CHESLEY WOODS

10c. 5c. THE NICKEL.

Friday and Saturday.

The Great Western Photo-Play, entitled,

THE SHERIFF'S CHUM.

Exemplifying a friend's affection, a comrade's trust, a desperado's pledge and a coward's trick. Told out on the Western plains. This subject is by far one of the most thrilling and most sensational pictures of its kind.

LOVE, Or the Stock Exchange.

A bright comedy drama of the New York financial world. The story is vivid and impelling, but is relieved by a dainty vein of clean American humor. It will prove a great success with Nickel-goers.

A Run-Away Motor Car.

This is a most unique comedy, based on familiar lines, but most daring in its conception. It is a really clever picture.

Max Goes Ski-ing.

Our esteemed friend succumbs to the fascinating Norwegian pastime, and his efforts to master the sport are highly amusing.

The Nickel Orchestra

Will play the latest musical success, including,

"The Pink Lady Waltz."

A flowing buoyant melody.
