GODERICH.

GODERICH. Goderich is situated on the east shore of Lake Huron, and has a continental reputation as a summer resort. The town is, beyond question, the handsom-est and cleanest in Canada. It is laid out on the octagon plan, and the princi-pal streets radiate from the Court House "Source" to give the princicome into the family he will certainly be pal streets radiate from the Court House "Square" to eight points of the compass. At one time last year over 500 visitors were summering here. Perhaps the principal point of attraction to visitors this year will be the "Point Farm" of Mr. J. J. Wright, which is situated, in a direct line, four miles from Goderich. a direct line, four miles from Goderich. The summer hotel on the "Farm" is a commodious three-story structure, cap-able of accommodating 300 visitors. The grounds are laid out in pleasant drives, serpentine walks ramify the groves, and the beach is the best on Lake Huron. Beside the hotel proper, there are a number of neat cottages on the grounds, where visitors in search of quiet can, if where visitors in search of quiet can, if necessary, secure the utmost privacy. Direct communication with the town is obtainable at all times, and the mail privileges are of the best. A telegraph office, in connection with the Montreal line, is also a feature of importance to visitors at the "Point Farm." Since last season Goderich has met with a loss in the destruction of a pratium of the and profits; so will he become manly, Considering that so many women of in the destruction of a portion of the well-known "Park House," which was destroyed by fire last fall. This hotel was a great attraction to summer so-journers, and the loss occasioned by the fire will be greatly felt. The "Park House" will, however, be carried on this year by Capt. Gregor McGregor, and although the accommodation will and although the accommodation will not be so great as last year, yet every effort will be made to secure the comfort and ease of outsiders visiting the town. The regular hotels are also being spe-cially fitted for the summer business. The "British Exchange," under tho well-known proprietor, Capt. Cox, has re-cently been thoroughly prepared. "The Albion," which was also partly destroy-ed by fire last winter, has had an addi-tional story placed upon it, and is much enlarged. It will re-open about the 1st of July, under the management of Mr.

The scenery in the vicinity of Gode-rich is of the finest in Canada, and no matter which way the eye turns a pleas-ing view can be had. Here the Maitland meets Lake Huron, and the mouth of the river helps to form Goderich har-bor. On the north bank of the Maitland is situated the domain of Mr. H. Y. Attrill, the well-known breeder of thor-oughbred cattle, which is visited by
