Tariff Record

It is side-splitting comedy to read the Liberal press comments now coming out on the Canadian tariff question. They are bringing out the old crow-pecked skeleton of the war horse they rode to power on in 1896, known as "Revenue Tariff."

In the face of the enormous revenue tax of over a hundred millions, this cry, however, is being raised as a being interpreted meaneth that Brown's goose was cooked,

The above editorial comment from the Estevan Mercury shows that the Liberals are after J. T. Brown, M.L. A., in more ways than one. The government officials at the Estevan convention were for the most part men who were beated to a standstill by Mr. Brown in Souris, and they of course have not been taken into the confidence of the party leaders as to why Mr. Brown is being sought as government candidate in Qu'Appelle They do not see a clever move to get huge joke, but the government ex- J.
