

IF YOU WANT A Nobby Suit
A Stylish Overcoat
CALL AT THE OLD

Reliable Wardrobe

Where you are sure to get the Latest.

M. J. KEHOE

VOL. X NO. 26.

GEO. G. HUTCHESON & CO.

Ladies' Waterproof Coats

Parasols

When in want of Dry Goods of any sort you cannot do better than come straight to us.

Telephone 149. GEO. G. HUTCHESON & CO.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Dr. C. M. B. CORNELL

Dr. Stanley S. Cornell

J. F. Harte, M.D., C.M.

Dr. E. J. Bead

Dr. F. H. Koyle

M. A. Everts

Brown & Fraser

Wood, Webster, & Stewart

C. C. Fulford

The Gamble House

SOCIETIES

Farmersville Lodge

A. O. U. W.

G. O. G. F.

I. O. F.

Addison Lodge A. O. U. W.

MONEY

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN

Money to Loan

PATENTS

100,000 DEACON

HIGHEST CASH PRICE AT

THE BROCKVILLE

TANNERY.

A. G. McGRADY SONS

The Athenian

COUNTY OF LEEDS ADVERTISER.

Athens, Leeds County, Ontario, Tuesday, JUNE 26, 1894.

ROBT. WRIGHT & CO.

Headquarters for
STYLISH MILLINERY,
Not Cheap Millinery, but Pretty and Stylish
Millinery Cheap.

PARASOLS.

You can now take your pick from our large variety of everything new in Parasols and Sunshades at a discount of 12 1/2 per cent.

REMEMBER—Looking here brings with it no obligation to buy. We'll thank you to look.

When in want of Dry Goods of any sort you cannot do better than come straight to us.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

Buy the celebrated kid-fitting D. & A. Corsets. Try a pair of D. & A. Summer Corsets; we have them in all sizes at 75c and $1 per pair.

CARNOT ASSASSINATED

The President of France Murdered by an Italian Anarchist.

STABBED IN HIS CARRIAGE

The Heirloom Deed Was Committed While the President Was Attending a Demonstration at Lyons—The Assassination Attempted Twice—But Was Captured.

PARIS, June 25.—Sadi Carnot, President of the Republic, was stabbed mortally last evening in Lyons, by Cesare Giovanni Sante, an Italian anarchist 31 years of age. President Carnot went to Lyons to visit the exhibition. He left the Chamber of Commerce banquet given in his honor shortly after 9 o'clock and walked to his carriage which was waiting in the Place de la Bourse. He had barely taken his seat when Sante, a newspaper in his hand, pressed through the crowd and sprang up the carriage steps. President Carnot started slightly. Sante snatched a dagger from the newspaper and plunged it into the President's abdomen near the liver. The President sank back unconsciously. He was taken at once to the prefecture and the most skillful surgeons in the city were summoned. Meantime Sante was arrested. An eye witness who was walking abreast of the President's carriage with Andre Dupuy, the Premier's brother, says that as the President's carriage approached the crowd Lyons, his own attention was attracted by a slight disturbance in the front line of the crowd. He then saw the carriage stop. The President had fallen back against the cushions and his face had become livid. An outcry was raised at once. Sante fled in the direction of the President's life had been made and the crowd seemed suddenly to go mad with excitement.

The news spread swiftly to every part of the city. Infuriated crowds filled the streets. At 10 o'clock an Italian anarchist named Sante was captured near the Hotel de Ville. Cheering crowds filled the streets and gave the President a warm welcome as he left the Hotel de Ville and in the evening a dinner at the prefecture. From the Hotel de Ville a large torchlight procession, which was followed by fireworks and the national anthem, proceeded to the Chamber of Deputies. The President was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

Yesterday the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

At 11 o'clock the president and his party left for the exhibition in the Parc de St. Germain. Afterwards the president held a reception at the Prefecture. The famous C. P. Corset at old theatre on the Place de la Comedie in the evening after the banquet at the Chamber of Deputies. The president was in a particularly happy mood during the banquet and was noticeably elated by the cordiality of his reception. He left the Chamber of Deputies at 11 o'clock and was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville. He was there until 12 o'clock when he was taken to his apartment in the Hotel de Ville.

