

- of, 217, 240, 260; memoir on, 259; memoirs on the English fort at, 1707, 247; memoranda relating to, 228; pillage of English posts at, 257; posts at, 215, 216; trade of, 214, 229; transfer of posts at, 217.
- Hudson's Bay Co., 37, 60, 65, 228; relations with the French, 227; administration of justice by, 124; affairs of, 138; alleged encroachments in Alaska, 59; amalgamation with the Northwest Co., 11; applies for a renewal of the exclusive license to trade in N. America beyond the limits of its charter, 136; charges against, 119; claims of, 36; complaints of, 62; disturbances in the Indian territory, 119; documents relating to, 6; establishment of a court of probate in their territory, 40; instructions respecting, 57; jurisdiction of, 120; land claims of, 57, 58, 60; land sales by, 57; lists of persons employed by the company in North America, 124, 126, 127, 128, 130, 131, 133, 134, 136; negotiations with, 40; project for a grant of exclusive privileges to, 137; relations with the British government with regard to Vancouver Island, 57; relations with the Northwest Co., 9, 10, 21, 22, 117, 118, 120, 121, 122, 148; relations with the Red River colony, 118, 148; rights of, 38; surrender of territory by, 40; trade of, 73.
- Hughes, Capt. P., report of, 98.
- Hughes, Richard, correspondence with the Colonial Office, 176.
- Hull, Gen. William, 116; military operations of, 146; proclamation of, 76.
- Humber River, salmon fisheries of, 147.
- Hume, Joseph, correspondence with the Colonial Office on U. C., 26; proceedings of, 154.
- Hunter, Peter, correspondence with the Colonial Office, 20, 143-144; correspondence with the Treasury, 62; death of, 144; opposes the appointment of Lieut.-Col. Connolly as head of the Indian department, 143.
- Hunter, Maj.-Gen., 86, 87; correspondence with the Colonial Office, 181-182, 189-190; death of, 113.
- Hunters' Lodges, activities of, 42; formation of, 158.
- Hunter, schooner, 182.
- Huntley, Sir Henry, charges against, 55; correspondence with the Colonial Office, 49, 54-55.
- Huron, bishopric of, 37.
- Huron, Lake, exploration north of, 24, 25; fisheries of, 36; naval operations on, 77.
- Huron tract, plan to drain the great swamp in, 156.
- Huron and Ontario Railroad, 157.
- Hurons, of Lorette, their claims, 13.
- Hutcheson, Maj., 201.
- Hutchinson, Gov., 201.
- Iberville, Pierre le Moynes, sieur d', 214, 228; captures Fort Nelson, 214, 228; captures Nevis, 259; expedition of, 1705, 263; expedition to Newfoundland, 238; explorations of, 214; his colony on the Mississippi, 215; inventory of beaver skins stored at La Rochelle by, 264; memoranda on Boston and its dependencies, 240; official correspondence of, 214, 215, 228; plans to capture Newfoundland, 238; sale of beaver skins by, 264.
- Isle aux Noix, correspondence of officers at, 206.
- Ile des Graules, French and English refugees on, 242.
- Ile Madame, 176, 242; affairs of, 218; papers relating to, 246; population of, 175.
- Ile Royale, 229, 230, 247; Acadians in, 220, 235, 241, 244, 251, 252, 254; arrival of Swiss soldiers at, 242; arrival of troops and inhabitants from Plaisance, 217; beach rents at, 223; Bigot's remarks on its restitution, 260; censuses of, 1713-1753, 254; commerce of, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 241, 242, 243, 245, 252, 253, 260, 261; commerce with Acadia, 221; commerce with France, 1750-1753, 246; commerce with New France and the W. Indies, 220, 221; English negotiations with the French officials of, as to a peace with the Indians, 164; illicit commerce with English colonies, 245; condition of the inhabitants, 241; decrees on the cod fishery at, 260, 261; defence of, 226, 243; establishment of a permanent cod fishery at, 1713, 253; general administration of, 244; general condition of, 241, 242, 244, 245; general lists of the inhabitants of, in France, 1762-1772, 254; general memoranda on, 241, 246; government of, 220, 242; grant of, to Gautier, 252; imports provisions from France and New England, 245; list of inhabitants who sought refuge at Cherbourg, 245; local government in, 253; local regulations concerning various settlements, 242; memoir on the establishment of a colony in, 241; memoirs by Raudot on its settlement, 247; memoirs on, 260; memoranda of M. Roma respecting, 244; memorandum on its importance for the English, 244; migration of debtors to Ile St. Jean, 242; needs of, 244; papers relating to, 217; plans relating to settlement, 246; plans to induce the French and Indians of Acadia to settle in, 217; plans to regain, 234; plans to re-settle, 244; population of, 242; provisions and munitions for, 217, 225, 226, 244; Recollets at, 221, 222; relations with Massachusetts, 242; relations with the government of N. S., 242; restored to France, 1748, 260; royal edicts, ordinances, letters patent, warrants, grants, commissions, etc., relating to, 248; scarcity of missions at, 232; scarcity of provisions at, 242, 243, 245; settlement in, 241, 246, 247; settlement of soldiers in, 244; settlements of, 225, 244; state papers of, 217-226, 241-245; supplies for, 218, 223, 232; troops and fortifications of, 225, 226; want of currency, 241; wintering and initial measures of the first colonists, 241. See also Cape Breton, and Louisbourg.
- Ile St. Jean, 243; abandonment of the