this same gentleman and ask for protection from the sleuths in the employ of this big corporation, who, by their actions so grossly insult its passengers, virtually telling them to their faces that they are thieves and in collusion with its conductors. Take the writer's experience: last Tuesday p. m., on the Fredericton branch, after showing my ticket to the conductor I was approached by two C. P. R. spotters, who demanded to see my ticket and who threatened to stop the train, in fact they ordered the conductor to do so, and put me off; but in spite of their threats and blustering I declined to show it to them. The conductors of the C. P. R. may or may not be dishonest. This is best known to the conductors and the C. P. R., but as for myself I certainly object to being branded a thief either in words or actions. Surely a gentleman as ingenious as Mr. Oborne might easily devise some other scheme by which he could test the honesty or dishonesty of the C. P. R. conductors and avoid such a gross insult to the people who travel over the road.

IKELY TO SEND DEAF AND DUMB TO HALIFAX INSTITUTION IN FUTURE.

Woodbridge Notifies Hon. Mr. LaBillois That He Will Vacate the Old Government House at Fredericton After New Years-Matter Before Board of Education.

The question of the education in future of the deaf and dumb of the province is one which the board of education is considering deeply. The recent investigation into the affairs of the Deaf and Dumb School at Fredericton showed the existence of conditions under which that institution can not be continued and Hon. C. H. Laßillois, chief commissioner of public works, has received a letter from Mr. Woodbridge, superintendent of the school, to the effect that he will vacate the old government house at the end of the year.

This practically means the abandonment of the school.

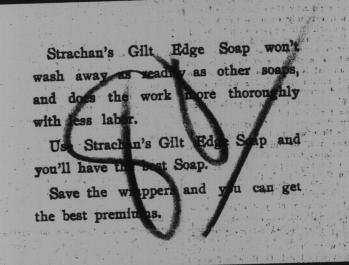

The alternative propositions before the board of education for the instruction of deaf and dumb in future are: The formation of a new institution, and the education of the deaf mute children at the very excellent institution in Halifax. The latter