NEWS TOPICS OF A WEEK

The Important Events in a Page Word For Busy Readers.

Queen Victoria ascended the throne of Great Britain 87 years ago on Wednesday.

The closing session of the Presbyterian General Assembly was held at St. John, N.B., on Thursday.

Ernesto Wisman was on Wednesday sentenced to five years and six months in Sing Sing prison.

A boat had occurred in the Erie Canal six miles west of Albany on Friday. Navigation is suspended.

At Windsor a servant girl has been arrested with several trunks filled with stolen goods in her possession.

Over $900,000 worth of building improvements were reported in Winnipeg during the first half of this year.

At Belleville on Friday George Page was sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary for ruffianism at Foxborough.

A despatch from Paris says sixty cases and fifteen deaths from cholera have occurred at Sennecey, near Lyons, Belgium.

The contract for the statue of Sir John Macdonald, to be erected in Kingston, has been let to Mr. Wade the English sculptor.

Two young men, Lin Crumb and Claude Roof of Clayton, while returning from Gananoque in a sail boat, were upset and drowned.

The Peary relief expedition, under the leadership of Henry G. Bryant of Philadelphia, left New York on Wednesday for Greenland.

Mr. C. E. Britton of Gananoque was elected High Chief Ranger of the Canadian Order of Foresters at Woodstock on Thursday.

The I.O.G.T. at Paris on Thursday elected J. D. Andrews of Hamilton Grand Chief Templar. Next year's session will be held in Toronto.

At Wells, Minn., on Wednesday two boilers in the Wells Boiler Mills exploded with a terrific report, demolishing buildings, and killing Engineer Geo. Baer.

A double drowning accident occurred in the Red River, near Winnipeg, on Friday. Two young ladies named Lovell and Speers being drowned while bathing.

The senate of Dublin University has decided to confer the degree of LL.D. upon Judge Russell, of England; Bishop Stevens of Ohio, and Lisbon Walker, of Canada.

All the bakers in Lisbon have struck against a municipal regulation requiring master bakers to deposit a sum of money as a guarantee that they will sell bread of proper weight.

The Williams Palace Car Company, capital $2,000,000, will immediately begin constructing cars in St. Joseph, Mo., to compete with the Pullman and Wagner Companies.

The sailing schooner Japsa capsized in a typhoon off the coast of Japan and all hands were lost. News is anticipated from the wreck of the other vessels which were in the same locality.

During a thick fog near Yarmouth, N.S., on Wednesday night, the steamer Yarmouth ran down the lobster smack Monterey of Portland. The captain of the smack, William Condon of Yarmouth, was drowned.

Henry Clava, a negro, charged with attempting to assault a white woman near Magnolia, Ark., was captured near the Louisiana line on Wednesday and taken back to the scene of his crime and lynched.

At the Anglican Church Synod for Toronto, held on Wednesday, a resolution was given of a motion sympathizing with the churchmen in Wales over the approaching general election in that country.

Sir Thomas David Gibson-Carmichael has been suggested by the Highland League to be the next election of the seat now occupied by Mr. Gladstone, the ex Premier having declined to stand for election.

At Rochester, N. Y., on Thursday, Stephen D. Kish, aged 29 years, an employe of the Telephone Company, while repairing a wire on a pole 90 feet high, got hold of a live electric wire, and was shocked so that he died soon after.

At Windsor on Wednesday James Rogers of Detroit, for picking a lady's pocket, was sentenced by Judge Home to King's Prison for one month.

George Healey disappeared from Winnipeg a short time ago, and on Thursday a bottle was found in Red River which contained a letter from him saying he had jumped from the train and was on his way forward quite unnoticed until at the step of the carriage.

As Sante sprang from the carriage step and tried to escape he was seized and turned. But for the prompt interference of the police he would have been torn and trampled to death on the spot. As soon as the police extricated him he said that he had been in the carriage for some time.

When Sante was within a few feet of the carriage he waved a paper as if intending to present a petition and then threw off his guard the person nearest the President. He was seized just as he was about to jump from the step and had but half withdrawn the dagger.

The President had repeated hemorrhages after he was removed to the prefecture. He sank gradually but steadily until 12:45 o'clock when he died.

