Ottawa, June 6, 1912.

Sir,-

Referring to your letter of the 29th ultimo, I am inclosing herewith a copy of coal mining regulations of this Department relating to British Columbia, and may say that, pending settlement of the dispute between the Dominion and Provincial Governments, as to title to Indian reserves in British Columbia, the Department is not in a position to take any action towards alienation of land or minerals on reserves in that province.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Geo. A. MacLeod, Esq.,
