LETTERS FROM SOLDIERS
AT SALISBURY PLAINS

FROM "TED" YEOMANS.
Salisbury Plains, Nov. 22nd, 1914
Dear Mamma,

It has been quite a time since I have written a letter and I must confess that I am just as hard up for something to tell you as I was before. I visited London, which was last weekend. Then it was because I didn't have enough news to tell now it is because I have so much that I don't know where to begin.

Last Friday November 14th, we got our leave to go to London. We both of us spruced up as much as possible and at half-past four we were paraded before our Major, received our passes and were driven in the transport-wagon six miles to the nearest station, Lavitong, where we boarded a train for Paddington station in London arriving there at 8.20.

Soldiers or sailors in uniform are kindly allowed to travel by railway at the half-fare; so, instead of paying the regular rate of fifteen shillings, we only had to pay seven and six-pence only. As we came out of the station, we met a railway employee (all of whom by the way, are dressed in uniform) and he took us to a hotel, but clean and respectable hotel, just outside the station.

The only room available at the time was for three people and we had to share it with another soldier who had already occupied it. We were agreeably surprised, you may imagine when we found that this fellow was from our own battery.

We went to bed at once that night, and so were able to get up bright and early in the morning.
After breakfast we started out and walking for a short distance we boarded a train-car to Trafalgar Square and our adventures started.

We were both engaged in conversation with fellow-passengers. The man with whom I was talking was a dark good looking fellow who was apparently well educated. He told me that he had been offered a commission in one of the regiments of Territorials here (you know territorials are the same as volunteers).

In about fifteen minutes we arrived at Nelson's monument, and getting off the train we walked around it inspecting it from every side. While we were standing there, a man came up and asked us if we were busy; or if we would like to see some of London.
Of course, not knowing much of London we took advantage of his offer to show us the place.

He started at Trafalgar Square, and by the time he finished showing us that place, he had shown us the Central Park, had an entirely different aspect. He showed us the engravings on each side of the Nelson monument which illustrated the four most important points in Nelson's career, and from there he went to General Gordon's monument and several others in the Square. Also the standards of measurement—the yard foot, inch, and tenth inch; and pointed out the National Gallery, just beyond.

I can't tell you how many places I saw in the time we were in London.
In one letter in one letter I intend to describe them.

I got mixed up as to directions.
We went and saw the guard chains at Buckingham Palace. They had to do the "spooning" for quite a distance. And we also heard the Coldstream guards band play for the guards to march by.

Outside of the Palace gate was the Victoria memorial which is guarded by two lions. In the centre, are the the gates donated by the colonies—one by West and South Africa, and the best one of the bunch by CANADA.
There was also the Albert memorial which is very better than that of Victoria, the sculpturing on it was simply swell.

From there we walked to the Kensington Palace, through Kensington Palace, you know London, as well as I can tell it. I have taken A WHOLE WEEK to get it written, and even after all that, I suppose Pat will have told you long ago, all about everything. I was very pleased to see you in my letter. I had so much to talk of that I was all mixed up as to their order, but it is finished now, so I must make haste to post it.

Every thing is fine here; and the life we lead is fine and healthy.
Pat is waiting to mail this so I shall say "good-bye" for now.
Your loving son
TED.

NOTES OF ARMOURIES
The activity at the Armouries continues.
28 Officers and N. C. O's have just completed a course of instruction at the Provisional School, which has been under way for the last 8 weeks. The final examinations were conducted by Major W. J. Brown, Acting General Staff Officer, 3rd Division, assisted by Captains Allen and Cook of the 15th Regiment. The examining Board are well pleased with the general showing and the results will be known soon.

The last parade of the year in the Province is putting on a good programme of sports. "Kid" Meyers fell down on the big boxing bout.
Gentry practice continues nightly.
The Civilian Association taking Monday and Tuesday, The Home Guard Thursday afternoon and the different Cadet Corps divide up the other afternoons.
Examinations were conducted in "First Aid" for St. John Ambulance Association Certificates on Wednesday by Dr. Gibson and Capt. MacColl, which resulted successfully.
Miss Eileen Buchanan, of Toronto, is visiting her parents on Front street.

