

THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1892

All matter for publication in the HERALD should be in this office by noon on Tuesday.

THE FORTY HOURS DEVOTION.

What a beautiful, soul-elevating and awe inspiring devotion is this which expounds our dear Lord to the public adoration of the faithful in the Sacrament of His Love.

SHORTLY AFTER EIGHT O'CLOCK

The celebration of the Forty Hours Devotion was commenced by His Lordship Bishop McDonald, assisted by Rev. Dr. Doyle, as high priest, Rev. S. Boudreau, and other clergy.

THE QUEBEC ELECTIONS.

The Provincial general elections were held in Quebec yesterday, and the wires bring us the gratifying intelligence that Mercier and his fellows were routed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

We were told hand and foot to the United States by a commercial treaty such as the Grits propose, we would have a pleasant time delimiting the Alaska frontier.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Montreal Gazette thinks that the Grit papers that are now demanding the return of their own files of 1857 and thereabouts to see what they had said about Mr. Baird taking the seat for Queen's N. B.

TERMINATION OF A CELEBRATED CASE.

On the 1st inst. the Supreme Court of the United States gave its decision in the case of the schooner "W. F. Seward."

A BIG STRIKE.

LONDON, March 8.—As the time approaches for the inauguration of the strike of the coal miners, who March 12th will quit work for two weeks with the object of compelling such an advance in the price of coal as will prevent the mine owners from reducing wages, the effects on the government can be more readily gauged.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

In the Commons, on Monday last, the address in reply to the Speech of the Queen was read by Mr. Balfour.

SPORTING NOTES.

A return hockey match East vs. West was played in Hillsborough Park Friday night.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

On Friday last Mr. Alex. Warrell of Parramore, N. S., was the victim of a painful accident, which came near being of a very serious nature.
