Uncle Walt THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

My friend Whang Baxter's out of work. He used to be a hardware clerk and did his duty passing well, but rheumatism on him fell and bunged him up to such extent that all his coin' to doctors went. And A CAN. now he's on his feet once more, and wants a job in some one's DIDATE store. Your support for old Whang I court; he's far more worthy your support than chronic patriots who chase across the poor old planet's face and beg that you will save their goat when comes the day on which men vote. Let all the chronics go and bang; come out with me and whoop for Whang. He needs a job, the statesmen come out with me and whoop for Whang. It makes no odds to you doff't, he'll earn his pay, the statesmen won't. It makes no odds to you doff't, and me who our next president may be; we'll have to rustle just the same, whae'er the outcome of the game. But old Whang Baxter, out and down, is living here in our town; he needs a job like everything, so let us make the welkin ring; and give a big torch-light parade, and hold a caucus for his aid; and try to influence the press to help old Whang's distress.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"My son, if you would be wise, open first your eyes, next your ears, and last of all your mouth, that your words may be words of wisdom and give no advantage to your adversary." Old Indian Proverb.

The value of knowing when to keep one's mouth closed is a very old story, but a letter friend has presented it to me in a new aspect, which is more than worth passing on.

It seems that the above Indian proverb was brought into English three quarters of a century ago by a man named George Catlin. This man, being on the verge of consumption, went and lived outdoors among the Indians. From this wild life he brought back his health and this interesting observation--that the Indians make a very special point always to keep their mouths shut, except when eating or speaking. And as anyone who knows anything about Indians will testify, that latter process wouldn't keep their mouths open very long.

Not only did he notice that the adult Indians observe this rule, but also that all the squaws were most careful to see that the babies' mouths were closed when they were sleeping. He found that the Indians were almost entirely immune from decayed teeth--think of it, with no dentists, nor tooth brushes, nor dental floss, nor tooth powder, to save them, and from throat troubles, and he was so much impressed that he adopted the practice of keeping his mouth closed as much as possible. To that and to the fresh air, he ascribed his recovery.

Mr. Catlin must have been the original grandfather of health faddists for he was so thoroughly converted, that he wrote a pamphlet to show that all human ills could be avoided if one would always breathe through the nostrils. This pamphlet was entitled "Shut Your Mouth," and closed thus, "If I were to endeavor to bequeath to posterity, the most important motto which human nature can convey, it should be in three words, "Shut your mouth."

It is interesting to observe how closely the old Indian wisdom tallies with modern medical teachings. Just the other day, in a progressive dental magazine, I read a long article, telling how many of the defective and delinquent children were found to be protruding teeth, which caused this continual mouth breathing. And to think that the Indians knew all this a century ago.

The letter-friend who sends me all this information, says that he has not only formed the habit of keeping his mouth carefully closed in the daytime, but sleeps with a band tied under his chin and over his head, to make sure that his mouth shall not drop open when he is asleep.

We all know that mouth breathing is harmful, but I think it will not hurt any of us to be reminded anew of the many advantages of keeping our mouths shut. And I especially recommend to mothers the wisdom of the Indian women who, a century before the day of health fads, were forming this health habit for their little papooses.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in this liberty and the pursuit of happiness than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The celebrated dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will not be a fighter.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscles.

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little ones profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing and 5¢ for one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 5¢ stamps for the cloth bound. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Household Notes.

If you are troubled with rats, try the following: Put on a board or shingle a little mound of dry lye, about a tablespoonful. Mix enough molasses with the lye to moisten it; then pour just a little more over the top. Rats love molasses and will eat the lye unknowingly.

The very best remedy for a bruise is butter. Whenever one of the children has a fall or knock of any kind, apply butter. This relieves the pain, prevents swelling and keeps the hurt place from turning black and blue. It is a very simple salve and one that is always in the house.

The process of gassing may be rendered practically dustless if the dust cloths are occasionally washed in hot suds, dipped in kerosene and then dried thoroughly in the open air. The dustier or dirtier they are treated in this manner greatly improves the appearance of hardwood floors.

A shirtwaist box in a bathroom will fill a want that is often felt. Very often the room is too small for both a chair and a hamper for soiled clothes. A shirtwaist or utility box will answer both purposes and look better. If not needed for soiled clothes it will do for clean towels.

The beautiful gold lace and trimmings so much worn at present tarnish very quickly. They can be cleaned by the use of powdered rock ammonia. Reduce the rock ammonia to a powder and apply with a soft brush or flannel cloth. If badly tarnished allow trimming to be wrapped in the powder for several days.

Here is a splendid way to wash dirt or kerosene from woodwork without marling the walls: Take a flat piece of tin about twelve inches long and six inches wide and bend up an inch on the long side to hold it by. Place the opposite side to the edge of the woodwork, slipping the tin along as you wash or scrub it.

To open a stubborn fruit jar, invert the top of the jar in hot water (boiling hot, but not boiling), taking care that the water is not deep enough to touch the glass. The principle is to expand the metal top. Then open as usual. A minute or two is sufficient, should it remain in too long the glass would also be expanded.

Clothes props kept in one place, where they can always be found in good condition on washing days, is easily accomplished by following this plan: Fasten two loops of stout cord or leather against the wall of the house somewhere near the laundry, one placed high, the other low. Through these loops slip the poles as soon as they are no longer needed.

Delicate marabou neckpieces and trimmings may be readily cleaned at home. Shake the marabou very carefully in warm soapsuds of some good white soap. Continue until water is soiled and use clean suds until marabou looks clean. Rinse well. Hang in the sun, if possible, or where the air will strike it; and shake gently, now and then, until dry. Dry as quickly as possible.

Insure Against Serious Colds

Of the many forms of insurance probably that which protects you against the serious results of colds is the most valuable at this time of year when so many are becoming the victims of la grippe and pneumonia.

By the prompt use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine you can keep the cough loose, prevent further development of the cold and cure it up in two or three days, whereas the usual lifetime of a cold is three or four weeks, to say nothing of the serious results so frequently the outcome.

Mothers insure their children against croup by the use of this great family medicine, for if given freely in small doses it prevents the dreadful choking spasms and soon effects a thorough cure.

Whooping cough, bronchitis, asthma, croup and severe chest colds are quickly brought under control by the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all druggists, or Edman, Baker & Co., Limited, Toronto.

BEDS.

The bed is an ancient health resort which was invented about the time that a sleep was first put on the market. It was not used a great deal until after Noah's time. A dam didn't do much sleeping of any consequence, as he had to keep one eye on Eve and the other on the apple tree, an experience which is still being duplicated in several million localities. Beds can be had in various styles of architecture. One of the most pleasing and ornamental is the twin style, in which a man has to fall out of bed in order to turn over. This bed has the further advantage of permitting one to edge away from a lusty snore without giving offense or confiscating the covering. Then there is the folding bed with foredoor entrance and detachable tonneau. This bed is frequented mostly by people who are in a desperate mood or are anxious to realize on their life insurance. Memory clinics with fond delight to that household joy, the feather bed, and the feather bed has changed to a lot of people in its time. Many a person who climbed into a feather bed in the prime of vigorous manhood, faded away before breakfast time until they had to locate him with a plumb line. The straw tick is another variety of bed which is very popular with people of coarse cuticle and a violent passion for sleep in any form. The trundle bed was originally used to remove children from the corrupting influences of the spirituous hard cider and the Greening apple, to a lot of people in its time.
