Garden Party at the Grove.

The scholars of the Methodist Sunday school of the Grove, London township, were treated to a very enjoyable garden party at the residence of Mr. R. Webster, con. 3, yesterday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon tea, ice cream and refreshments of all kinds were served in abundance, and the music of the Routledge band, of Hyde Park, made things all the merrier. In the evening the beautiful grounds were illuminated with Chinese lanterns and an open-air entertainment was given. Rev. James Kennedy, pastor of the Grove Church, occupied the chair and delivered an interesting address, as did also Rev. Messrs. Lanceley, Henderson and Crews, sen. Songs were given by Miss Mutch, to which Mr. Ed. St. Clair De Lacey played accompaniments. The reci-Mutch, to which Mr. Ed. St. Clair De Lacey played accompaniments.
