

Learning How to Do

AT THE

PUBLIC SCHOOL OF INDUSTRIAL ART, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

(The first in the United States to adopt Manual Training Methods.)
PROF. J. LIBERTY TADD, Director.

AND

Learning by Doing

AT THE

HAMPTON NORMAL AND AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE, HAMPTON, VA.

(The first institution founded in the United States for the Education of the Negro and the Indian.)
REV. DR. FRIZELL, Principal.

An Investigation and Illustration of the Methods employed in the above Institutions in teaching Manual Training, Drawing, Industrial Art, Nature Study, Domestic Science and Agriculture.

By THOMAS BENGOUGH, C. S. R.
TORONTO.

WITH SEVEN
JS ENGRAVINGS FROM PHOTOGRAPHS.

"Work will be introduced to schools, and children become familiarized with it, for whoever has learned to love it in youth in any form will never in later life yield to idleness, be his rank or station what it may. And then the moral and esthetic gain of the individual in the strife of life will show itself in the progress of the whole."—Karl Werner.

Published by Authority of the Education Department of Ontario,

TORONTO:

Printed and published by L. K. CAMERON,
Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1902.