

On The Side

MARCONI WIGGINS.

Who first sent cablegrams so free Across the deep and boundless sea, And brought us in communication With every blooming foreign nation?

Who later sent the sound waves o'er The deep blue sea from shore to shore, And did the thing in silence there Without the use of wires or air?

Who also found the telephone,
And had us talking with a groan, As we heard Central's glad refrain:
"Line's busy now; please ring again?"

"If any benefit befall Upon this glad some mundane ball, Who has the monumental gall To claim the credit for it all?"

Wonder if the guests kicked at that Football dinner given in St. Louis the other day.

There's some consolation, dear Candidates, about those castles in the air. You don't have to pay rent for them.

It is hoped that Lord Rosslyn, who is trying to break the bank at Monte Carlo, has the foresight to buy a return ticket.

Ice-cutting on the river has begun.
That reminds you you have not paid your last ice bill. Now, how would you like—but I won't say it, so there now.

Now that the election is over let us proceed with the vaccination. Let all the city officials and school teachers get vaccinated and then enforce the by-law.—Growler.

IS IT YOU?

The Chatham man who got arrested for celebrating the arrival of the New Year may be informed that it is not yet too late to swear off.
A good ending always tones down a bad start.

"HARD BLOW"

Toronto is disappointed at its small birth rate, but who can blame children for not wanting to get born in a city where W. W. K. Madsen appointed himself for all the jobs in the place and then talks a blue streak from 7 a. m. to 12 p. m.

LADIES!

An American minister says that the women ought to propose to the men.
Now just imagine that fellow of yours saying, "Oh, Liz, this is so sudden!
Go and ask Paw." And again imagine yourself going up to that grizzled old dad of his. It would be lots of fun, would it not?

IRISH LEAGUE

Convention at Dublin Largely Attended—Redmond's
Speech.

Dublin, Jan. 8.—The National convention of the United Irish League, which opened here this morning under the presidency of John Redmond, was so largely attended that the spacious rotunda was overflowed. Most of the Nationalist members of Parliament were present and all sections of the party were fully represented by delegates. Mr. Redmond's opening speech was largely statistical, and devoted to refuting the assertion of the Chief Secretary of Ireland, Geo. Wyndham, that there were only forty branches of the league. Mr. Redmond pledged his word that there were 1,230 live and paying branches. He declared that if the league movement was made dangerous by their enemies more help would be forthcoming from the United States. Resolutions were adopted, denouncing the war and farm burning in South Africa, and condemning the land laws of Ireland. Mr. Redmond declared that whatever crime existed in Ireland was deliberately promoted by the police and agents of the crown.

DAY'S DESPATCHES

WOUNDED IN ACTION.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 8.—The militia department has been advised that Trooper Lyle Medway, of Medicine Hat, N. W. T., and Trooper Alfred Cooper, of Mount Hope, Ont., have been severely wounded at Potchefstroom.

The department has also been advised that Victoria troops will arrive at Halifax on Jan. 14th.

STILL ENTOMBED.

Negaunee, Mich., Jan. 8.—This situation is practically unchanged at the Negaunee mine, where a number of men are entombed. The rescuers accomplished nothing during the night.
Officials of the mine now say there are at least ten men, and possibly 12, under ground.

PHONOGRAPH RECORD.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—A phonographic record of a story, which he says he told, is what Louis Thomas, under arrest on the charge of having murdered Minnie Larson on the night of December 30, to-day, advanced as proof that he was not on the steamer Plessis

His Wife's
Weak
Heart.

