Fight to Oust Morris Govt.

We publish elsewhere in this issue a suite of resolutions passed by the Supreme Council of the Fishermen's Protective Union, on the Petitions, presented last Spring to the House of Assembly, with a view to their transmission to the proper authorities, praying for a General Election, in the Fall of 1912.

Sir Robert Bond, the Leader of the Opposition, presented the first batch of these petitions, and in the course of his remarks said:—"It is very evident, Sir, from the number of these petitions and the numerous signatures attached thereto, that there is at present a widespread feeling of alarm in his country as regards public expenditure, AND EVERY ONE OF THEM SUPPORTS THE POSITION THAT I HAVE TAKEN IN THIS HOUSE IN REFERENCE TO PUBLIC EXPENDITURE SINCE THE OPENING OF THE SESSION."

Sir Edward Morris, in the course of his remarks on these petitions, said: "There is no alarm to-day in Newfoundland in relation to public expenditure or the policy of the Government."

"All these people have signed these petitions on the representations that the facts stated in them are true while as a matter of fact the statements are gross misrepresentations in relation to the Government and in relation to myself."

"Some hundreds of these petitions are prepared in St. John's—written by one party—and then sent broadcast all over the country. If there is any alarm it is in the individual who wrote the petitions."

"These statements will prove a boomerang to those who made them as surely as I am discussing them here this evening. People are not as easily gulled now as they were, and when they come to understand that they are merely being used as tools they will resent it in a way that will not be pleasant for those who are endeavoring to use them."

BOOMERANG HITS MORRIS.
Yes there has been a boomerang. But not such a boomerang as Sir Edward Morris predicted. The statements in the petitions have not proved a boomerang to those who made them, but the statements in his own speech have proved a boomerang and have hit him hard.

The delegates of some 140 lodges of fishermen have endorsed the petitions. They have affirmed that a feeling of alarm at public expenditure does exist in the country. They have resented strongly the aspersions by the Premier on President Coaker.

They have condemned in severe terms the determination of the Government to hold the General Election over till next Fall, and its refusal to hold an election this Fall. They go further and call on all citizens who value good government to RALLY ROUND THE MEN WHO WILL FIGHT TO OUST THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT FROM POWER NEXT FALL. Yes. There has been a boomerang and the Morris gang are the men hurt.

The Morris gang must go and give place to better men. The country is tired of Sir Edward Morris. The people are turning towards their trusted and tried Leader, Sir Robert Bond. They have had enough of Morris. They want Bond back again.

Heroic Rescues at Big Fire.

CINCINNATI'S CONFLAGRATION.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 11.—Firemen were to-day still playing water in the smoldering ruins of the Gibson Hotel, the Rendigo-Lothmann departmental store, W. L. Douglass Shoe Co., and the upper ten stories of the seventeen story Union Trust Building, which were destroyed by a fire which started last night.

The fire menaced the heart of Cincinnati's downtown district, and losses estimated at from $800,000 to $1,000,000 were suffered. So far as known there was reported injured, none seriously. These were overcome by smoke or suffered from minor injuries.

Acts of Heroism.
Scores of persons were imperilled, but heroic work by volunteer rescuers saved them. Forty-five scrub women were in the Union Trust Building when the fire started, and over a score of these were actual prisoners of the flames until rescuers ran the elevators through the smoke and fire to the hysterical women.

All the guests of the Gibson Hotel are believed to have escaped. They were notified of the fire in ample time to reach places of safety.
