Ottawa, 23rd May, 1916.

Sir:-

I beg to inform you that the Secretary-Treasurer of the Macleod Agricultural Association has been advised that this Department will make a grant of $125.00 to the Secretary for prizes to be paid to Indians who exhibit at the Macleod Fair which will be held during the summer. He has been told the the prizes will be paid through you and he has been asked to furnish the Department with a prize list when the same is published. You should make application for the amount when it is required.

Your obedient servant,

For Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

W. J. Milworth Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Macleod, Alberta.