It is a singular thing that in the pendence of the several organs of the body is lost sight of. The heart, for example, is diseased and it is treated as if it were entirely separated from, and independent of, every other organ.
The fallacy of this opinion is shown by the cures of heart "trouble," liver "trouble," kidney "trouble," and other so-called "troubles," effected by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
Primarily the "Discovery" is a medicine for the cure of diseases of the stomach and blood. But it cures diseases of organs seemingly remote from the stomach, because these diseases have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and its associated organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I doctored with three different doctors for weak heart, but they did me no good," writes Mrs. Julia A. Wilcox, of Cymet, Wood Co., Ohio.
Box 55. "I was so tired and discouraged if I had had my choice to live or die I would have preferred to die. My husband heard of Golden Medical Discovery, and he bought a bottle. I took that and the first half seemed to help me.
I took six bottles before I stopped. I am perfectly well, and am cooking for six boarders.
It has been a God-sent cure to me."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

the night the girl is said to have been slain and her weighted body sunk in the river.

He declared that he spent most of the night with friends and that Albert Ristau, one of the party, had a photograph into which they all talked. Ristau to-day confirmed Thoms' story, but it was stated that the record of Thoms' story has been broken, as well as two others. It is said to be possible that the wax cylinder, which Thoms said was his best witness to prove an alibi, may be patched up sufficiently to show the truth or falsity of Thoms' story.

SURPRISING RESULTS

A Simple Internal Remedy Cures of Catarrh.

People who have used sprays, inhalers, washes, and washes for catarrh and have found how useless and inconvenient they are, will be agreeably surprised at results following the use of a pleasant, internal remedy in tablet form; druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which they sell at 50c for full sized treatment is the safest, most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.

Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates; these cheap medicines give a temporary relief, especially with little children, of destroying nerve sensation; the irritation in throat, which causes coughing is temporarily removed, not by removing the cause, but by dead-ening the nerves of feeling the irritation is not felt although it is still there and will promptly return.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrhal secretion, whether in the nose, throat or stomach, because they are composed of wholesome antiseptics like red gum, blood root, etc., when you use these tablets you know what you are putting into your system and not taking chances with cocaine, opiate or similar poisons found in so many catarrh cures and cough medicines.

Dr. Rumadell, in commenting on Catarrh Cures, says: "I can heartily recommend Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine, nor other dangerous drug found in so many advertised catarrh cures. I have known of many cases of long standing catarrh of the head and throat completely cured by the daily use of these tablets for several weeks.
One case in particular, which I could not reach with an inhaler or spray and where the catarrh caused daily headaches, and a noticeable loss of hearing, was entirely cured by this harmless but effective remedy."

Dr. Wainright says: "I never hesitate to prescribe Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for Catarrhal Headaches and catarrhal deafness, because I know them to be perfectly safe for child or adult, and have seen many remarkable cures resulting from their regular daily use; because they are advertised and sold in drug stores in no reason why any good physician should not use them, because we should seize upon the means of cure wherever found."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrhal colds in children, because they are pleasant to the taste, and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning.

All druggists sell the remedy at 50c cents for full sized packages.

FOUGHT FOR HER

Men Quarrelled Over a Woman who was Killed in an Effort to Separate Them.

North Hero, Vt., Jan. 8.—From an obscure place known as Point Au Fair, on the New York side of Lake Champlain, comes the report of the murder of Miss Sophia Mannin. It is claimed that the woman was sacrificed in the course of a fight over her between two intoxicated men, and that after she was dead alcohol was poured upon her body and she was set on fire. The men, Eli Cameron and Edward Dupe, have been arrested and taken to jail. According to information at hand, Miss Mannin for some time has been housekeeper for Cameron, a fisherman. Not far from Cameron's house lived her friend, Edward Dupe, whose wife died about three weeks ago. Wanting to get some one to keep house for him, Dupe made an offer to Miss Mannin, but she had not accepted. On January 2 the men met at Cameron's camp, and after drinking they began discussing the question of who should have the services of Miss Mannin. The men soon began to fight with knives. The woman attempted to separate them, and was fatally stabbed. To destroy traces of the murder it was thought alcohol was poured over the woman and ignited. The men then left the place. Three days after a man went to Cameron's house, and on the floor found the charred body of the woman.
The men were found, arrested and taken to jail at Plattsburg. Miss Mannin was about 40 years old, and belonged to a respectable family of Rouse's Point.
