

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, biliousness, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

NEW REPUBLIC
By Courier Leased Wire
Geneva, Switzerland, Sunday, November 3.—A new republic came into being when the conference here of Czechoslovak leaders ended yesterday. Dr. Kramarz, former leader of the Hungarian-Czech party, who spent several years in prison on the charge of treason being released in July 1917, was chosen first president of the new republic.

A majority of the delegates left today for Prague where a Czechoslovak national parliament will be formed at once. The Czechoslovak government, a Vienna dispatch says, has placed in circulation new stamps bearing the design of the lion of Bohemia.

LADY'S ONE PIECE GATHERED SKIRT.

By Anabel Worthington.

The advantage of this graceful evening skirt is that it may be made in various different ways. The foundation skirt has a straight lower edge, and it is gathered all around the slightly raised waistline. The tunic is in two sections, and it is cut so that it falls in graceful ripples to a long point at the front, while the back develops into a pointed train. There is an inverted plait at centre back. The back tunic is also perforated for skirt length.

The lady's one piece gathered skirt pattern No. 3610 is cut in five sizes—26 to 34 inches waist measure. As on the figure, the 26-inch size requires for the tunic 4½ yards 36-inch or 3¾ yards 45-inch; the skirt requires 2 yards 42-inch flouncing. Price, 10 cents.

To Obtain This Pattern Send 15c to The Courier Office, or two for 25c.

OLD HOME WEEK.
It's Old Home Week in Germany, the boys are coming back! They're sore and tired and verminy, and high they do not speak. No smiling maids are meeting them with laurels for their brows; no glad voiced sires are greeting them, and no rejoicing fraus. But "Blitzen!" and "Geewhellen!" the sad-eyed people say. "You blamed snub-sided pelicans, why did you run away?" It's Old Home Week in Germany, but every one looks sour; the weary soldier Herman, he has made twelve miles an hour; the girls behind him hammering, the allies on his trail, triumphant tomen clamoring, he scorched o'er hill and dale. But in his native villages the ice tongs are his prize; they love the Hun no longer, but not the one who flies. They love the Hun victorious, to him at any cost, they'd welcome give apropos—the loser gets a frog. No orators are thundering a lot of phrases fine, no village bands are blundering through "Watches on the Rhine." "Our noble boys are here again," no loyal voters cry; they weep and order beer again, and drink it with a sigh. It's Old Home Week in Germany, for warriors who quit; no kaiser, tinsel, ermine, extends the cordial mit. No kaiser, windy, sermony, is there to read a poem; it's Old Home Week in Germany—but what a welcome home!

Music and Drama

"FURS AND FRILLS"

Richard Carle in "Furs and Frills" is announced as the attraction for Monday, November 11th, at the Grand. This is a production which can be especially recommended for theatre parties. The name of Carle is always a guarantee for the fitness of a production, and in "Furs and Frills" there is no exception. There is plenty of good, sparkling Carle comedy, there is a typical Carle beauty chorus, there is funny music, picturesque costumes, pretty stage pictures and all that goes to make a musical show of the highest order. Mr. Carle has a role which shows him in slightly different lines from any heretofore seen by him and he is proving an even greater laughing success than ever before. The cast of players includes besides Richard Carle, Harry Fox, Marjorie Craver, Hattie Fox, Jay Elwood, George Bogues, Milt Dawson, William Wolff, Edward Meredith, Joseph McNamee, five violinists and the Carle all-star chorus. The demand for seats to see Carle increases day by day at the sale, which is being held at the box office of the Grand. Only a few of the choicest seats remain.

MONEY NOW ALL RECOVERED

That Which Was Taken in the Express Car Hold Up

Toronto, Nov. 7.—Covered with leaves a bag containing $9,000 in bills was found by detectives yesterday afternoon in the yard at the rear of a house on Garden avenue. With this money the $20,000 stolen in the Buffalo express hold-up on October 23. The remaining $150 is alleged to have been spent by John Lett in travelling expenses.

Shackled with handcuffs, John Lett was taken by detectives through the residential section of Hyde Park yesterday to try and locate the spot where he left the money. Before leaving headquarters he drew a map of where he thought he had gone after jumping out of the car Sunday. This diagram took the officers to Garden avenue, and after a lengthy search they found the spot. The bag had been thrown over a fence, and was lying between the fence and a chicken coop. It had not been disturbed, and the leaves that partly covered it from view had been blown over it by the wind. John Lett, his brother Walter and Gordon Douglas, held by the police in connection with the robbery, appeared in police court yesterday morning, and were remanded for one week.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend a few cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life, have an invigorating scalp, and use Danderine. The hair roots flourish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed every ten minutes after you wash your hair. This is the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff, no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Danderine. Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

HAIL CLEMENCEAU "FATHER OF VICTORY"

French Premier Cheered When He Reads Deputies' Terms Given to Roe

Paris, Nov. 5.—M. Clemenceau, the Premier, was accorded a wonderful ovation in the Chamber of Deputies today as he read to Deputies the terms of the armistice with Austria-Hungary. He also said terms had been submitted to Germany.

