PARLIAMENT TO MEET JANUARY 25

Ottawa, December 21—Sir Robert Borden will likely return to Ottawa on Saturday next. It is expected that immediately upon his return he will call a full meeting of the Cabinet to decide upon the date of the coming session. At present the indications are that the session will open on January 25th. The government is said to have its estimates pretty well in shape and its legislative programme fairly well prepared. It is anticipated that "National Service" will hold foremost place in the Speech from the Throne.

The Allies are preparing a Christmas message for the Huns, and it is not likely to bear the emblem of the "Dove of Peace."

The Furness liner Salerno arrived at Liverpool, Dec. 19th.

The fund for the Cornwallis St. Baptist Church, Halifax, has passed the $3000 mark. Among recent contributors were Gaspereau church, $3.25; Canard Baptist, $18.83; Mrs. Alfred Perry, $1.00, etc.

The marriage took place on Wednesday morning, December 20, at the home of Mrs. Agnes Fitz Randolph, South Williams- ton, of her daughter, Muriel Blanche, and Frank Miles Chipman, of Nictaux West, Rev. S. A. McDougall officiating.

The worst fire in the history of Summerside, P. E. I., swept over that town Wednesday morning causing nearly twice as much damage as the big fire of 1906, when the residential portion suffered. This time it was the business section, and the damage is estimated at $325,000, with about $175,000 insurance, spread out among 30 different companies.

The marriage was solemnized on Saturday last in Edinburgh, Scotland of Miss Dorothy Gorham, daughter of the late J. W. Gorham of Halifax, and Dr. Gordon Wiswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wiswell, also of Halifax. Captain, the Rev. Clarence Mackinnon of the 219th Battalion, officiated.

Inmates of New York's city prisons and reformatories will eat corn bread instead of wheat bread three days a week, as a result of the high cost of living. Turnips and beets already have been substituted for potatoes.

WOLFVILLE

Mrs. Clarence H. Borden has gone to Somerville, Mass., to remain the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Harris spent Thursday at Kentville.

Miss Lena Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, North Grand Pre, has been visiting her aunt Mrs. Jas. Woodman.

Miss Saxton, milliner has gone to Berwick for the holidays and will proceed to New York to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hogan and family of Church St., have moved to Wolfville.

Miss Edith Thompson has gone to remain the winter in New York.

Mr. Ralph Fuller of the Militia, Dept. Ottawa, who has been home for a long time on sick leave has returned to his work at Ottawa.

Mr. James Eagles has spent the last four years in the North West and is now visiting his former home here.

Sergt. George Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Chase, Port Williams, arrived home unexpectedly on Tuesday last. He has received a warm welcome from his many friends and others who are interested in his noble devotion to duty. On Friday night, Port Williams gave him a public welcome. Sergt. Chase has almost recovered from his recent serious wound and is now looking fine though the effects of the war will remain long with him.

TO BE MARRIED AT NEW YORK

The New York Times announces the marriage of Mr. Harry Phillip Newcombe of Saskatoon, a native of Canning, to Miss Esther Elizabeth Winchester.

Miss Winchester was State Organizer and Lecturer of the Women's Christian Temperance Union for New York, a speaker on Prohibition and Women's Suffrage, who has been taking a prominent part on these questions in many of the State elections throughout United States.

Mr. Newcombe is a barrister, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Newcombe, Canning, who graduated from Dalhousie Law school and practiced for a while in Kentville as a partner of Mr. W. P. Shaffner.

SCHOONER'S MASTS

STICKING UP IN BAY

Digby, N. S. Dec. 21—At low water at an early hour this morning a vessel's masts were discovered sticking up in St. Mary's Bay between Westport and Meteghan. It is now believed that the American schooner William Mason with hard coal from New York for Yarmouth foundered with all hands within three or four miles of safety.

BOSTON VOTES WET

Boston remains wedded to its idols. The city voted on Tuesday last to continue the license system, after one of the hottest campaigns between the "wets" and the "drys" in the history of the New England metropolis. It was expected that Billy Sunday's remarkable evangelistic campaign in that city would have had an important influence in turning the scale in favor of prohibition. Added to this was the attitude of a large and influential section of the business community, who took their stand in favor of the suppression of the liquor traffic. More than one hundred leaders in the professional, industrial, business, religious and social life of Boston, including such men as Major Henry Lee Higginson, the great Boston banker and philanthropist; Charles W. Elliot, President Emeritus of Harvard; Eugene N. Foss, ex-Governor of Massachusetts, and others equally prominent in their several spheres, issued a signed statement on the eve of the election, urging no license for Boston, and declaring that they believed that "under a license policy Boston would gain both financially and morally." The large increase in the majority in favor of licenses, as compared with that of last year, however, shows that Boston is not yet prepared to give up its saloons.
