The Great North Country.

Nimrod was a mighty hunter, but had he hunted in the Temagami region he would have been a mightier one. Nimrod hunted for glory, but Temagamians hunt for game. Those Indians who made the first canoe of birch bark long ago, were our greatest benefactors. The children of these Indians know the canoe, and they know how to use it, and if you go to Temagami this summer they will meddle your canoe in their own superb way. They will be the best guides you ever had. Students who camp in summer along the Temagami lakes are able to do two years' work in one. Finest of fishing and hunting. Good hotel accommodation. Easy of access by the Grand Trunk Railway system. Information and beautiful descriptive publication sent free on application to J. D. McDonald, D. P. A., Toronto.

Wedding, Pleasure, Fishing and Vacation Tours.

Where to go is the question, it being now generally acknowledged that a change is a necessity. If you are sick you go to your physician; why not consult a specialist regarding your trip? Mr. C. E. Morgan, city passenger and ticket agent of the Grand Trunk, will freely give you advice, reliable information, illustrated publications and make you up an itinerary for a two to thirty day vacation trip, suitable to your requirements or pocket book, or address J. D. McDonald, district passenger agent, Toronto, Ont.

The Land Security Company building, southwest corner of Victoria and Adelaide street, Toronto, has changed hands for $185,000.

Toronto building permits from January 1 to June 30 totalled in value $8,829,375, or $3,816,130 more than in the corresponding period of 1908.

IRISH GIRL'S STRANGE TALE.

Forced into a Life of Shame by Pretended Friends.

Now She is Charged in Chicago With the Theft of Lace.

Many Philanthropic Societies Go to Her Assistance.

Chicago, July 3.—Ella Gingles, a lace maker, charged with grand larceny of lace from Agnes Barrett, her former employer, took the witness stand in her own defence in Judge Brentano's court yesterday. Many women prominent in church and philanthropic work crowded the court room to hear her.

The girl was taken step by step from the time of her birth, in North Ireland, 18 years ago, to the day when she was charged with the theft of lace. She declared that the charge against her was manufactured, and when she left the stand her attorneys promised that today she would be allowed to go into "all the details of the alleged attack upon her in the Wellington Hotel, where she was found unconscious in a bath room, and charged with the manufacture of lace."

Men for whom these women were acting would be named, it was said.

The young lace maker said that she went from Ireland to Montreal alone two years ago. After working a few months in Canada she came to Chicago and rented a room in a boarding house. She worked as a chambermaid during the day and at night made lace. She said she was a struggling, uneducated country girl. Then Miss Barrett entered her life and trouble began. Instead of stealing lace from Miss Barrett, the girl said, Miss Barrett and Mrs. Cecilia Kenyon, who died suddenly a few days ago, came to her room at night, and ransacked her belongings, taking her money and her watch and little things she made in her childhood. She told her story in a low voice, her blue eyes filling with tears at times.

Among the organizations that have taken the girl's side of the case are the Women's Temperance Union, the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Social Economics Society, the Socialist Women of the United States, the Irish Choral Society and the Catholic Women's League.

At the meeting of International Lodge, I. O. G. T., held in the C. O. O. F. hall last evening, one candidate was initiated. A. H. Lyle, G. T., presented an exhaustive report on the G. L. session recently held in the town of Douglas. The following programme was then presented: Piano solo, "Home Memories"; Miss Lily Bonafant; song, "If Those Lips Could Only Speak"; Miss May Lerner; recitation, "The Dutchman's Family"; Miss M. Watkins; sonnet, "Rory, Darlin'"; Miss W. Morison; recitation, "Assey at the Bar"; Alfred Bradford; sonnet, "Love's Old Sweet Song"; Mrs. D. B. Smith; recitation, "Ballad of East and West"; D. Campbell.

Next Friday the programme will be in the hands of Miss Bessie Gordon and Miss May Lerner, two clever entertainers.

International will hold its twenty-sixth annual picnic at Hamilton Beach on Saturday, July 10.

The following letter was received by W. J. Robinson from New York this morning: Dear Mr. Robinson,—Word has reached me from New York that the Hamilton Association will hold the McDonald Cup for six months, for winning the largest number of certificates in Bible study examinations for boys. Wholly apart from the fine distinction and honor of a first place, I congratulate you and your boys for the benefit the effort to take the examinations has brought to the boys. This will be an abiding advantage to each boy who tried to win, and is what makes the examination worth while. You will receive the cup as soon as it can be properly engraved. Yours cordially, F. S. Goodman, secretary for Bible study.

ROSES FOR PERFUMES.

Not the Beautiful Flowers of the Garden—Require a Light Soil.

Roses from which perfumed essences are extracted are not precisely the same as the beautiful flowers admired in the garden, and when taking a walk about the month of June in the rose garden at Bagatelle the flower beds so pleasing to the senses of sight and smell bear little resemblance to the plantations specially intended to supply roses for perfumers.

The rose of Provins and others that are cultivated for the extraction of perfumes are much less pretty and charming. They are cultivated in several regions of France, in Algeria, in the Orient, in some parts of Asia Minor, but principally in Bulgaria.

