Rev. Mr. McNeil, of P. E. I., occupied the pulpit of St. Stephen's Methodist Church on Sunday both morning and evening, delivering very appreciative addresses. He also preached very acceptably at the Provincial Sanatorium, Sunday afternoon.

The Concert to be given to-night at Pastime Hall by Miss Eva Mylott, under the auspices of the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches will be a musical treat which should be very largely patronized. The press speaks in glowing terms of Miss Mylott's wonderful voice. Don't fail to hear her this evening.

We regret to report that Mr. S. L. Cross, merchant, met with a very painful accident Saturday last. While looking after some lambs at the slaughter house, he caught his foot and fell backwards, severely straining the tendons of his leg. At latest reports he was somewhat improved.

Dr. J. W. Manning, of Wolfville, occupied the pulpit of the Kentville Baptist Church on Sunday delivering two very excellent addresses. At the evening service Miss Evelyn Spidell, of Acadia Seminary, who spent the week-end at her home in town, sang "The River of Years" very beautifully.

The marriage took place at Sydney C. B. on Wednesday Sept. 24th., of Miss Georgina Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Totten, of Sydney to Mr. Lewis H. Publicover, formerly of Kentville, but now of Sydney. Mr. Publicover and bride arrived in Kentville last week on a visit to his mother Mrs. W. Publicover, and other relatives and friends, who are pleased to extend hearty congratulations. They intend leaving Wednesday to spend a week in Boston.
