STARCH FACTORIES
 TAKING POTATOES
 A Revival of the Starch Manufacturing Industry in Maine.

Houlton, Me., Oct. 31.—Aroostook county this season is witnessing a revival of the starch manufacturing industry, which though closely connected with potato raising has been for the past few years slowly disappearing. Now have eight factories in different towns throughout the county, are responsible for the change.
 Mr. Pitcher, who is at the head of the new firm, has been in the business in Caribou a number of years past and last year operated a factory here.
 During the past summer the firm has bought and remodelled several factories in Aroostook county, owned and operated by Mr. Pitcher, bringing the total number to eight. Three of these are in the northern part of the county, in Caribou, Westfield, and New Sweden, the others being located at Houlton, Monticello, Smyrna Mills, New Limerick and Littleton. The plants at the last three towns are not yet running but with the exception of Littleton will soon be open. All the factories have been rebuilt and equipped for all winter service with facilities making it possible for each factory to turn out finished starch.
 W. J. Clark, who was formerly with John Watson Company for twelve years, is in charge of rebuilding and operating of the factories in this section.
 At Houlton the factory used during the 1922-23 season was dismantled and the machinery moved to the old John Watson factory on North street, where a large addition was made and new equipment added. The factory is now turning out a finished product which had been impossible at the old plant where the starch pulp was shipped to Caribou for finishing.
 The factories that are being operated have been closed for periods ranging from three to ten years, due to the present improved methods of raising potatoes resulting in fewer culls as well as to the low price of starch. This year, however some fields are turning out a larger percentage of scrub than usual and the price of 40 cents per barrel that is being paid by the factories is bringing them all the culls they need.

MONCTON GIRL
KILLED ON STREET
 Was Masquerading as Boy on Hallow'en When Struck by Auto.

Moncton, Oct. 31.—While masquerading in boys' attire in celebration of Hallow'en, little Gertrude Gaudet, age nine years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe Gaudet, was this evening struck by an automobile and fatally injured, the child dying on the way to the hospital.
 The fatality occurred in front of the child's home at the corner of George and Lewis streets and it was about two hours before the parents became aware that the victim of the sad affair was their own child. The child had been told that it was a little boy that had been killed, and it was not until he went into the morgue near his home that he discovered that his own little girl was the victim of the car which struck the Gaudet child was driven by Weldon Palmer, and eye witnesses say the accident was entirely unavoidable. The little girl, playing with other children, emerged from behind a street bus directly in front of the Palmer auto. An inquest will be held.

RESTIGOUCHE POTATO
CROPS HARVESTED
 Over 100,000 Barrels for Shipment—Total Crop Unusually Large.

Campbellton, Nov. 1.—With the completion of potato-digging operations throughout Restigouche it is now possible to make a fair estimate of the total potato crop of this year in the county. Conditions and results vary so much in different sections, however, that accurate figures are out of the question, but that the yield will be well in excess of 100,000 barrels is the opinion of farmers and merchants along the coast.
 It is further estimated that, totaling the marketable stock of the various potato growers, there will be nearly 100,000 barrels available for shipment.
 While this year's crop is not of unusually large proportions in some districts there are other localities where farmers report a record yield. It is a well known fact that in numerous districts along the Bay, both in the vicinity of New Mills and also near the southern county line some fields have this season produced as high as forty-four to one barrel of seed planted. Less than half that yield is considered quite satisfactory and in some sections ground "in good heart" seldom yields more than from fifteen to eighteen.

FATHER DELORME
ACQUITTED BY JURY
 Leaves Court a Free Man After Undergoing Three Trials for Murder.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—Rev. J. Adolphe Delorme, who for nearly three years has been in the hands of the police and who in that time has undergone three trials on the charge of murder of his half-brother Raoul, on the night of Jan. 6th, 1922, was acquitted late this afternoon after the jury had deliberated for over four hours. At 4.45 p. m. the jury returned to the courtroom and pronounced their verdict of "Not guilty." Father Delorme was immediately freed and left the building with Lucien Gendron, one of the defence counsel, by a door which had not been opened for half a century. In this way the liberated priest escaped the thousands who were waiting outside the court room for a glimpse at him.
 This was the termination of the third trial in one of the most arresting cases in the annals of Montreal. Disagreement of the jury in the first two necessitated the third, which was held in Delorme's acquittal. Additional to these, Father Delorme in June, 1922, was found insane by a special jury of the court of King's Bench and was incarcerated in Beaubien Asylum. Several months later he was discharged from the asylum on certificate of the superintendent that he was sane and his first trial was begun on June 20, 1923. A second trial was necessitated by a disagreement of the jury, and this was begun on Feb. 25, 1924. The result of the second trial was the same as that of the preceding one, and Delorme was called upon to submit to a third which opened Oct. 6th before Mr. Justice Tessier.

Windsor Chairs and Rockers

As far back as 1655 Windsor Chairs were being made. The lumber was cut in the vast forests of Lord Windsor, and it would seem to suggest that the chairs being made in his lordships forests came to be known as Windsor Chairs.

For a great many years this chair was used as a kitchen and bar chair, but now, they are finished so beautifully and are so comfortable, that they are used in every room in the Home.

We are showing a very large line of Windsor chairs and rockers in the different woods and finishes.

Prices range from $6.30 up.
