"His Name Shall Be Called Wonderful" — A Sermon For Skeptics.

> [BY THE REV. BILLY SUNDAY.] Copyrighted, 1915.

Text-"His name shall be called Wonderful."-Isalah 9:16. In olden times, all names meant, or stood for something and this is still the case among the Indians, and all other people who are living in a primitive way. There are 256 names for the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I suppose this is because He was infinitely more than any one name could express. Of the many names given to Christ it is my purpose at this time briefly consider this one. "His name shall be called Wonderful." Let us ber it. look into it somewhat and see whether He was true to His name, which was given Him by the prophet 800 years before he was born. Does the name fit Him? It is such a name as he ought to have.

Wonderful means something that is transcendently beyond the common, say that the Yellowstone Park, Niagara Falls and the Grand Canyon of that is their enemy, or even talks some place in his possession.

Colorado are wonderful because there is nothing else like them, His birth was wonderful, for no other ever occurred that was like it. It His birth was wonderful, for no other ever occurred that was like it. All the boys reached home about a planned for by the Scout executive of colock, so that the paper-boys could be paper-boys could all over the country. There was no room for Him at the inn and He had of showing loyalty. Right here at to be born in a stable, and cradled in a manger, and yet angels proclaimed it with joy from the sky, to a few humble shepherds in sheepskin coat, who We can grow up good, strong men, to were guarding the flocks by night. Mark how He might have come, with be ready to die for our country if need all the pomp and all the glory of the upper world. But He gave up all the be, or to live for her as a reputable glory of that world and born of a poor woman, and His cradle was a manger.

Think what He had come for. He had come to bless, not to curse, to lift up, not to cast down; to seek and to save that which was lost; to give sight of life, and send the money that was to partment. to the blind; to open prison doors and set captives free; to reveal the Father's love; to give rest to the weary; to be a blessing to the whole world—and yet there was no room for Him! He came to do THAT-and you have no room for Him in your heart! You don't like my preaching. Walk up and tell me how you can be a Christian and see this great battle and knock me. You're a child of the devil. His character was wonderful, for no other has ever approached it in perfection. It is wonderful that the greatest character ever produced should have come out of such obscurity to become the most famous in all history. That such a time, and such a country, and such a people should have produced Jesus Christ, can be accounted for on no other ground than His divinity On his return from a trip to the Holy Land I said to a preacher friend: "What ade the greatest impression upon you while there?" 'Nazareth!" he answered instantly, and gave this reason

"The same kind of people are living there today as in the time of Jesus and they are about the worst specimens of humanity I have seen anywhere. Lazy, lustful, ignorant and wicked, and to think of His coming out from such people is to me sure proof of His divinity. Had I not been a believer in so acting, set a bad example to the His divinity before going there, I would have to believe in it now. His life was wonderful. Wonderful for its sinlessness and for its use fulness and His unselfishness. Even his enemies could not bring against Him any graver charge than that He claimed God for His Father, and that He uld do good on the Sabbath day. Wonderful for the way in which He taught; for its simplicity and clear-ess, and adaptation to the individual. You do not anywhere find Him seeking the multitude, but He never avoided the individual. And His teaching was always adapted to the comprehension of those whom He taught!

It is said that the common people heard Him gladly, and this shows that they understood what He said. He put the cookles on the lower shelf. No man had to take a dictionary with him when he went to hear the sermon on the mount.

A man once asked: "What's the secret of your success, Mr. Sunday? said: "I've got something to say and I say it." And that isn't egotism. "disintegrated," but "rotten," you're not a "prevaricator," but a never say I like to see a fellow preach so all can understand him, no matter if he is a skunk, a jackass, or what he is. Jesus taught that all would be lost who did not believe in Him. I have seen multitudes of saved people, but I have yet to see one who did not get his salvation through believing in Christ. We've got a lot of star gazers displacement, inflammation and fe- and a lot of fools in all ages of the world's history

Find the place in this world that comes nearest to being like hell itself, For two years I and you will find it filled with those who are haters of Jesus Christ, and find the place in this world that is most like heaven, and you will find it filled with those who are in love with Jesus Christ. Perhaps rheumatism is flying through your muscles and joints, or may be your skin is disfigured by rashes, boils or pimples. Headaches, twinges of neuralgia, fits of nervousness, irritability of temper and a disordered stomach crease your discomfort in the spring.

The cause—winter has left its mark on you. These troubles are signs that your blood is poor and watery, that your nerves are exhausted. You must renew and enrich your blood at once and restore tone to your tired nerves, or there may be a complete breakdown. The most powerful remedy for these spring ailments in women and children is Dr. Wiliams' Pink Pills for Pale People, because these pills cleanse bad blood and strengthen weak nerves.
