SPEER CASE WILL SURELY BE PROBED

Interested Buffalo Parties Are Trying To Stop All Investigation.

Buffalo, Aug. 24.—That the mysteri. ous end of Victor Speer, self-destruction, killing or natural death, will have effect on the political situation in Western New York is beginning to be realized by Buffalo politicians. From the moment J. N. Adam, Buf. falo's Scotch mayor, took office nearly four years ago, Vic Speer was his ANNIA House), corner Wellington and York. Remodelled. J. H. Cook, proguide in every political move. Mayor Adams has tried for the Democratic nomination for governor. Adam felt Speer's death more than anyone in Buffalo. He never has resented the current report that Speer was the real mayor of Buffalo. Adam left for his native Scotland as soon as possible after Speer's death. He declared he would run again for mayor, but his superiors are asking who wil run his campaign. There is nothing political, however, the disposition of District Attorney

Dudley to bring the matter of Speer's death to the grand jury on Sept: 7 Men of several parties and factions have interested themselves in preventing any sort of an investigation. The grand jury probe will be thorough and without favor. Only one thing can prevent it. That is the furnishing of absolute proof to the district attorney that his death was a natural one Two versions of Speer's death have at the Mansion House in Williamsville has been proven beyond a doubt. This was with one of Buffalo's richest merchants, with whose wife Speer is said to have been on very friendly terms. The other story is that on the way back to Buffalo Speer stopped at Snyderville, Maple Grove, where there goes, he met an angry father, another rich businessman. The father is said to have beaten Speer, finally warning him to leave Buffalo within

> Rochester N.Y. Aug 24-The mystery "the man in black" and the shovel which figure in the killing of 17-year-old Anna Catherine Schumacher in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, are again to the fore in the hunt for the girl's slayer. "The -M. P. McDonagh, barrister, 418 Tal- man in black" was seen to walk out of Aug. 7, by at least three persons who swear to the incident. The shovel in the case has been proved to belong to Ber> nard's seminary. The officials, when the crime was disovered, said no one was absent from the seminary who might throw any light acquired by the intelligent application on the murder. It is learned that a proof foundation lines. Our graduates give | fessor has been away since soon after the girl's body was found, and that he first found the spade with which the victim was buried in an old rabbit warren. This incident, which now becomes of prime importance, is related by Mr.

"Soon after the body was found by Constables Al Baker and Otto Friedman, a friend and myself walked into the old pumphouse. A professor from the seminary was in the pumphouse with the shovel his hands. He told us it came from the seminary grounds. There was fresh dirt and some ground grain on the blade. We saw no blood on the handle, though there might have been on the stuff sticking to the blade. The professor stood the shovel up against the inside of the pumphouse, and we all walked away. I don't know who the professor was.' The shovel was found a few moments later by Thomas Craddock, a cemetery foreman. The district attorney's office wants the absent man to tell where he found the shovel, and why he did not
