Provincial Exhibition.

From the view-points of attendance, attractions and delightful weather, no exhibition ever held in this Province equalled the Provincial Exhibition, 1912, held at Charlottetown last week. The exhibits, too, were for the most part excellent; but we doubt that in some classes they equalled those of some past years. This, we think, will apply to the exhibits both in the building and to the stock. On the whole, the exhibition was a great success, and all who attended must have been afforded much enjoyment. The paid entries on the three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, numbered 13,810, almost fourteen thousand. On Tuesday there were only 145; on Wednesday the attendance reached 7,245, and on Thursday 6,430. The Grand Stand was taxed to its capacity, and many, who desired, could not get seats there. About 3,000 occupied the Grand Stand on each of the two days, Wednesday and Thursday.

Apart from the exhibits in the buildings and the show of live stock, visitors were attracted by the horse-trotting and vaudeville performances, as in past years. But the incomparable attraction was the aeroplane. This was something new for this Province, and doubtless brought thousands to the exhibition who might not otherwise have come, and all felt they were amply rewarded by witnessing the successful performances of this most extraordinary contrivance. The machine operated was a bi-plane under the direction of Captain Baldwin, while a young man named Peoli made the ascensions. He is but 18 years of age; but displayed most marvellous nerve, skill and coolness in the manipulation of the flying machine. He seemed to have perfect control of the bi-plane and navigated the atmosphere with ease and precision. The weather conditions were excellent, and he made four flights into ethereal regions, two on Wednesday and two on Thursday. The aviator reached his highest flights on Thursday afternoon. In the first he went up 2,500 feet; but in his second he reached a height of 5,000 feet. So accurately did he regulate the movements of the machine that, in each case, he landed from his flight within a few feet of his starting point. Not the slightest accident happened any of the air trips, and the youthful aviator on each return to the ground was received with enthusiastic cheers. This was an incomparable attraction, and the citizens who inaugurated and financed the movement deserve great praise.

The rope walking and other vaudeville performances were wonderful exhibitions of acrobatic skill and were clean and unobjectionable. The trotting was not as fast as we sometimes have had here. There was no free for all race, and that probably accounts for the absence of some speedier horses than appeared on the track. In the 2.24 and 2.57 pace Dominion D. won, with Commodore Epaulette 2nd, King Brazilian third. Best time 2.24. Aquiri won the 3 minute trot, in 2.25. Happy George second and Winnie M. third. The two year-old trot and pace in half mile heats was won by Haley D., Dusty Miller second and Dot S. third; time 1.25. In the 2.17 trot and pace, Hilda S. won; Devilish Dorothy second and Ginger third; time 2.20. Cherry Ripe won the 2.35 trot, 2.38 pace in 2.21, with Iona Girl second and Chahallis Jr. third. The three year old trot and pace was won by Baron Cecil, Baron Brit second and Rexlight third. Best time 2.28.

The Duty On Wheat.

That an import duty does not increase the price of an article for export, is a lesson which the Western grain growers, who still see visions of higher prices in the "larger markets" of the United States, might well lay to heart. The Chicago Journal in a recent issue contained the following leading editorial:

OUR "PAUPER" FARMERS.

Here is an instance of how the tariff helps the farmer:

On August 27, the wheat known as No. 1 Northern sold in Winnipeg, Canada, for $1.04 per bushel.

On the same day, the same grade of wheat, called here No. 1 Hard, sold in Minneapolis for $1.00.

On August 27, No. 2 Northern wheat sold in Winnipeg for $1.02 per bushel.

On the same day, the same wheat sold in Minneapolis for 92 cents per bushel.

No. 3 Northern sold in Winnipeg that day for 98 cents.

The same wheat, differently named, sold in Minneapolis on the same day for 88 cents.

Oats that sold in Winnipeg for 42 cents, sold in Minneapolis the same day for 30 cents. A similar difference prevailed in the price of barley.

In a word, wheat sells in the American market from 4 cents to 10 cents cheaper than in the Canadian market. Yet there is a duty of 25 cents per bushel on wheat which tries to get into America from Canada.

Why doesn't the American farmer get the advantage of that duty?

