City Council.

Mayor Ellis and full Board were present at last evening's meeting. Councillor Mullaly wanted to know why Pittman and Shaw appeared to be getting all the odd jobs of plumbing from the Council. He was told that the amounts were small and not worth discussion.

The Premier wrote saying that he and his colleagues would attend to the putting of lights in the Western suburbs. Harvey & Co. sent in a letter saying that the tourists who had gone back to New York from Newfoundland on their steamers had complained to the Red Cross Agents about the high charges of the city cabmen.

Residents of Gear Street asked for sewer connection. Engineer will see to it. P. Summers who asked leave to cut hay on a field taken over from him by the Council near Windsor Lake. He will be asked to make an offer for the hay.

M. Mackey asked to be appointed to the Cash vacancy on Sanitary staff. Councillor Mullaly said that he had promised to support the application of Mr. Martin for the job. The committee will arrange about it.

J. A. Adrain denied that damage to concrete on Water Street was caused by his men. After some explanation from the Engineer the Mayor ordered that repairs be made.

C. E. Godd wrote about plans. He wants to get information for nothing. The Council believed that he should pay for it. Mrs. Hynes who kept the Council Rooms for twenty-three years felt that the City Fathers want to shake her off. They said they had no intention but did not recognize that any agreement had ever been made with her.

S. Osmond was the only one who sent in a tender to build a boat at Rogerson's Cove. He will do it for $100. After a long discussion and comparing the cost of similar work at Job's Cove the Council decided to offer him $100. Councillor Ryan con-

STRONGER THAN MEAT

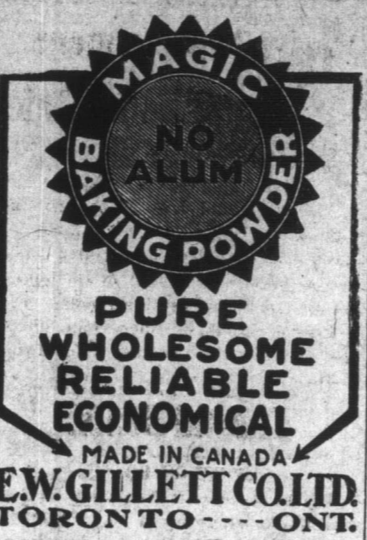

A Judge's Opinion of Grape-Nuts. A gentleman who has acquired a judicial turn of mind from experience on the bench out in the Sanflower State writes a carefully considered opinion as to the value of Grape-Nuts as food. He says: "For the past five years Grape-Nuts has been a prominent feature in our bill of fare."

"The crisp food with the delicious nutty flavour has become an indispensable necessity in my family's everyday life. It has proved to be most healthful and beneficial, and has enabled us to practically abolish pastry and pies from our table, for the children prefer Grape-Nuts and do not crave rich and unwholesome food."

"Grape-Nuts keeps us all in perfect physical condition—as a preventive of disease it is beyond value. I have been particularly impressed by the beneficial effects of Grape-Nuts when used by ladies who are troubled with face blemishes, skin eruptions, etc. It clears up the complexion wonderfully."

"As to its nutritive qualities, my experience is that one small dish of Grape-Nuts is superior to a pound of meat for breakfast, which is an important consideration for anyone. It satisfies the appetite and strengthens the power of resisting fatigue, while its use involves none of the disagreeable consequences that sometimes follow a meat breakfast." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ontario.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville" in pks. "There's a reason." Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

F. Bradshaw may change the roof of house, Military Road. N. Worsley can repair roof of shop. Mrs. Duffy will repair house; and T. Templeton may put concrete wall under building at James Street.

The Engineer will see about Mrs. Collins' kitchen, Holloway Street; and Smith's residence, Pennywell Rd. Of the three possible routes suggested to bring the new water pipe into the city that suggested by Engineer Ryan will be adopted.

The sewers at Rocky Lane and near Street are finished. J. Rooney reported that many of the houses on Pennywell Road were to have sewerage connection and asked that the people be given 15 months to prepare. Councillor Mullaly told of one poor woman there who said she could not be able to pay the interest on a loan. The Mayor said that they would have to carry out the law.

The new fish markets at Cliff's Cove and Beck's Cove will be opened next Monday. Mayor Ellis said that a few sample inventors to abate the nuisance of smoke from factory chimneys would arrive here in a few days. Messrs. J. Vey and A. Tooton sent a sample of photos taken of the opening of the City Hall. Three of each will be ordered.

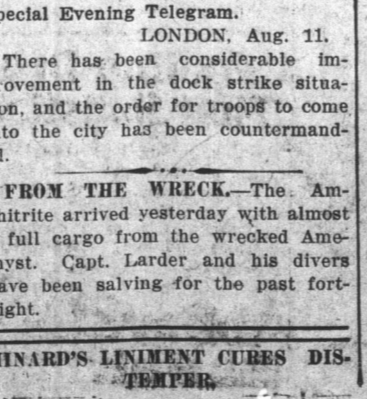

Mrs. Walsh, Portugal Cove Road will be informed that the Council will give her $18 a ton for hay. Councillor Mullaly took occasion to make strong objection to the action of the Council in increasing the salaries of two officials at a former meeting. They were not deserving of more money.

Death of Michael Dyer. By the death of Michael, son of Patrick and Ellen Dyer, which took place on the 8th inst., the settlement of Logy Bay lost one of its promising young fishermen, who up to a few months ago was apparently robust and strong. He contracted a fever cold which quickly turned to consumption of the lungs. All that medical aid could do, was done for him by Dr. Macpherson and others but it was of no avail, and on Tuesday night, surrounded by his disaffected parents and relatives, having received the last Sacraments of Holy Church from Rev. Dr. Greene, he breathed his last, conscious and full; resigned to the will of God. His funeral took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended.

Those Harbor Main Jobs.

Editor Evening Telegram: Dear Sir.—Kindly permit me space in your esteemed journal to add a few words in connection with the way the Government are still handling the Post Office and Customs jobs. As has been explained by other writers, both these jobs were resigned about six weeks ago, and I understand application was made by other residents for the positions at the same rate of salary; and it was simply a matter for the departments to make their appointments. This has not been done, as it seems that the parties who held these jobs, although resigning in the usual way, have still some unknown but apparently exclusive right to both positions; a matter which we suppose Mr. Woodford will explain satisfactorily to us before 1912.

We have two men here from St. John's under full pay, with practically nothing to do but enjoy the sea breeze and keep these positions open until the Executive Council can be influenced to make a grant of $400.00 for the former official, so that his valuable official services may not be lost to the country. We exclaim, may God help the Civil Service! This, if ever done, will represent the sum of $200 deliberately thrown out for political expediency, which would give four poor worn-out and infirm old fishermen $50 per year, which would be a blessing to those people and a credit to the Government.

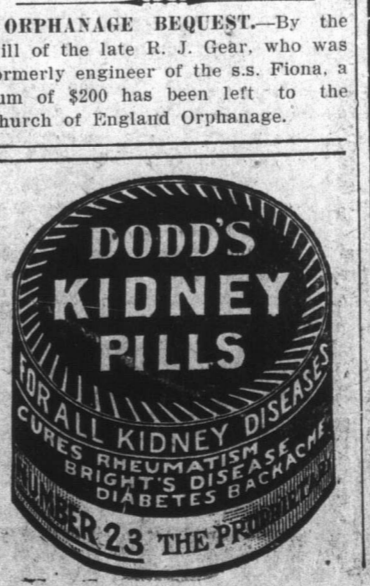

As these appointments are something in which the people are interested, why not let the people be the ruling power, and let the matter be decided by a petition, and then the most popular and best qualified person will be supported and will have the satisfaction of securing the position as Mr. Woodford secured his by the voice and vote of the people. Surely the members of this district are not so blind but they see the mistake of offending the majority of a settlement for the sake of giving up to one or two when it can be of material advantage to themselves or the public.

Trusting that the Government may see the wisdom of ending this dickering, and that we may not be compelled to return to this subject again. We are, yours truly, DISGUSTED P. P. SUPPORTERS Celligrews, August 11th, 1911.

Uncle Walt THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

I wonder why the chiggers infest this lovely land, and climb our shapeless figures, and bite to beat the band? In sunny hours of childhood we never heard their name; now, in the tangled wildwood, WONDERSMENT they play their dizzy game. They cause us cruel rigors and agony intense; so what's the use of chiggers, and where's there any sense? I wonder why the rooster must always start to yell just when the human booster is sleeping fairly well? Just when we're nicely dreaming, and night is nearly through, the rooster starts screaming his cockadoodledoo! And so we get up scowling and curs that noisy cock; why can't he do his howling at half past 10 o'clock (10:20 a.m.)? I wonder why the weather can never hit the spot? It's too cold, altogether, or else too beastly hot. When we'd go aeroplaning, or camping in the woods, it's sure to be a-raining some wet and sloppy goods. And if we'd have some water to help the garden sash, the sun starts in to slaughter the buds and fruit and grass. There's nothing really suits me, and so I'll yelp my fill, until some fellow boots me and tells me to be still.

For a 'World Alphabet' Wireless Signal to Circle Globe.

A Bill Now Pending Before United States Congress. Washington, Aug. 7.—A congress of nations to adopt a "World Alphabet" is called for in a bill introduced by Representative Jackson of Kansas. Mr. Jackson wants the President to invite all nations to send delegates to Washington 2, 1912, to consider the possibilities and feasibility of recording all elementary sounds of the human voice which may be used in human speech or expression of ideas and of formulating a graphic sound notation of alphabet for all such sounds, which alphabet shall be adapted to the use of every language, dialect and form of human vocal expression and shall be suitable for writing, printing, engraving and other form of presentation.

In preparing this "universal scientific alphabet," Representative Jackson particularly asks that the views of all "linguists, phoneticians, philologists, lexicographers, orthoepists, orthographers, translators, transliterators, teachers of languages, artists, oculists, physicians, neurologists, stenographers, printers, typists, linotypists, tenographers, phonographers and type foundries," be taken into consideration.
