

Opening Day of the Ontario Jockey Club at the Woodbine Track

Though the day was somewhat cool the ladies were resplendent in light-coloured gowns and coats

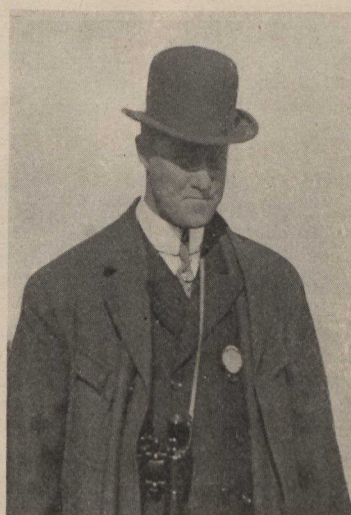

At least twelve thousand people gathered to see the Fiftieth King's Plate Race

There were some extreme styles, but beauty and fashion are the same the world over

Their Excellency, the Governor-General and Lady Grey arrive. Col. Sir John Hanbury-Williams is getting out of the carriage

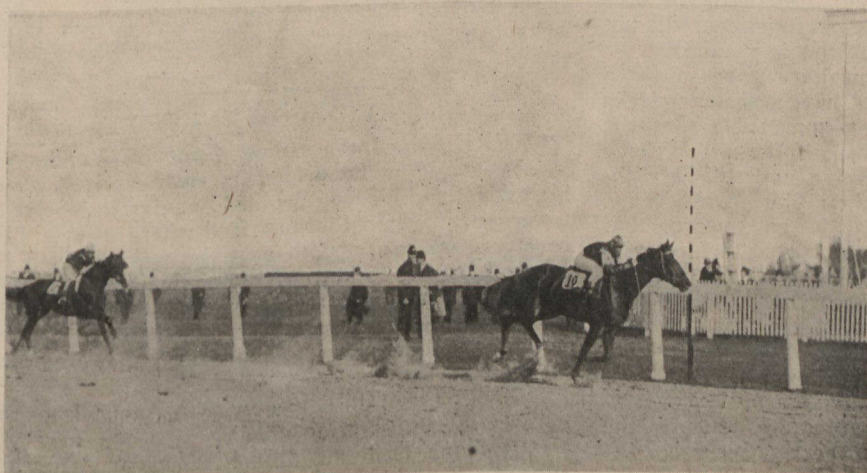

Mr. George M. Hendrie, one of the owners of "Shimonese"

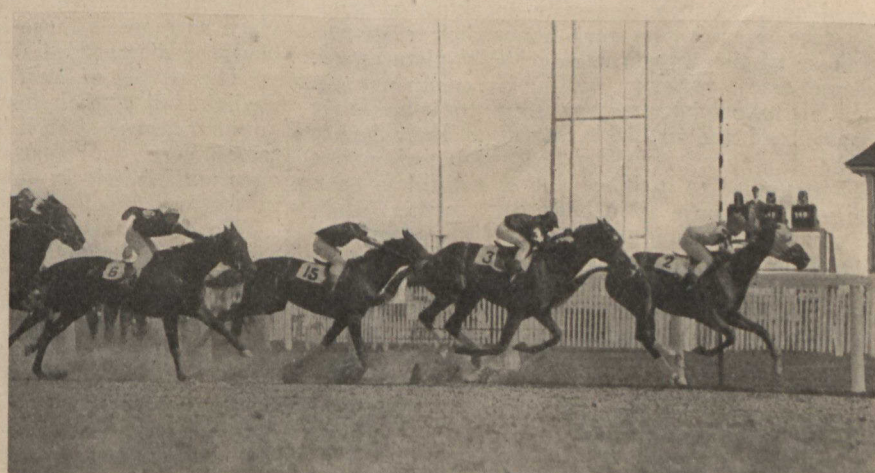

PHOTOGRAPHS BY A. A. GLEASON

Col. The Hon. J. S. Hendrie (on the right) with King's Plate in his hand. On his left Lady Evelyn and Lady Sybil Grey

How the Hendrie Horse Shimonese (10) finished the King's Plate galloping several length ahead of Seagram's Tollendale (2), which was even farther ahead of Dymont's Fort Garry. Purse $4,000

A close finish in the Minto Stakes, won by P. T. Chinn's ch. g. 3. Donald Macdonald, with Uncle Toby second and Reidmoore third. Purse $1,000