Mme. Carnot and her two sons left Paris at 11:57 o'clock by special train for Lyons. All the Ministers who did not go to Lyons with the President were in council at the Elysee at midnight.

Leprosy at Niagara Falls. NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 25.—The health physicians, Drs. Oliver and McGarity, of this town, have pronounced Thomas Sheehan, a tramp, who was arrested here Thursday last, to be suffering from leprosy. The authorities have in the house in a pest house on the outskirts of the town pending instructions from his disposition from the Government.

Killed by Lightning. HUNTSVILLE, June 25.—This vicinity was visited yesterday by a very heavy thunderstorm. The lightning struck the town of Claxton, and their child, a boy of 10 years, was killed by a flash of lightning. Three other children were stunned but recovered.

Anniversary of B-aver Dam. NIAGARA FALLS, June 25.—The new historical society, Toronto, celebrated on Saturday the great victory of eighty-one years ago, near Decew Falls, four miles east of Toronto, and four south of St. Catharines. The place chosen was the old stone house occupied by Gen. Fitzhugh, which he advanced to meet and capture the enemy, 600 strong, under Col. Boerster at Beaver Dam. About 400 were present and several societies were represented.

Missing Man's Body Found. TORONTO, June 25.—A body which had been discovered floating in the bay Friday night was sighted Saturday afternoon by two young men while sailing near the Queen's wharf. They notified the police and the body was removed to the morgue, where, despite the fact that it was terribly decomposed, it was recognized as that of Thomas Stouter, who conspired suicide.

Attempt to Kill the Car. ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—The Car has postponed his journey to Borki. The attempt was made by a man named James Fleming, a coachman, who was shot in the chest while the car was in the main line of the Canadian Pacific railway, not far from Glen Robertson, early Thursday morning. The remains of a farmer named Macdonald, whose home is said to be in the village of Alexandria, were found on the track shortly after. One of the train in the early morning had evidently run over the unfortunate man, who, it is surmised, was lying asleep on the track. The remains have been conveyed to Alexandria for interment.

Drowned in Toronto Bay. TORONTO, June 23.—The body of a man named James Fleming, a coachman, who was shot in the chest while the car was in the main line of the Canadian Pacific railway, not far from Glen Robertson, early Thursday morning. The remains of a farmer named Macdonald, whose home is said to be in the village of Alexandria, were found on the track shortly after. One of the train in the early morning had evidently run over the unfortunate man, who, it is surmised, was lying asleep on the track. The remains have been conveyed to Alexandria for interment.

Two Italians Drowned. NEW YORK, June 22.—Tug Howard Carder went to sea yesterday with crew No. 11 loaded with Brooklyn City garbage. When about half way between Rockaway Bay and the Light ship the crew capsized and two Italian stowaways were drowned.

Attempt to Kill the Car. ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—The Car has postponed his journey to Borki. The attempt was made by a man named James Fleming, a coachman, who was shot in the chest while the car was in the main line of the Canadian Pacific railway, not far from Glen Robertson, early Thursday morning. The remains of a farmer named Macdonald, whose home is said to be in the village of Alexandria, were found on the track shortly after. One of the train in the early morning had evidently run over the unfortunate man, who, it is surmised, was lying asleep on the track. The remains have been conveyed to Alexandria for interment.

Drowned in Toronto Bay. TORONTO, June 23.—The body of a man named James Fleming, a coachman, who was shot in the chest while the car was in the main line of the Canadian Pacific railway, not far from Glen Robertson, early Thursday morning. The remains of a farmer named Macdonald, whose home is said to be in the village of Alexandria, were found on the track shortly after. One of the train in the early morning had evidently run over the unfortunate man, who, it is surmised, was lying asleep on the track. The remains have been conveyed to Alexandria for interment.

WILL BE ELECTROCUTED

Mrs. Lizzie Halliday Sentenced to Die in the Electric Chair.

TAKES HER FATE STOICALLY

Lawyer Carpenter, the Condemned Woman's Counsel, Affected to Tears at the Sentence—Electrocution to Take Place the First Week in August.

MONTREAL, N.Y., June 23.—Mrs. Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Becher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stolidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handskerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the case Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning