

Red Devils get Burned

By ERIC DRUMMIE

This past weekend the UNB Red Devils were invited to the Annual FACE-OFF TOURNAMENT hosted by U of Maine Black Bears. The tournament also included Merimack College and Dalhousie University.

night saw #4 Maine play UNB. U Maine started out strong and never looked back. U Maine scored 7 power-play goals, 1 short-handed goal, and 4 even men goals. UNB had 18 penalties for the night against Maine's 7. This contributed extremely to the loss. The final by Mike Amadio, had to deal with 75 shots by Maine of which 43 were on the net and 25 were wide. This number of shots would normally be the sum total of two or three games.

U Maine beat Merrimack 5-2 in the final. It would have been interesting to have seen Dal play U Maine, for they are just as good as Merrimack.

In the consolation game UNB lost 7-5 to Dal. Mark Sokalski scored 3 goals in the game winning him UNB Athlete of the Week honours.

You could blame a lot of things and people for UNB's losses but it doesn't matter. They were just exhibition games. Just because UNB couldn't beat U Maine doesn't mean STU or Acadia couldn't, so lets not worry about it. What UNB has to do now is buckle down and start to play some winning hockey that will get them into the play-offs.

UNB will be looking for their first regular season win this Saturday at the AUC. Game time is 2:00 pm. UNB also plays Sunday at the same time against U de M.

In the first game of the tournament Dal played Merrimack at a 7-9 loss. Merrimack, ranked 18th in the nation, came close to losing in the last few minutes of the game but held on to the win.

The second game of Friday score was 12-0 for U Maine. U Maine dominated every aspect of the game only allowing for 10 shots on net. The only bright spot for UNB was the play of goalie Scott MacDonald, who, despite letting in 10 goals before being replaced

NEW SHIRTS !

The UNB Red Devils will be wearing their new sweaters on Saturday, their home opener against SMU. This game will also be a varsity mania event. The game is at 2:00 at the AUC. UNB also plays on Sunday at 2:00 against U de M.
