O, the little birds sang east,
And the little birds sang west,
And I said in underbreath—
All our life is mixed with death,
And who knoweth which is best?

O, the little birds sang east,
And the little birds sang west,
And I smiled to think God's greatness
Flowed around our incompleteness,
Round our restlessness, His rest.

—Mrs. Browning.
