The Best on the Market

Guaranteed to Cure Lame Back or money refunded!

An excellent remedy for Rheumatism, Lame Back, Etc., Etc.
Read the following testimonial from a man you all know:

Mr. W. A. Singleton, Crosby, Ont.

"Dear Sir, Being laid up with lame back, I thought I would drop you a line to tell you that your St. Regis Lumbago cure will do all you claim for it, as I have only used part of the bottle and I feel no returning symptoms of the disease.
I may say I have been troubled with lame back for the last ten years, and tried several other patent medicines but without results. I can heartily recommend it to any troubled with lame back, and I feel safe in saying that it is the cheapest medicine on the market."
Yours truly,
JAMES McCUE

Peculiar Occurrence

A few days ago a wild duck was noticed flying over the town, but low down with a labored flight as it exhausted, until finally she came to the ground in Mr. S. James' garden, when investigation disclosed the fact that the mother duck had been carrying on her back twelve young ones apparently three or four weeks old. Whether the young ones were slipping from her and she wanted to readjust her load is not explainable, but after an unsuccessful effort to restore them to their former position on her back the old one departed leaving behind eleven of her brood. These Mr. James is caring for until they can take care of themselves.—Almonte Gazette.

Diminished Vitality

Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality. They don't stop to think vitality is the principle of life—that it is that little understood something on which every function of their bodies depends. Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and endurance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitalizer.

Educational Laws

One of the latest laws promulgated by Ontario's Minister of Education requires that public school inspectors must attend a school to be opened in Toronto. As inspectors receive such large salaries they won't mind the little item of expense involved in this.

The duties of all Public School inspectors will be materially increased. At regular intervals they will be called upon to meet the Trustee Boards and fully discuss all educational matters, and at least once in each year they must call a public meeting in each township and invite trustees and ratepayers.

The possibility of securing extensions of teachers' certificates is to be made much more remote. In future a school can avail itself of an extended certificate it must submit to the Department a statement from the Board and inspector showing the efforts made to secure a qualified teacher and the salary offered. It will then be necessary to advertise a second time, and, if able offer a higher salary. No inspector can in future grant an extension of certificate without the approval of the Minister of Education.

Special Offer

The Weekly Mail and Empire and The Athens Reporter will be mailed to any address, postage paid, in Canada or Great Britain until January 1st, 1908 for 75 cents.

Both publications for 7 months, the period mentioned, at regular rates, would cost $1.15. By accepting this offer new subscribers save 40 cents.

Silvering Mirrors

Mirrors are usually silvered by coating the glass with amalgam. For this purpose a large, perfectly flat stone is provided, and upon it is evenly spread a sheet of tin foil without crack or flaw. This is covered to the depth of one-eighth of an inch with clean mercury. The plate of glass, perfectly cleaned from all grease and impurity, is floated on to the mercury by sitting, so as to exclude all air bubbles. It is then pressed down by loading it with weights in order to press out all the mercury which remains fluid. This is received in a gutter around the frame. After about twenty-four hours it is gently raised upon its edge, and in a few weeks it is ready to frame.

His Perseverance.

Henry Arthur Jones, the noted English playwright, was giving the students of Yale an address on the drama. "Your American vernacular is picturesque," he said, "and it should help your playwrights to build strong, racy plays. But neither vernacular nor anything else is of moment if perseverance is lacking. No playwright can succeed who is like a man I know. I said to this man one New Year's day, 'Do you keep a diary, Philip?' 'Yes,' he answered. 'I've kept one for the first two weeks in January for the last seven years.'"

His Good News.

"I have," said a lawyer as he entered his condemned client's cell, "good news at last."
"A reprieve?" eagerly exclaimed the prisoner.

"No, not a reprieve, but your uncle has left you £500, and now you can meet your fate with the satisfying feeling that the noble efforts of your lawyer in your behalf will not go unrewarded."—London Tit-Bits.

Honest.

Boarder (on leaving)—Madam, you are one of the most honest persons I have ever met. Landlady—I am glad to hear you say that, sir. Boarder—Yes; your honesty is conspicuous on the very front of your establishment. Your sign says, "Boarders taken here"—London Telegraph.
