Sma'lest Liabilities in Recent Years. Dun's Review of Oct. 7, 1905, says: Insolvency returns for the Dominion of the single exception of 1903, although the number of failures is slightly larger than in either of the three years immediately preceding. Compared with last year, there were 959 defaults for $7,105,495, against 910 failures for $8,988,140. Of these aggregates there were 208 manufacturing failures for $2,269,992, against 225 for $3,643,261; 739 trading failures with liabilities of $4,781,320, compared with 665 last year when the amount involved reached $5,060,986, and 12 other commercial failures for $54,183, against 20 for $283,893. Four banking disasters occurred with liabilities of $420,000, but last year was also satisfactory in this respect, two suspensions involving only $30,749.

A Petrolea Young Girl Said To Have

Attempted Suicide. Petrolea, Oct. 9.—Because she went to dance against the orders of her father who, it is said, struck her upon her return, it is said that a young girl of this place named Gregory attempted suicide. Shortly after Miss Gregory's companions had left her at her door revolver shot was head. Later she was found with a bullet hole in the right side of her head and was taken a private hospital here was extracted after considerable trouble. The facts were telegraphed to the county crown attorney at Sarnia, who sent Provincial Detecive Murray to investigate. With Police Magistrate Duncan he risited the young girl in the hospital and secured her deposition. NOT ENOUGH CARS Shortage Is Handicapping the For warding of Grain.

Toronto, Oct. 10.-The cry for freight ars which the west has heard many a ime is now ringing through Ontario. The points where the shortage is felt worst are Point Edward, Goderich, Owen Sound, Midland and Collingwood. Grain is being rushed down from tha west, and the elevators at these points are filling up, because there are too few cars to keep the grain moving eastward Besides the shortage at these points there is a cry for cars from all over the grain-growing parts of the Province.
Warehouses are filled and the buyers cannot receive more from the farmers until some of the grain is moved out.

Dealers say they often have to wait

Representatives of the railway companies declare the reports of shortage exaggerated. They had cars standing idle in summer, and now everybody wanted to get wait and the standard to get DYER'S LIVERY, NEXT ADVERTISER
