Finest English Perfumes

NEW, DAINTY AND DELIGHTFUL ODORS.

Extracted direct from the flower, permanently retain their freshness and delicate fragrance, differing greatly in this respect from the cheaper descriptions, which are made from the common essential oils, and soon become rank and offensive.

Our new perfumes for Christmas are very fine and fragrant, and are put up in lovely packages suitable for gifts.

GREAT FIGHT PROGRESSING

Between Gen. Knox's Force and the Men Under Dewet.

London, Dec. 1.—The Evening Standard reports that a great fight is in progress between General Knox and General Dewet near Rouxville, in the southeastern extremity of the Orange River Colony, and that the capture of General Dewet is considered imminent.

The British had five men killed and 56 wounded in the fighting with the Vrijheid and Erasmus commando near Roodfontein, on Nov. 29.

SILENT FOR A WOMAN'S SAKE

Toronto, Dec. 1.—The libel action of Mayor E. A. Macdonald against Saturday Night, which charged him with having lived a scandalous life in the past, was dismissed yesterday because of the mayor's persistent refusal to answer questions as to his relations with a woman whose good name he avers would be blasted by any publicity.
