, as the welcome is repeated by voice and handclasp of the ladies of the Reception Committee, who keep the babies and babies for old. Adjoining this can attend to her papers with a free hand and a free mind. This done all move on to the Rest Room, which with its dainty curtains, easy chairs, bright writing tables, is most inviting to the seafaring travellers. Outside the Rest Room, on the Y.W.C.A., the Salvation Army, and the Knights of Columbus booths, which cater to the needs internal and external of the soldier, see the information bureau and the C.P.R. offices do a land office business in answering questions and the Patriotic Fund Booth aids the necessary.

The Next Stage.

Rested and refreshed, the next step in the long journey must be arranged. The local assistants and the Y.W.C.A. secretaries are everywhere, retaining destinations, seeing that babies, bundles, bags and boxes are collected, for the first train to pull out. The Red Cross superintendent to see that a nurse, with full equipment of supplies and loads of extra blankets, is on every train. This is one of the greatest of comforts to those with small children. The Red Cross also takes charge of by this organization, and the Knights of Columbus arrive the same day.

Then come the clearing away of the wreckage, cleaning of the rooms, storing the dispensary and the patriots, changing the beds, and getting all ready for the next boat load.

As quite frequently happens, there are cases of illness on board and these are at once taken to a special hospital where expenses are met, when necessary, by the Patriotic Fund. Funerals are also taken charge of by this organization. During the recent epidemic of influenza, all the accommodation was overtaxed, and an old hospital building was reopened and equipped, proving a great boon to disabled travellers.

The Godmother.

This fine piece of National service, warmly welcoming our own men, and those whom they bring with them, does not begin or end here. Its source was in the sending to England as soon as hostilities ceased, of the Y.W.C.A. National Immigration Secretary Mrs. Burrington-Ham, who went to the authorities to secure space

MINISTERS OF GOSPEL PIT TANLAC TO TEST

Well-Known Ministers of the Gospel Come Out Openly and Fearlessly and Tell What They Know to Be the Truth
About the Medicine That Has Helped Them.

RARELY will a minister of the gospel endorse a proprietary medicine. The preacher's high calling, the influence he commands puts a grave responsibility on his every word. He will not jeopardize his reputation by commending a thing without first assuring himself it is all right. His word carries as much weight in the home, on the street, or in the public prints as in the pulpit.

When ministers of some of the greatest communions in the land endorse Tanlac their words carry conviction. They say what they know to be the truth. They have put Tanlac to the test of personal service and have not found it wanting.

The proprietors of Tanlac have received countless testimonials from people in every walk of life, earnestly commending it. Among them are a number from prominent ministers of various churches. A few of these are printed below.

Rev. W. C. Norton is pastor of the Wesley Memorial church of Jacksonville, Fla. He says:—"I suffered from chronic indigestion for years. I seldom slept well and had severe headaches. Since taking Tanlac I feel as well as ever I did—sleep splendidly and eat anything I want. Tanlac has restored my health and I feel it my duty to recommend it."

Rev. A. H. Sykes, pastor of Watkins Park Presbyterian church, Nashville, Tenn., says:—"Mrs. Sykes suffered from stomach and kidney troubles and a nervous breakdown. Tanlac restored her health—she is gaining strength and flesh rapidly—her full restoration is but a question of time."

Rev. E. G. Butler, pastor of Central Baptist church, Muskogee, Okla., says:—"I had attacks of acute indigestion. Result from taking Tanlac have been most satisfactory—am glad to recommend it as the best medicine I have ever tried."

Rev. F. M. Winburn, Methodist, San Antonio, Tex., says:—"I had no appetite—suffered from weakness and general debility—could not work without quickly tiring. Found Tanlac just what my system needed. I consider Tanlac a good medicine to build up run-down systems."

Rev. R. J. Taylor, pastor Mt. Pleasant Baptist church, Franklin, Tex., says:—"Grippe left me in very bad shape—had indigestion, nervous headaches—"

Then clash the arms of Day and Night.
But Night's redoubts are weak and old
And where Day's victors sweep the field
They loose a shower of gold.

Yet violets and daffodils,
And little blades of sleepy grass,
With me, of all life's living things,
Behold this patient pass.
Then standing hushed among the flowers,
While earth drinks deep the wine of Spring,
I hear the rivers raise glad voice,
The green-robed valleys sing.
J. CONSON MILLER.

PAGEANT.

Blue-gray Dawn, and shadows flee,
Like frightened children, through the mist,
Before the marchers of the Morn,
In mauve and amethyst.
Artillery along the clouds
Spurs rainbow-streams on copse and lawn.
As Day, the General, signals for
The red barrage of Dawn.
Behind a curtain-sky of fire,
That jumbled flood of turquoise sea,
The sunbeams swoop, like eagles,
Dawn's glittering infantry.
