Hudson Bay Company Will Not Fight the Act, Nor Will They Be Bound by It.

Winnings Nov 27 -In the full courtroom yesterday, Hon. Colin H. Campbell, Q.C., Attorney-General, stated that the Government intended to submit to the court a case with regard to the Liquor Act, and he stated the Government desired that, if possible, all the judges should set on the argument, as important quations of constitutional law world arise. The Attorney-General stated that a difficulty had arisen with regard to the Hudson Bay Company, who had decided they would not appear on the argument of the case and would not be bound by it. He desired to ask the direction of the court with regard to the course to be pursued as to the Hudson

Painful, Fatal Kidney Disease

One of the most common symptoms of kidney disease is the smarting, scalding sensation when passing water, which is likely to come very frequently and at inconvenient times. Then there is the dull, heavy aching in the small of the back and down the limbs.

When these pains are accompanied by deposits in the urine after it has stood for twenty-four hours, you may be sure that you are a victim of kidney disease, and should not lose a single day in securing the world's greatest kidney cure—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Don't imagine that you are experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are almost as well known as his great Recipe Book, have made some of the most surprising cures of kidney disease on record, and have come to be considered the only absolute cure for kidney disease. Ask your neighbors about them. Nearly everybody can tell of some remarkable cure by their use. One pill a dose; 25 cents a box, at all dealers', or Edmarson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

The Fighting Declaration.

The fighting declaration which Mr. Kruger made at the landing stage dispelled at once any impression that he might intend to accept a compromise from the British Government. His announcement was greeted with a roar of cheers and cries of "Vive Kruger," "Vive, Les Boers," "Vive La Liberte." He repeated the sentiment from the hotel balcony, where, replying to the storm of acclamations from the solid block of thousnads of people, Mr. block of thousnads of people, Mr. Kruger said the reception given him that day would do much to soothe the wounds in his heart. The Boers, said he, would never sacrifice their freedow. freedom. They would rather be exterminated to the last man.

MR. KRUGER AT PARIS. he French Capital in a Ferment to Do Him Honer

Paris, Nov. 26.—Mr. Kruger and party entered the train at Dijon at 6.30 a.m. on Saturday. His saloon cars were attached to the train de luxe from the Riviera to Paris. In spite of the early hour a fair num-ber of inhabitants assembled on the platform to cheer the departing guest. Mr. Kruger uttered a few words of thanks to the city for its sulendid welcome.

assemblage filled the station. Mayor and the Municipal Councillors, a number of Senators, Deputies, ar-my officers and reporters were mus-tered on the platform. The Mayor tered on the platform. The Mayor welcomed him on the platform, and Mr. Kruger, to the great disappoint-ment of those waiting in the salon of honor, passed out through other door, where a landau was drawn up. He was at once driven to his hotel, amid a cyclone of enthus-lastic cheering.

An Address of Welcome.

Mayor Grebauval and the president of the pro-Boer Committee and dent of the pro-Poer Committee and others presented the aged traveller with addresses of welcome, to which Mr. Kruger replied that he was touched to the bottom of his heart by the welcome he had received. He concluded with saying that he had faith in the Beer nation, which, though tempest-tossed, would keep affoat and never sink.

"No army ever behaved better,"
said Sir Redvers. "There is no doubt that the fact that the war has come to its crisis induces severer treatment. But why is it so? Are the real patriots fighting for their country? The whole people, whom we know as Boers, either have already surrendered, or are prisoners, or are doing their level best to surrender. The people left in the field are either mercenaries or bandits." Gen. Buller quoted an Orange Riv-
