Reform Club,
Pall Mall, S.W.
26th March 1908

SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

Dear Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that you have been Elected an Honorary Member of the Club for the term of One Month.

I also have to inform you that the privilege conferred upon you is purely personal and does not carry the right of inviting guests.

Further the Committee desire me to call your attention to the Rule which prohibits the giving of gratuities to club servants.

A book recording subscriptions for the Servants Provident Fund is kept in the Coffee Room and will be shown to any Member desiring to subscribe.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours truly,

H. G. G. G. G. Col.