FRONT STREET
CORNER CHANGES

A portion of the block at the south east corner of Front and Campbell streets, opposite the Bank of Commerce has been disposed of by the owners to a Trust Company, the name of which is not divulged. Mayor Willis who put through the sale would not this morning state the purpose of the proposed building to be put, except that it would be used by a substantial corporation and that the changes will likely be made by the spring of 1915. The tenants have been notified of this.

This deal has been some two years in being realized.
Prominent mention has been made the past few days of certain properties being sold or with a likelihood of changing hands, but there is nothing definite in these matters. One of the certain properties is a lot in a Front corner the proposed building in a Front corner by a fraternal order.
In another by a theatrical firm, and a third by a large departmental company.

QUEEN VICTORIA
SCHOOL CLOSING

The Assembly Hall and corridors of this school were crowded by a capacity audience last night on the occasion of the Christmas closing concert put on by the pupils under the skilled direction and careful preparation of Principal Wilkin Vice-Principal Shidder, and the ladies of the teaching staff.

The various choruses, recitations, solos, drills and other features were excellent and received the heartiest applause, children and adults all enjoying the evening together to the utmost. The presentation of the Government General's medal to Clara Mott, daughter of Principal Mott of Queen Alexandra school, an interesting function, and the award of a certificate to Miss Alice Laxier, of the Board of Education, and by Principal Wilkin.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Robert Gerson
The death took place this morning of Mrs. Robert Gerson, the wife of the late Mr. Robert Gerson, who resided at North Pinnac street. Deceased whose maiden name was Florence Mansbach, was born in Belleville, two-teen years ago, but had resided twenty-seven years ago, but had resided for the past eight years in Rochester.
She was a member of St. Michael's Church. Surviving are her husband, three children, Mildred, Harold, and Loretta, her parents, and six brothers, Frank and William, of Rochester, Gerard, Leo, Gordon, and Roy, of Belleville.

CHARGED WITH PERJURY

Henry Larkin was given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Masson, this morning on a charge of perjury and was committed for trial and given his liberty on his own recognizance of $100 and two sureties of $200 each. The charge arose out of a division court action in which Robert Trench, of Teaswater, was the plaintiff against Samuel Dunning over the claim of a horse on an alleged breach of warranty. Dunning won the suit.
It took place on Dec. 7th in the court house.

It was alleged that Larkin, a witness, testified that the horse had never done anything wrong, and that he had never heard of its doing anything amiss. Mr. Trench claimed this was untrue. Larkin owned the horse and traded him with Dunning for a mare. Trench had the animal about four or five weeks, when it was sold by auction and brought by Mr. Dunning who shipped it west.
Larkin did not give testimony today and the magistrate in view of the nature of the evidence, himself admitted Larkin to bail.

G. T. R. GIVES FULL PAY

The Grand Trunk gives full pay for a period of six months to any of its employees who are serving with Canadian militia on active service, and not full pay as was the impression conveyed in an article published this week.

REMEMBERS THE POLICE

Mr. George F. Ostrom, produce merchant, McAnany street, remembered the Belleville Police Department as he was making a shipment of poultry during his residence here was the tallest man in town.

PARKS VS. SIMPSON.

Judgment has been given in the case of Parks vs. Simpson by Judge Deroche, dismissing the action. This action was removed in an old set of actions of Parks vs. Simpson, and Simpson vs. Parks.
The defence was that all matters had been disposed of in the former proceedings and that this was only a repetition of the consolidated actions and proceeded to judgment.

