Overseers :
Their duties.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That for every twenty-five convicts in each art, trade, or other industrial pursuit conducted in the Prison on behalf and at the risk of the Penitentiary, there shall be a Master Tradesman well skilled in such trade or other pursuit, and to be known as 30 an "Overseer," whose duty it shall be to instruct the convicts in the business so carried on, and to act as Foreman and Master Workman, and to direct the labour of his particular department to the greatest public advantage. And the said Overseer shall keep an accurate account of all 35 materials expended by him and of the labour performed in gross, and on each article manufactured so as to show the labour performed by each convict weekly, and the precise cost of each article manufactured : And the said Overseers shall maintain strict silence in their several gangs, and 40 shall insist on the performance of a reasonable quantity of work by each convict, and shall maintain subordination and duly Report to the Warden, every infraction of the Rules of the Prison by any convict ; and the said Overseers shall remain with their gangs at all times during work hours, 45 unless specially relieved by the Warden or Deputy Warden ; and they shall aid in conducting the convicts to
