The Labrador Boundary

Yesterday's despatch contains an interview given to the Canadian Press in Halifax by Hon. W. J. Higgins, Minister of Justice...

That the hope will be general is too good to expect, as this long drawn out case unquestionably has not been altogether devoid of material interest to some, and would, if continued indefinitely, be regarded as a comfortable estate for others to administer...

In order to afford some idea of the cost in which Newfoundland has been involved over this dispute, we have gathered the following figures. Unfortunately it is impossible to obtain similar information from the Canadian side...

Table with 2 columns: Year, Amount. Rows include 1906-1907, 1910-1911, 1911-1912, 1920-1921, 1921-1922, 1922-1923, 1923-1924, 1924-1925, and a Total row.

It will be observed that, unlike the ordinary milk cow, whose productivity varies directly with the quantity and quality of the nutriment she receives...

The final amount given includes the cost of the conference held last year at Quebec, a definite attempt to arrive at a settlement, and if the report as to the terms submitted at that gathering is correct, it is a fortunate thing for Newfoundland that they were rejected...

left us $10,000,000 as the net price of our dependency. Of course it may be argued that in view of the amounts paid for legal and research work in addition to the cost of administration...

Sale of Work at Synod Hall

The annual Sale of Work at the Synod Hall, under the auspices of the Cathedral Women's Association, will be opened this evening by His Lordship Bishop White...

Kyle to Assist Clyde With Freight

Arrangements have been made by the management of the railway for the steamer Kyle, now returning south from Cook's Harbor, to call at Lewisporte and take the balance of freight which was left over by S. S. Clyde...

Horse Dropped Dead

A horse owned by Mr. Frank Noseworthy, farmer of Freshwater Road, dropped dead this forenoon whilst being driven across Bond Street...

Skater Had Ankle Wrenched

While skating at Burton's Pond last night Master Andrew Pelt of the Royal Stores staff received a nasty fall which will confine him to his room for a few days...

Government Boats

Argyle left Argentina 6 a.m. to-day on west run. Caribon left Port aux Basques 8 p.m. yesterday. Clyde left Joe Batt's Arm 4.15 p.m. yesterday, outward...

To-Night's Card Party and Dance

What promises to be an enjoyable Card Party, Supper and Dance, takes place in the T.A. Society Club rooms to-night, under the auspices of the T.A. Ladies' Auxiliary...

Loss of the Eva

MID-OCEAN RESCUES—SCHOONER SINKS AS SOON AS CREW ARE TAKEN OFF—36 HOURS FOODLESS. Fire Danish seaman found drifting helplessly in the three-masted schooner Eva in the Atlantic...

Insurance on Parcels

We understand that the Minister of Posts has consulted the Mail Order Houses and other business people in St. John's respecting a proposal to permit by payment of a small fee, the insurance of parcels sent by mail...

Voting Slow up to Noon

There appears to be very little interest in the Municipal Election Contest, and up to noon here in several booth rooms there was scarcely more than a score of voters recorded...

Convicted of Stealing Church Funds

Constable Dewling arrived in the city by last night's train from Brigus, bringing a prisoner, Clarence Murgford, who has been sentenced to four months' imprisonment...

Children Annoying Residents

Complaint has been received from residents in Plymouth and Quidi Vidl Roads of children who cause considerable annoyance by ringing doorbells, knocking on doors or windows, and generally making themselves a nuisance in the neighbourhood...

Supreme Court

(Before Chief Justice Harwood and Mr. Justice Keat). Simon Butler, Administrator of the Estate of John Morgan vs. William Morgan.

By consent of the master the matter is adjourned sine die. The Eastern Trust Co., of 17, Arch-bald C. C. Macpherson, of all, and Mr. Morgan vs. Mr. Morgan.

In the Matter of Sir Bros. vs. Thomas J. Smyth. This is an application by L. C. Currie to enter final judgment. J. A. Barron for defendant is heard. Mr. R. Harvey, sworn, examined by Mr. Barron and cross-examined by Mr. Currie. The application was dismissed.

Magistrate's Court