The parties reside in Rawdon and the action was originally brought to the City of Toronto. The management should meet with success as we understand Mr Valleau is an expert butter maker.
The wife of the soldier received their separation cheque of $20. today. One woman lost hers on the way from the Post office to her home. It was picked up later and handed to her.
Rev. Canon Armstrong, the representative appointed by the Trenton Patriotic Soldiers League, attended the meeting of the executive of the "Canadian Patriotic Fund," held in Ottawa on Dec. 9th, and on Tuesday evening last, presented his report as follows:
The cost of the administration of the Canadian Patriotic Fund would be very light, and, from present appearances, easily met by the interest on daily balance allowed by the bank.
The Fund was reported in a very healthy condition and was being argument of the committee was such as to guarantee perfect faith and absolute justice in the administration of the Fund.
Mr. H. B. Ames M.P. the Hon. Sec., had prepared and presented a report covering the work in the whole Dominion. It was most satisfactory.
It was on the strength of the Canon's report that the Trenton league decided to become affiliated with the central organization at Ottawa.

TWO COMPANIES OF INFANTRY TO BE QUARTERED IN CITY

Distribution of the Third Contingent Troops Decided Upon By Ottawa
--Kingston Gets Go-By.

(From Friday's Daily.)
Two companies of infantry for the Third Canadian Contingent will be quartered in the city of Belleville according to the distribution just made by the military authorities at Ottawa. Kingston had been passed by some of the allotment having been given to that city.

The two battalions of infantry and the one battalion of mounted rifles for the Third District will be divided as follows:
Ottawa—Four companies of infantry and one squadron of mounted rifles.
Cornwall—Two companies of infantry.
Smith's Falls—Two companies of infantry.
Brookville—two companies of infantry.
Belleville—One company of infantry.
Belleville—Two companies of infantry.
Cobourg—One company of infantry.
Port Hope—One company of infantry.

Peterboro—One company of infantry and one squadron of mounted rifles.
Lindsay—Two companies of infantry, making in all eighteen companies to the three battalions.
Show How to Manage on Route.
There is good reason to believe that the 21st Battalion will make an early move for the front. Already the battalion has been informed regarding provision for men and all other things which are necessary for a unit to keep when it is about to move. If the 21st Battalion has been officially notified as to all things concerning entertainment and transportation it is reasonable to believe that the whole of the second contingent will soon be on its way to the front.

O. C. Compagnon will send to the orderly room by 9 a.m. Friday, 18th inst, the number of men of their companies who are going on leave for the Christmas holidays, so that arrangements may be made for Christmas dinner.
Only forty per cent. of each company may go on furlough for the Christmas holidays.
Yesterday was pay day with the 21st Battalion. The soldiers are busy buying Christmas presents.
Thirty to forty per cent. of the men of the 21st Battalion will be given passes for Christmas Day, and the balance for New Year's. Already about 20 per cent. off the men have been given a holiday. Before the battalion leaves for the front, Col. Hughes intends giving every man a chance to spend one day with his friends or family.

Sergt-Maj Gilbert has been confirmed in his rank as Battalion sergeant-major of the 21st Battalion, and has been granted the rank of a warrant officer. Sergt-Maj Gilbert was formerly under Maj. Gillespie in the 21st Battalion, and is a capable photographer and an excellent gymnast.
As a drill instructor he has few superiors and has handled the men of the 21st Battalion to the entire satisfaction of the commanding officer. He has a quiet way of getting along with all men and every officer and soldier to whom he has been confirmed in his rank and that he had been given warrant rank.

Messrs Shannon and McLaughlin have become interested in the King Albert pool room, Front street.

the approval of the public. Mr. Weller is one of the most enterprising theatrical men in this part of Ontario.
The advisability of starting a subscription list for the Belgium was discussed last evening, and it is probable that those who are particularly inter-Scottishman, formerly drum-major of Trenton, Dec. 17.—Owing to the death of Senator Jaffray, Mr. N. W.

the bride, Mt. Zion, by Rev. R. A. assist at the first services to be held in the First Methodist church, on Sunday next.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young left for Ottawa, yesterday, to attend the obsequies of Mrs. Young's father.

Mr. J. D. Spence, of Toronto, O.P.R. solicitor, is in town today on business.

visiting at St. George's rectory, for some weeks, returned to Toronto today.
The Park Commission met last evening and transacted routine business.
The Trenton Creamery and Dairy Co. commenced operations on 14th inst. The management should meet mild weather.

There may be other corn cures, but Holloway's Corn Cure stands at the head of the list so far as results are concerned.