Because we export wheat, instead of importing it. An import duty does not and can not help the price of an article of export—unless the producers of that exported article are in a trust that is strong enough to fix prices.

The farmers have never formed a trust.

It is now in order for some jingo paper over the border to ask for a high tariff on wheat to protect the free and many Canadians from the "pauper product" of American farms!

The September crop report, issued at Washington, estimates a possible yield of 800,000,000 bushels of wheat, 1,300,000,000 bushels of oats, 3,000,000,000 bushels of corn and 72,000,000 tons of hay. The United States market is over supplied. The farmers have produced enormously greater quantities of grain this year and the exports will be correspondingly increased. According to statisticians of the Department of Agriculture, 150,000,000 bushels of wheat, representing that amount above the quantity required for home necessities, will be exported this year.

The Western grain grower has brought home to him to day in a very striking manner the startling, and somewhat unwelcome, fact that not only are the United States capable of supplying their own demand for grain, but that they also have a very considerable quantity for export, which surplus would, on the removal of the tariff, immediately find its way into Canada.—St. John Standard.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Morrison.

Solemn Pontifical Mass was celebrated at St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Sunday last by Rt. Rev. Dr. Morrison, bishop of Antigonish. This was the first time he Pontificated since his consecration, and it was most fitting that the solemn service should be held in St. Dunstan's Cathedral, which may be said to stand as his enduring monument. He was assisted in the Solemn Celebration of the Mass by Rev. Bernard McKinnon as arch-priest; Rev. Fathers Murphy and Poirier as deacons of honor; Revs. Joseph Gallant and Marlos McDonald as deacon and sub-deacon of office, and Rev. Dr. McLellan as master of ceremonies. Before Mass the Bishop and clergy, preceded by acolytes, emerged from the Sacristy and moved in procession down the church, the Bishop in Cope and Mitre distributing blessings as he proceeded. Returning to the Sanctuary, his Lordship vested in full pontificals, with Mitre and Crosier, advanced to the High Altar and commenced the celebration of Mass. He presented a splendid, stately appearance, and one would be inclined to say he was every inch a Bishop. The sermon was preached by Rev. Bernard McKinnon, of the diocese of San Francisco, who had been spending a brief vacation in his native Province. His text was the Epistle of the Sunday, 1st Peter, to Cap. 1:43, and his discourse was admirable from every point of view. The Rev. preacher had a perfect mastery of his subject; his language was eloquent, deliberate and clean cut. It was a splendid sermon and made a deep impression on the large congregation.

In the afternoon his Lordship again came to the Sanctuary to officiate; this time to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation. Before Confirmation he preached to those about to be confirmed, explaining to them the nature and effects of the Sacrament they were about to receive. The solemn ceremony was then commenced, his Lordship being assisted by the same priests as at Mass. Over 600 children, boys and girls, were confirmed. His Worship Mayor Lyons and Mrs. Lyons were the sponsors. The Confirmation service occupied over two hours, and concluded with Solemn Pontifical Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

On Friday, September 20th, his Lordship presided, in his own Cathedral of Antigonish, at the obsequies of the late Archbishop McDonald and preached the funeral sermon. His Grace the Archbishop of Halifax was celebrant of the Pontifical Mass.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 25th, the Knights of Columbus of the Charlottetown Council, of which he is a member, entertained his Lordship and presented him with an address and a valuable gift.

On Sunday evening his Lordship was entertained by members of Branch 216, C. M. B. A., of which he had formerly been Spiritual adviser, and presented with an address and an appropriate gift. His Lordship in felicitous terms heartily thanked the members for their kindness and consideration.

As a general thing, when a man and his wife fall out over money, it is a sign that he has it and she wants it, or she has it and he wants it, or neither has it and both want it.—Dallas News.

In Quebec in the last Federal elections the Conservatives polled 159,262 votes and got 26 seats. The Liberals polled 164,274 votes and got 39 seats. Sir Wilfrid Laurier got a majority of 13 seats in Quebec on a popular majority of only 5,012 votes, which shows the political advantage of a redistribution.—Kincardine Review.

