ILDERTON FAIR BIGGER AND BETTER IN ALL RESPECTS

Fine Crowd Out to Annual Exhibition of London Township Agricultural Society.

A FINE LOT OF HORSES

The Special Attractions Proved Diverting and Exciting—Results of Races.

[By Our Own Man.]

Iderton, Sept. 26.—A big, little fair, a fair that pleased the three thousand people who attended, and will bring them all back next year, and a fair that would have deserved an attendance of several times that number if the morning had not been threatened with rain and clouds to sadly interfere with the ever-favorite exhibition of the London Township Agricultural Society, was held here today. It was the first fair of the association held on their commodious new fair grounds. The new grounds will permit of the expansion that the fair richly merits. One of the few fair fairs that are going ahead rather than backward, the directors and members of the society are extremely optimistic, and with the addition of new buildings and other improvements to the grounds are confident that they will make it one of

Twice Proven Cure for Nerves

Irritable, Hysterical, Sleepless, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Restores Health.

There is a message in this letter for thousands of women who are suffering from broken-down nervous systems. Sleepless nights, much irritability over little things, spells of dizziness and nervous sick headaches are among the symptoms.

You may not realize the nature of your ailment until nervous prostration comes upon you. But, in whatever stage you find yourself, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is ready to help you.

Mrs. W. J. May, 88 Annette street, Toronto, writes: "Some years ago I suffered from nervous trouble, and took Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which completely cured me. About six months ago I received a shock which again shattered my nervous system to such an extent that I was irritable and hysterical, and could not sleep nights. I began to use the Nerve Food again and was not disappointed. Improvement was apparent from the first box, and now I am entirely well." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers.

the best fall fairs in Western Ontario.

Fine Lot of Horses.
The exhibit of horses was, as it always is a big feature of the fair. The Iderton district is a breeding centre of fine horses, and the reputation of both the village and district was well maintained. In carriage and roadster classes the prize-winners and leading exhibitors were: Archibald Blaikie, Westminster; Henry McLurg, Alisa Craig; R. W. Jackson, Iderton; Edwin Phillips, Falkirk; Bert Kennedy, Iderton; George Carter, Iderton; Frank Atwood, Iderton; Fred Clatworthy, Iderton; Thomas Chadcock, Iderton.

Cattle and Sheep.
Iderton district is also noted for the fine Shorthorns and Herefords produced here. M. Robson of Iderton, was a heavy winner in Shorthorns. O'Neill Bros. of Denfield, carried off a big share of the Hereford prizes. Another noteworthy winner in the Hereford classes was T. Skippin, of Hyde Park.

One must not overlook the fine Lincoln sheep raised in London and adjoining townships. J. Lindon, of Denfield, M. Robson, of Iderton and L. Hughes, of Iderton were leading exhibitors. W. Kennedy, Iderton, showed some exceptionally fine Southdowns. All around it was the best exhibit of sheep in the history of the fair, so the old-timers who attend every year declared.

There were some very good swine exhibits. Wm. Squires showed a lot of fine Berkshires. In the grade cattle classes, Henry Robson of Iderton, Ed Porter, Iderton, and N. Grievie, Iderton, were successful exhibitors.

A. F. O'Neill, Denfield, showed heavy draft and agricultural horses. James Robson, Arva, exhibited heavy horses. In the same class other leading exhibitors were Wesley Hall, Iderton, and G. Grievie, Lobo.

WHAT'S INDIGESTION?
WHO CARES? LISTEN!

"Pape's Diapepsin" Makes Sour, Gassy Stomachs Feel Fine at Once.

Time! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, eructations or undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know Pape's Diapepsin will save them from any stomach misery.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which don't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis, or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.

ternoon, and until late in the evening. Abundance of good music was provided by the Birr Brass Band, a London Township musical aggregation from a neighboring village that met with deserving appreciation for the excellent program rendered.

Everybody, including the contestants, enjoyed the potato race. It was one of the unique features of the ring attractions. Six stalwart riders on noble steeds, armed with wooden lances, dashed down the track, circled an ordinary wooden barrel, and speared therefrom each time one large harness potato, carried it down the ring, carefully avoiding the interference of his opponents, and deposited it in another barrel in front of the judges' stand. It was not so easy a task as it appeared, for some of the competitors found it more exciting to tilt the potatoes from their opponents' lances than to see how many tubers they themselves could carry from one barrel to the other. Ten minutes were allowed, and when the bell rang Beverly Mitchell and ten potatoes all safely deposited. J. A. Henderson and Cecil Tuckey tied for second place, each with seven potatoes to his credit.

The free-for-all race was won by Sidney Hoagins, of Candelove, and the local race, prizes for which were offered by George Woolley, for horses that had never won first money, was won by H. Sinker.

Stop Coasting On Town Walks

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ingersoll, Sept. 26.—As a result of the fatal accident in Woodstock on Wednesday, Chief of Police Fysh today visited the schools and impressed upon the pupils the fact that no more coasting on the sidewalks will be allowed.

There have been numerous complaints regarding children coasting on the walks here, and several serious accidents have been narrowly averted.

CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK CHILDREN NEED "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

A Coated Tongue Means Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Listen, Mother!

Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has sour stomach, diarrhoea, remember a little liver and bowel cleansing would always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills. Give a teaspoonful and in just a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food, clogged in the bowels, passes out of the system and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless fruit laxative and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on each bottle.

Mother, keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no cheaper size. Don't be fooled.

Send us the Rug that is stained or faded. Rugs lend themselves admirably to dyeing—and our long experience enables us to tell just which color will be best to use for each individual Rug.

Phone for our representative to call and give advice upon the dyeing and cleaning of carpets, etc.