"The terms to Germany," said the Premier, "are what President Wilson himself recommended, as for security of our troops, the maintenance of our military superiority, and the disarmament of the enemy in so far as it is necessary to prevent a resumption of hostilities."

M. Clemenceau declared that peace might not be so near as some might think, but that he could, however, assure the chamber that "the fate of the people henceforth was fixed." There was prolonged cheering when the Premier announced that the allies had obtained the use of all means of transport in Austria-Hungary.

M. Clemenceau declared that peace "father of victory" as he mounted the tribune to announce the terms of the armistice, especially when the Premier spoke of the approach of full victory, the defeat of Austria-Hungary and the complete story of France. The usual applause interrupted him, but the Premier remained unperturbed, defiantly smothering the shouts of the opposition. The Chamber passed a resolution providing for the speech of M. Clemenceau should be posted throughout France.

"What I have done," said M. Clemenceau, "is France that has done it. I have only made the best use of the instruments France has given me. The Superior Council at Versailles has drawn up the terms of an armistice with Germany. These were sent yesterday to President Wilson, who if he approves them will make them turn to the imperial and democratic governments."

At this point the House burst into laughter.

"It will then be time enough for Germany to address herself to France," the Premier added.

To prevent Resumption of War. It was here that the Premier defended the terms to Germany which were inspired, as were those imposed upon Austria, to prevent a resumption of hostilities in case Germany should break her word.

M. Clemenceau referred to himself as "the last signer of the Bordeaux protest against the dismemberment of Alsace-Lorraine, the House rose and cheered him. He paid a tribute to Gambetta and then dealt with after-dinner when "the pill of peace" would have to show himself worthy of the pill of war.

"Without allies in this war we should not have triumphed," said the Premier. "Without allies would have triumphed. Our ancient enemies, the English have become our indestructible friends."

Before the Premier read the armistice terms, Paul Deschanel, President of the Chamber, paid a tribute to the victorious allied armies.

"After Bulgaria, Turkey, after Turkey, Austria," said M. Deschanel.

The Franco-American armies are delivering the Argonne; Anglo-Belgian armies are delivering Flanders; the Italians are at Trent and Trieste. The whole of Chamber then arose and turned toward the Italian Ambassador, sitting in the diplomatic gallery, and the Ambassador stood and bowed his acknowledgments.

A similar scene was enacted when M. Deschanel referred to the Serbians.

Interpellation Voted Down. M. Mayeras, Socialist, asked the Government to decide for an interpellation as to whether the Government was in accord with President Wilson's fourteen points for peace. Foreign Minister Pichon replied that such an interpellation would be unacceptable as contrary to national interest, being intended to create the belief that there was disagreement between President Wilson and the French Government.

The question of the interpellation was voted down 430 to 57.

Pierre Renaudel, leader of the majority Socialists, said he desired to offer an interpellation that the Government should make a declaration on all negotiations, thus ending secret diplomacy. M. Pichon made the matter a question of confidence in the Government, and the House supported the Foreign Secretary by a vote of 419 to 52.

"SAVE THE BABY" IS CRY FROM BELGIUM

The "maternity canteens" in occupied Belgium endeavor to improve as much as possible the food conditions for mothers and prospective mothers. Unfortunately, the value of the meals in these canteens has decreased owing to the continuing increase in the price of food stuffs, and the diminution of help from individuals who are less and less able to divert anything from their own already scanty stores. The Committee of Greater Brussels are trying to remedy this situation and some of them have already granted the "maternity canteens" a subsidy of 40 centimes (8 cents) a meal.

The cry in Canada and America has long been "Save the Baby" and if this be true here, then what must it be in Belgium, not only in the occupied regions but the regions devastated by the hand of the German and now gradually being reclaimed by the Allied armies. "Save the Belgian Baby" is a cry that the people on this side of the Atlantic, whose homes and families know nothing of the horrors of war, might well heed, for should the cry of those suffering Belgian mothers and little children fall on deaf ears, their last state would truly be worse than their first, and their liberation an empty and useless thing.

Many Belgian families today are without a shelter of any kind and even for their food they are dependent upon the charity of the other allied peoples, whose soldiers want to fight to right their wrong and if help is refused them now liberation will be worse than subjugation and starvation must be their portion. "They shall not pass," cried the French at Verdun. "They shall not starve" should be the cry of all who, throughout the four years of war have known what it is to enjoy the comforts of home and who have never for one moment had to go hungry even for a day.

Belgian women and children need help and need it in the worst way. There is a specially appointed commission who are looking after the needs of the Belgian people, the Belgian Relief Commission, whose funds are all voluntary contributions and who know how and where money can be spent to the best advantage in Belgium to starve off further sufferings. To ensure a local committee in your locality, but if not any donation you can give of your plenty may be sent to the Central Committee, 59 St. Peter Street, Montreal, Que.