Such roses require a light soil and a certain amount of humidity. The flowers should be gathered in the morning before the heat of the sun. They should be buds or scarcely opened flowers. When the petals are too widely opened the aroma diminishes. It diminishes still more if the flowers begin to get heated through being left too long in sacks.

As the season only lasts from five to six weeks, it may be imagined what minute care the harvest requires, together with the need of a numerous trained personnel. The flowers are distilled the same day as they are gathered.

Bulgaria is one of the principal markets for essence of roses. It produces an annual average of from 3,500 to 4,000 kilogrammes of essence, valued at about 3,000,000 francs. Of these 4,000 kilogrammes, America takes 1,600 and France 1,500.

The price of a kilogramme of essence varies considerably according to the abundance of the flowers and the more or less favorable circumstances under which they are gathered. It varies from 500 francs to 700 francs, sometimes more. Some 3,500 kilogrammes of flowers are required for a kilogramme of essence. A good plantation carefully cultivated will yield 1,000 kilogrammes to the hectare.

In France and Algeria the distillation is carried out with highly efficient apparatus. At Grasse and Boufarick may be seen some distillation works that are models not only as regards their distilling apparatus, but also for their installation of every kind. The plant is supervised and tests carried out by capable chemists who make it produce as much as can reasonably be anticipated.

But in Bulgaria modern installations are an exception, and in general the distillation processes are quite rudimentary—La Vulgarisation Scientifique.

Little Tragedy of Love.

She had told him that her father utterly disapproved of him and had issued pre-emptory orders that he should not come to the house. She trembled as she told him and there were tears in her soft blue eyes, for she feared that even then her papa might be within hearing, possibly reach, or her loved one.

But he was brave even in the castle if the enemy.

He was no fair weather sweetheart and the storm and stress beating upon the course of their true love made him stancher in his devotion to the one girl in the world for him. He reached out his strong young arms to her and took her to his manly bosom.

"What boots it, dearest?" he whispered to her, soft and low, and with all the confidence of youth. "What—"

"I do," thundered papa, appearing upon the scene, rear entrance, and there was a dull, sickening thud, which indicated that the old man was there with the shoe leather.—New York Herald.

WAS DOUBLY HONORED.

Two Presentations to Rev. Father Walsh Last Night.

Last evening at the C. M. B. A. Hall quite a number of the members of St. Patrick's parish gathered to say good-bye to the Rev. Father Walsh, who has been transferred to the parish of Acton.

Mr. J. M. Brown, chairman, in calling the meeting to order, expressed the regret all felt in losing Father Walsh. He then called upon Mr. J. P. Dougherty, secretary, to read the address of the reverend father, after which Mr. W. P. Harris, treasurer of the committee, presented Father Walsh with a well-earned purse.

Short addresses were made by the following gentlemen: McKeon, Goodrow, Forster, Mooney and Carroll. The following is a copy of the address:

To the Rev. Edward R. Walsh, Hamilton:

Rev. and Dear Father,—We, the members of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, of the city of Hamilton, have learned with a feeling of gratitude that His Lordship the Right Rev. T. J. Dowling, D. D., Bishop of Hamilton, has been pleased to promote you to the important charge of administrator of the parish of Acton. We take this opportunity to congratulate you upon receiving this important elevation, while we feel pleased to know that you are being appointed to a larger field of action, yet we deeply regret that we are to lose you.

You came amongst us some four years ago, and during your stay with us, by your untiring zeal and faithfulness to duty and your kindness in manner, your parishioners have all become devoted to you, yet we are pleased to bow to the authority of the Church, knowing well these promotions are only made when deserved. We hope that in your new field of labor you may have as true and devoted a following as you are about to leave. We take this opportunity of presenting you with this small token of our appreciation of your many acts of kindness, and we can assure you we shall always be glad to hear of your future promotions and success and will always be pleased to have an occasional visit from you. In the meantime we extend to you a hearty good-bye, coupled with the prayers of each and every one.

Signed, on behalf of the parishioners of St. Patrick's Church, J. M. Brown, chairman; J. P. Dougherty, secretary; W. P. Harris, treasurer.

A second presentation to Rev. Father Walsh was made later in the evening by the St. Patrick's Athletic Club. He is chaplain and a popular spiritual adviser and the members invited him to the rooms to show their appreciation of his interest in them. On behalf of the club, Vice-President William Conley presented him with a purse of gold. After a suitable reply short addresses were made by Messrs. S. Robins, J. O'Connell, James Lynch and others.

Before adjourning on Friday the British House of Commons appointed a committee of both Houses to inquire into the conscription of the drama. This step has been caused by the prohibition of several of George Bernard Shaw's plays.

Fred Cook, arrested at Chatham, pleaded guilty to the theft of jewelry from Thos. Slater. He will be sentenced on Monday. The jewelry has been recovered.

Diogenes spent all his life looking for an honest man, while the modern constable spends his looking for dishonest ones.