Failing the opportunity, through Reciprocity, to grind Canadian wheat in the United States, a Minneapolis company is establishing a 1,500-barrel-a-day mill in Moose Jaw. Others are sure to follow its example. One more case of Mahomet going to the mountain. The moral is as plain as a pikestaff.—Hamilton Spectator.

A machine has been invented by which wheat can be garnered, threshed and sacked without being cut. It is operated by gasoline and is said to be a great labor-saver. It is being tried this year for the first time, and the result will be watched with great interest.—Victoria Colonist.

Neuromobilis is the name given by Dr. John P. Walker of Walla Walla, to what he regards as the disease which impels people in automobiles to drive furiously. He says also it will make nervous wrecks of its automobile riding victims. This might be borne if it did not also operate so often to make physical wrecks of the other class of its victims, the walking people on the streets.—Montreal Gazette.

Hymeneal.

Mr. John A. McAnley, formerly of Head St. Peter's Bay now of Boston, was married on Sept. 17th to Miss Mary J. Malone of Free-town in this Province. The following account of the ceremony is from the Boston Post.

John A. McAnley, the butler for Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, of Lancaster was married to Miss Mary Malone, of 46 Quincy St. Roxbury, by the Rev. Father James A. Supple, of St. Cecilia's Church, Back Bay, last evening at 7 o'clock, and was the recipient of valuable presents from the daughters of Mrs. Thayer.

Count and Countess Carl Paul Oscar Moltke presented the couple with a silver dinner set. Count Moltke is the Danish Ambassador at Washington, and his wife was Cornelia Van Rensselaer Thayer before her marriage to the Count.

From Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Patten, of Wellesley, the couple received a fine mahogany chair and from Mrs. Fredrick Winthrop of Boston, a leather couch. Both Mrs. Patten and Winthrop, are daughters of Mrs. Thayer. Mrs. Thayer herself gave to the couple as a wedding present a beautiful silver tea set.

Mr. McAnley has been in the employ of the Thayer family for 12 years, and the gifts he has received from the family testify the esteem in which he is held. Mr. Thayer was a Boston banker.

After the marriage a reception was held at the home of the bride which was attended only by relatives of the couple. The couple left for a two week's honeymoon at Montreal. On their return they will reside at a home adjoining the Thayer estate at Lancaster, which is provided for them by Mrs. Thayer. (The Herald extends warmest congratulations.)

Heavy Loss From Storm.

Tokio Japan, Sept. 26.—Damage exceeding $20,000,000 was caused by the typhoon which swept Japan from end to end on Sunday, while the loss of human life was very heavy, and tens of thousands are homeless.

The storm was the worst that has occurred here for over a half a century, according to reports which have just reached the capital which has practically been cut off from the rest of the country for days.

Crops suffered severely every where, but the greater damage was done in the neighborhood of the cities of Nagoya, Nara and Osaka, on the island of Hondu and in Gifu.

At Nagoya every house was damaged and a great tidal wave demolished the harbor and sank three steamers, while several others went ashore.

At Gifu 262 people were killed and 283 injured. The Kioko Maru foundered off Eoshu and the whole of her crew and passengers were lost. At Osaka, 20,000 houses were ruined and all the breakwaters and the harbor piers were washed away.

At Nara the thousand year old Kasuga Shrine collapsed into a heap of ruins.

Following Right Course.

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—I am of the opinion that the Hudson Bay Railway undertaking is of so risky a nature and its ultimate success is so problematical, that it should be operated by the Dominion government until its real value has been demonstrated," said Sir Donald Mann here today.

"I know," he added, "when the Canadian Northern started we had the choice of going north to the bay or east and west. We chose to go east and west and I think the result has justified our judgment. But you can never tell and the result is uncertain. Undoubtedly there will be a large fish trade from the north and valuable mineral deposits may be found along the right of way as happened in the case of the Ontario government road, making the line of incalculable worth. Add to this that there is bound to be considerable through traffic, freight and passenger, and the element of risk is materially reduced. But I think that the right course is being pursued."

Sir Donald belittled the suggestion that so long a line could be electrified profitably when the traffic would be so scanty.
